But always makes the sense rise
To Truthful triumph if he dare!

They hold as much as Nature's swing,
And keep the mind in equal poise,
And conscience from a drunken noise.
So you who want your senses whet

Mixing up the Babies.

The Weaverville (Cal.) Journal gives the following account of an affair which, however it may move the laughter of our readers we fancy to have made some of the parties concerned "laugh on the wrong side of their mouths:"

"Some time ago there was a dancing party given 'up north,' most of the ladies present had little babies, whose noisy perversity required too much attention to permit the mothers to enjoy the dance. A number of gallant young men volunteered to watch the young ones while the parents indulged in a 'break-down.' No sooner had the women left the babies in charge of the mischievous devils, than they stripped the infants, changed their clothes, giving to one the apparel of another. The dance over, it was time to go home, and the mothers hurriedly took each a baby, in the dress of her own, and started, some to their homes, ten or fifteen miles off and were far on their way before daylight,—but the day following there was a prodigious row in that settlement; mothers discovered that a single day had changed the sex of their babes; observation disclosed startling physiological phenomena, and then commenced some of the tallest female pedestrianism; being miles apart it required two days to unmix the babies, and as many months to restore the women to their naturally sweet dispositions. To this day it is unsafe for any of the baby mixers to venture within the territory."

[From the Utica Morning Herald, Jan. 17, 1859.]

Benjamin F. Walker, of Madison, is the subject of a remarkable cure of disease of the eyes. He had been severely afflicted for six months or more, and the remedies applied furnished him but no aid. He called on Dr. Lighthill, of this city, who effected a complete cure by a single prescription. Mr. Walker appreciates the remarkable cure so quickly effected, and desires to be justice to Dr. Lighthill by this public acknowledgment.

[From the Syracuse Journal, Sept. 16, 1858.]

We learn that Dr. Lighthill, assisted by Dr. Pease, has performed an operation for the cure of Strabismus upon the eyes of Miss Julia C. Hoskins, of Tompkins County, with perfect success. Truly, the knowledge of that science which accomplishes such [illegible] difficulties connected with this delicate and useful organ, should be hailed with rejoicing by those who are continually liable to its failing, as it is sought by those who have experienced similary blessings. The Crops and the Market.

The prospect for crops throughout the west seem brightening. In nearly all the grain growing districts accounts are favorable, and the panic caused by the late frosts seems in a great measure to have subsided. The reports from Southern Ohio, Indiana and Illinois where harvests has commenced are very flattering, and indicate that the ravages of the frost have been nearly forgotten. Even in most places where the injury was most severe, all crops except wheat seem to have recovered rapidly, and the injury to wheat not so bad as was at first feared. In our own State it is generally conceded that wheat is not so badly damaged as was feared, though it is doubtless true that in a few particularly unfavorable localities it is bad enough. We do not think, however, that the crop of the State is lessened one-tenth by it. On Friday we were shown samples of wheat from fields near this village, which was as fine and as handsomely filled as we ever saw, and were informed that in the vicinity from which they were taken, wheat never looked more promising. Corn and oats, it is conceded on all hands now look finely. There may be localities where corn is affected by drouth, or injured in other ways, but we are convinced that such cases are even fewer than is usual at this season. Potatoes and other root crops are reported as fully up to the average of such crops.

The markets are not promising any advance in prices. Our European news, at each successive arrival, report the downward tendency of grains in the European marts, and there is every probability that it will be some months before they reach the lowest figures. This fact indicates that in the great commercial centres the utmost confidence is felt in the abundance of the crops. The war, which it was so confidently predicted, was to create such an enormous demand, and consequently inflation of prices, has, so far, failed to "play out the programme," and seems to have scarcely affected either the grain or money markets; certainly not on this side the Atlantic. An attempt was made by some dealers to cry down the price of wool, from this cause, but, as wool growers can testify, it was a failure. It is our opinion that any effort to get up speculative prices, for crops upon a similar basis must prove equally abortive.

The wool clip has generally brought good prices, and we believe there is less of it now remaining in first hands than is usual at this season of the year. The prices of grains are yet well sustained in all our western markets, but we shall look for some decline so soon as transactions in the crop now coming in shall become active. We see no probability of an advance unless something out of the ordinary course should happen to bring about such a result, and would advise none to hold on to their crops, with any such expectation. Especially do we think it well for those having debts to cancel, to realize as soon as practicable, and so make sure of a fair price and easier circumstances, rather than trust to a doubtful prospect of higher prices.

Affairs in Europe.

The Asia, which sailed from Liverpool June 25, brings full and interesting accounts of the movements of the armies in Italy, and of political events on the Continent to that date. After a series of rapid retreats the Austrian army, numbering more than a quarter of a million of men, appears to have made a stand on the right bank of the Mincio, between Castiglion and the river, and was there defeated by NAPOLEON III., after a conflict of sixteen hours' duration, on the 24th of June. At the same time important movements were making on the Adriatic by the French fleet, and by the force under Prince NAPOLEON from the South, while there were reasons for suspecting a widely concerted rising in the Italian Tyrol. The Papal Government appears to have been guilty of great folly or baseness in respect to the people of the Romagna. The Swiss hireling soldiers of the Pope had been despatched to Perugia to murder the inhabitants in the name of the Head of the Church. Grave complications were expected to arise from this infamous conduct of the Conclave. At Naples the course of the young King was exciting much uneasiness and distrust.—The Prussian Government is endeavoring to explain the mobilization of the army as a purely pacific step; and to deprecate the idea of assuming any extraordinary claims as a mediator in Europe. A foolish story circulated by the Independance Belge of terms proposed to the French Emperor, obtained little credence. In England the alarm-fever was subsiding and signs of dissension were appearing in the new Government. Mr. GLADSTONE was to be seriously opposed at Oxford by Lord CHANDOS. A quizzical article on the Isle of Perim, in the Journal des Debats, had greatly exercised the English Press; and the King of the Belgians having visited London is publicly requested by the London Times to remember that he owes his throne to a violation of the treaties of 1815; and therefore not to make himself specially active at the English Court in sustaining the impossible pretentions of Austria in Italy.

Serious Railroad Accident.

The Central Express Train going East from this place 6:36 A. M. on Thursday met with a Serious accident in being thrown off the track about half a mile beyond Oneida. A gang of men had been repairing the track and had just put down a rail without spiking it securely which gave way precipitating the first one of four coaches over an Embankment of from ten to fifteen feet. The Engine, tender and baggage car passed over safely.

Among the passengers on the train were Gen. Gould, H. Britenstool and son, Mrs. Joseph Bier and son, Joseph Wile and B. R. McAlpine, of Rochester, Maj. Leonard U. S. A., Dean Richmond, of this place; John H. Chedell, Auburn, and George Bliss, President of the Michigan Southern Railroad. The latter gentleman was on board the ill-fated train which was swept away on his own road and destroyed, together with the lives of a large number of passengers, last week. He escaped injury then, and was equally fortunate this time. Messrs. Gould, Richmond and Chedell were going to Albany to attend a meeting of the Directors of the Central Railroad. Mr. Chedell received some injury, but how much we could not learn.—Gen. Gould and Mr. Richmond were not hurt.

Some of the passengers in the first coach were quite seriously injured but not dangerously as we learn.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—The W. H. WEBB, with advices from California to the 20th ult. and from Mexico to the 3d inst arrived at New Orleans on Thursday. She brings intelligence that $2,000,000 in treasure were on the 20th ult, shipped for the East at San Francisco. Business was improving somewhat. Mr. Curry had been nominated for Governor by the Anti-Lecompton Democrats, who had also nominated Messrs. McKibben and Butcher for Congress. From Mexico there is no political news. It is announced that Gen. Robles, at the request of Minister McLane, had released the $5,000,000 conducta, and it was awaiting shipment at Vera Cruz.

THE corner stone of the State Agricultural College, at Ovid, was laid Thursday with appropriate ceremonies, by ex-Gov. KING, in the presence of a great concourse of people. The report of the Trustees state that $40,000 have been subscribed toward the Institution by the citizens of Ovid and vicinity. A like sum is also appropriated by the State. The building will be ready for the accommodation of one hundred and fifty pupils next Spring.

At a recent prize fight at Ballymena, Ireland, one of the pugilists was knocked down sixty-one times and had his eyes completely "closed up," and yet he came unflinchingly to "the scratch."

THE Detroit Advertiser states that the wheat crop in Michigan will be abundant, notwithstanding the frost, and that the reports of excessive damage which were first circulated were unduly exaggerated. The frost was confined to a section comparatively small, and the fears of the timid led to the spread of unfounded rumors.

At a fire which occurred at 457 Broadway, N. Y., Wednesday night, Mrs. Elkins threw her two children, aged respectively two and three years, out of the third story window, and jumped after them. Their fall was broken by an awning, and they were not much injured. A servant girl and a niece of Mr. Elkins were rescued by the firemen in a partial state of suffocation. Another woman saved herself by jumping from a back window.

The Cleveland Herald tells of a young auburn haired damsel who put up at a hotel in that place, and told plausible stories of having been robbed, and was in a fair way to run up a big account in a dry goods store. Being suspected a police officer got her to tell him all about her operations, she thinking he was acting as a confederate. She is being delt with "according to law."

The longest balloon voyage on record after that of the one made by Prof. Wise, last week was made in 1836. The balloon, in which were three Englishmen, sailed from London to Weilburg, Germany, a distance of 500 miles, in 18 hours. In 1853, an American, at Cincinnati, made voyages of 3 50 miles in nine and a half hours.

An earthquake occurred at Erzeroum, the principal city of Asiatic Turkey, on the 2d of June, and 1500 persons are said to have lost their lives. The city has a population of 30,000.

John Darcy, a laborer at work on the Baptist Church at Albion, while carrying a hod up a ladder on Wednesday, was knocked to the ground by a brick which accidently fell upon his head, and died of his injuries.

The hide and fat-boiling establishment of Mr. Eckel, of Cunningham-Burdell notoriety, was burnt yesterday morning in New York.

THE DANSVILLE DAILY REGISTER—is another accession to the Small Daily Press of Western New York. It is "got up" neatly, and Edited by H. C. PAGE, and Published by W. J. LARUE.

WE understand that GOV. CLARK sent two Physicians, Dr. BROWN of Bloomingdale, and Raddo, of N. Y., to examine into the case of David Curry, now in the Jail of this place, under sentence of death, to ascertain whether or not there is evidence of insanity to warrant a further respite, or a mitigation of the sentence which is, otherwise, to take effect on Friday.

THE CONSTELLATION.—Mr. GEORGE ROBERTS has issued a mammoth quadruple sheet, entitled The Constellation, a copy of which we have received. It is the largest paper ever published, and aside from its illustrations and reading matter, all first rate, it is desirable as a curiosity. It may be had at Wilder's News Room.

NOTHING VENTURE, NOTHING HAVE.—We venture to state that, in our opinion, the clear, cool and sparkling soda-water drawn from the fount of N. A. C. WILDER at his News Room, is quite as effective in quenching the thirst and far more palpable, refreshing and healthful than the best gin or brandy in Batavia. He has a great variety of excellent syrups, wherewith to flavor the beverage. Drop in, and test it.

Regulator.

We notice to-day that BIERCE is paying 18 cts per pound for good butter and has reduced still lower the price of all his Summer Goods. Lawns worth 12½c to 8c; Silks worth 75c to 50c. Embroidery sets worth $4.00 to $2.00; Challies worth 25c to 12½; Kid Gloves worth 87½c to 50; Linen worth 50 to 25c. MILES always undersells the other Merchants. tf

Closing Up.

S. H. RUSSELL offers his entire stock of Dry Goods and Groceries at cost. Being desirous to close the concern, he offers good goods at this immense sacrifice. Every one should improve the chance, and let the crowd rush to RUSSELL's and obtain Goods that are GOODS. See adv. tf

MRS. M. M. DENSLOW,

Having returned from New-York with her usual supply of New Millinery Goods, is now ready to offer to the Public an assortment that will vie with the very best self-imported Stock ever before brought into a Batavia market.—True Mrs. D. did not go to Paris herself, but bought her supply at Importing Houses in New York, who have been long in the Trade and who sell to their old customers, who pay, at very reasonable rates, and Mrs. D. being one of that class of customers, is enabled to give her patrons the full benefit of a superb Stock of Goods, purchased at those Houses, where Fashionable Goods are to be had, at very small profits. The Public are invited to call and see, after seeking to be supplied elsewhere, among Importers, and she feels they will not be inclined to go empty away.—The cash trade is greatly desired—though responsible persons can have credit from four to six months.

She is fully prepared to execute all orders in this line of traffic, and to prosecute with dispatch, and with all of the neatness, elegance an fashion, that her reputation has heretofore won her, any work trusted to her care. Her uniform prices are also made to suit the times and in tents of the buyer. 135-tf

Latest News.
BY TELEGRAPH.

Arrival of the Steam Ship Hungarian.

FIVE DAYS LATER NEWS.

FARTHER POINT, C. E., July 8.

The steamship Hungarian, from Liverpool on Wednesday the 29th ult, passed this point at 11:30 A. M. to-day, en route for Quebec where she will be due at a late hour in the evening.

There had been no important movement of troops since the battle of the 24th.

The details of the battle have not been received and no estimates of the losses had been made.

The Austrians and Sardinians, however admit their losses to have been extraordinarily heavy.

The Emperor Napoleon telegraphs that the army took 6,000 prisoners, 3 flags and 30 cannon.

The Austrians had recrossed the Mincio.

General Hess has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Austrian army.

The latest despatches state that the French had crossed the Mincio.

FURTHER BY THE HUNGARIAN.

Interesting Details!

NEW YORK, July 8.

The following telegrams contain all that is known in regard to the great battle of the 24th of June:

NAPOLEON TO THE EMPRESS.

CAVRIANA, July 25—1:30 P. M.

It is impossible, as yet, to obtain the details of the battle of yesterday.

The enemy withdrew last night. I have passed the night in the room occupied in the morning by the Emperor of Austria.

Gen. Niel has been appointed a Marshal of France.

June 26—11:30 A. M.

The Austrians who had crossed the Mincio for the purpose of attacking us with their whole body, have been obliged to abandon their positions and withdraw to the left bank of the river. They have blown up the bridge of Goito.

The loss of the enemy is very considerable, but ours is much less. We have taken 30 cannon, more than 7,000 prisoners and 3 flags.

CAVRIANA, June 25.

Soldiers! The enemy, who believed themselves able to repulse us from the Chiese, have recrossed the Mincio. You have worthily defended the honor of France—Solferino surpasses the recollection of Lonato and Castiglione. In twelve hours you have repulsed the efforts of 150,000 men. Your enthusiasm did not rest there. The numerous artillery of the enemy occupied formidable position for over three leagues, which you carried.—Your country thanks you for your courage and perseverance, and laments the fallen. We have taken three flags, thirty cannon and six thousand prisoners. The Sardinian army fought with the same valor against superior forces, and worthy is that army to march beside you. Blood has not been shed in vain for the glory of France and the happiness of the people!

No circumstantial account of the battle had reached Paris.

There were vague rumors that 10,000 to 12,000 French troops were killed and wounded.

The following is the official account of the battle.

VERONA, June 25.

The day before yesterday our right wing occupied Pozzolengo, Solferino and Cavriana, and the left wing pressed forward as far as Guidizzolo and Castelgoffredo.

A collision took place between the two armies at 10 A. M. yesterday.

Our left under Gen. Wimpfen advanced as far as Chiese. In the afternoon there was a concentrated assault on the heroically defended town of Solferino. Our right wings repulsed the Piedmontese, but on the other hand the order of our centre could not be restored and our losses were extraordinarily heavy.

The development of powerful masses of the enemy against our left wing and the advance of his main body against Volta caused or retreat, which began late in the evening.

VERY LATEST.

PARIS Wednesday.—The Moniteur of this morning contains the following:—

CAVRIANA, 28th.—Our troops have passed the Mincio without hesitation, the enemy having withdrawn therefrom.

The advices from Frankfort-on-the-main state that on the 25th of June Prussia made a proposal to the Federal Diet to place a corps of observation on the Rhine, to be composed of the 7th and 8th Federal corps d'armee, under the supreme orders of Bavaria. The proposal to be referred to the Military Committee.

The Paris Siecle and the Journal des Debats ridicule the idea of German mediation on the basis which Russia has placed in circulation.

It was reported that the Emperor of Austria would soon have an interview with the Prince.

STARTLING EVIDENCE.

LET THE SICK READ.—The Boston Scalpel, a medical publication, says: Dr. Herrick's Sugar Coated Pills, made at Albany, N. Y., appear to be the pill of the world. Dr. H. makes no secret of their compound; he furnishes all physicians in good standing with the receipt of their ingredients, and with the Pills, sugar coated, by the pound. Among all medicine manufacturers, Dr. Herrick stands in Medical knowledge and medical responsibility, unapproached. As Spring is upon us, and hot weather expected, and a few doses of Herrick's Matchless Pills.—[Needle Record.

☞ Dr. C. T. Prescott, of Baltimore, M. D., a note to Dr. Herrick, says: I have tested your purgative Sugar Coated Pills in a variety of diseases, and find them superior to any cathartic I ever used. My customers, particularly the female portion, have fallen in love with them, and frequently ask me to give them the Sugar Coated Pill. Your discovery in coating a pill with sugar should immortalize your name, and I doubt not your invention will be handed down to future posterity as a discovery worthy the day in which we live. A gawky backwoods boy, was once at a depot on one of the Georgia railroads, and was of course deeply interested in gazing—for the first time—at the 'mighty thing.' Finally he got inside of a car, and while indulging his curiosity, the whistle screamed, and the bell rang, and the steam horse began to surge at the rate of 'two-forty.' 'O lordy,' shouted the boy, 'stop it, stop it, I aint a-gwine;' and bursting forward, he opened the door and jumped out on the platform. Just then the train was crossing a deep, cavernous looking gorge on trestlework, and seeing the earth and tree-tops beneath him, he fainted and fell. Directly he came to, and looking up to the conductor who stopped by him, he exclaimed with a deep sigh, 'O lordee, stranger, has the thing lit?'

An astronomer, gazing at the moon, fell into a pond. 'Had you looked into the water,' said a countryman to him, 'you might have seen the moon; but, by gazing on the moon, you could never have seen the pond.'

Another 'wise man of Gotham' made his servant sleep in a chamber adjoining his own. He cried out to him, on one occasion, 'George, am I asleep?'—'Yes, sir,' replied the conscientious George.—'Ah, good!'

An actor with a very homely phiz was acting Mithridates, when a beautiful captive said to him, 'Ah my lord, you change countenance.' Hook, who was in the pit, exclaimed, 'Don't stop him, don't stop him; for heaven's sake, let him.'

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

SUPPOSE a merchant, with his store full of goods, finds that he has got to submit to some sacrifice in order to meet his demands, what is the best thing he can do? The hypothesis is probable enough in these times, but the answers to the practical question will be various.—They might to be, because the method which will afford relief to one, is not advisable, or if so, not available, to another.

But still, as a general answer, what is better than this:—Cut down your prices—advertise vigorously and sell off your goods!

In the first place, if a sacrifice is unavoidable, and the result be the same pecuniarily to the dealer, it is far better that the community in general should receive the benefit of it, than that it pass wholly to one or two brokers. Instead of an enormous per centage, in pursuance of a doubtful system, being thus thrown into the coffers of a few individuals, the cheaper necessaries of life would enter thousands of households, diffusing comfort everywhere. Thus the burdens which rests upon the mercantile class, instead of being made tributary to the avarice of the moneyed class, would be turned to solid benefit of all the other classes.

Again, such a course would keep trade a going. Tight as money is, not a cent has been annihilated—it exists all about somewhere. A great deal of it, in separately small sums must be exchanged for the numberless articles of food and raiment required. If prices hold up, this exchange will be as scanty and put off as long as possible. But let reduced prices be advertised, let it be understood that goods must be sold at all events, and the stores will be crowded under a little panic of the right kind—a dollar will be spent here, and five or ten there, resulting in hundreds or thousands to the enterprising dealers. Thus may hoarded specie be drawn from its hiding places. Thus the healthy circulation of money will be kept up, and the basis maintained for an easy renewal of prosperous times. Everything will grow better by degrees, while of him who recklessly sticks to old prices and wholly relies on borrowing, it may be said, the last end of that man is worse than the first.

Of course, to many individuals this method is not feasible. They cannot wait, or their stocks would be insufficient to realize their needs, or other good and indisputable reasons might be cited. But where it is impossible, we believe it to be advisable on every ground of personal and public expediency. If advertising is indispensable, when customers are rushing to buy of their own accord, and only want to know where to go, doubly necessary in these times when the fact of cheapness is felt to be the all-important fact.

To avoid the danger of lightning during thunder storms, persons in houses should sit or lie in some place as far distant as possible from the chimney, and the most exposed part of the walls—the middle of the room, if it is large, is the safest locality. Sailors on the sea should keep as far from the masts as possible, and farmers in the fields should never seek shelter under trees. Horizontal strokes of lightning sometimes take place, and several persons have been struck while sitting in an open window during thunder storms. Every window of a room in which persons are sitting in such cases, should be closed; a flash of the field, which would pass through an open window into an apartment, will be conducted down through the floor and wall to the earth if the window is shut.

By an arrival from Rio de Janeiro Saturday, at New York, we have dates from that place to the 23d of May, and later intelligence from the River Platte, from which it appears that the anticipated difficulty between the Government of Buenos Ayres and Gen. Urquiza has at last come to a head, resulting in active preparations for war. There is also a prospect of a difficulty between Montevideo and Brazil.

Beware of the Crafty!

Chained as we are to the wheels of Popular favor, we nevertheless, claim the right of opinion, and a full and free expression of the same. The right that belongs to the masses we claim for ourself; and we still cling to the right of conscience, which God in his wisdom, has dispensed to us, as naturally as to him who claims all the love and charity, that a reading and reflecting public may be pleased to bestow upon him.

Some would seem, from the abundance of their own feelings, and by the dint of extreme wire pulling, to claim all the public avenues of actual sustenance; and if suffrage and emoluments are bestowed, they alone must be the recipients. Thus selfishness and individual arrogance are too often made the hobby horse for certain factions to ride into power with, by the possession of important office emoluments, and distinctions, the suffrages of a free people have been hoodwinked to bestow upon insinuating and unprincipled aspirants.

Without insinuating upon individuals and without charging in a personal manner any one, in our own mind's eye, we appeal to our readers conscience, if our reflections do not apply very directly to many such persons, now even made rich and "for handed," by the blind tolerance of our public generosity towards such "wolves in sheeps clothing."

Even large incorporate bodies have been swindled and State institutions egregiously wronged, by carrying upon the public's shoulders, these vipers and graspers after the people's money. These facts in the line of our experience, should teach us the lesson, that a people's choice should be made with a strict reference to ability and true merit; and any one brought foward by the crafty few should be well counseled upon, before being hoisted to a station of honor and trust—on the principle that a "burned child dreads the fire." *

T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have surpassed themselves by commencing, in weekly issues, the republication of Sir Walter Scott's novels, at the low cost of 25 cents a number, or five dollars for the complete set, comprising thirty-two stories. We are very glad to see so cheap an edition of novels so much superior in their tone and morals—to say nothing of their genius—to the watery trash that is written, and read, we suppose, by foolish people now-a-days. Better read the Waverley novels, and re-read them to the fiftieth time, than to waste time and spoil good taste over the blood and thunder or yellow-covered sensation novels. The Petersons' have thus far issued ten numbers, containing each a novel complete, viz., Old Mortality, Woodstock, Waverley, Ivanhoe, Rob Roy, Quentin Durward, Guy Mannering, Kenilworth, The Abbot and The Antiquary; and we would advise all our readers to send to the Messrs. Petersons' for a set of these popular and undying works of the great novelist. They are now issued at the rate of one a week, and the whole twenty-six volumes can be had free of postage, by sending five dollars to the publishers. All persons now have an opportunity here to secure his works, which has never before been offered, and which may never occur again. The present chance should be taken advantage of by all.

The Auburn Daily Advertiser of Thursday says: Many of the farmers of the town of Mentz have commenced harvesting their wheat to-day. Mr. W. Haydon of that town commenced cutting his wheat to-day; it never was better, and averages over thirty bushels to the acre.

A gentleman announces in the Buffalo Advertiser that he will deliver a lecture in that city, in the course of which he will exhibit "a model of his Steam battering Ram, by which two men can whip out any war vessel now afloat, without firing a gun or losing a man; and also a Model Cannon, that will load, aim, fire, and swab itself."

Somebody emptied upon a wharf in Philadelphia a quantity of cherries which had been used to flavor rum. About twenty pigs partook of the fruit, and were made very drunk thereby. Being frisky, they began to squeal, and in other ways to make themselves ridiculous. In the foolish gravity of their countenances they were said to resemble inebriated humanity very closely.

The Oberlin Rescuers Printing a Paper.

The Rescuer is the title of a small sheet edited by the Oberlin Rescuers in jail at Cleveland, the first number of which was issued on the 4th of July. The principal editor is Prof. Peck, who explains the appearance of the sheet as follows:

"After all the 'political prisoners' had remained in jail for seventy five days, they began to find themselves possessed of 'thoughts that breathed and words that burned.' We not only wish to utter them, but we wish to print them. Could the thing be done? We looked around for printers and found among the 'prisoners' two rusty and dilapidated 'types,' one of whom had not handled a 'stick' for 18 years. Would the Sheriff allow us a corner of the jail for a printing office? We asked him. Generous as ever, he replied, 'Certainly, and I'll help you too, if I can.' 'O, where shall type be found?' we next enquired. The generous purchaser of our old printing office responded by lending us a font of small pica, and the liberal publisher of the Cleveland Daily Leader (the very paper which would please you, gentle reader) added more, with other things. For a 'plane' we used a carpenter's, with the irons knocked out. A policeman's club answered for a mallet in 'taking proof,' and for the other purposes, we could select a pounding instrument from a large pile of shackles which lay at our feet. A fellow prisoner supplied us with 'side sticks' 'quoins' and 'reglet,' made from a white-wood board.

Another prisoner sawed us a fence board to make a 'rack.' (Quite like a 'false' that, but we must settle it with the commissioner.) For a shooting stick—not the dangerous kind which we have understood 'rescuers' sometimes use, but a simple instrument—we hewed out a piece of stave, and the door-stone answered for a 'table.'

Thus furnished, and with the ample space of just five feet by ten for a printing-office we proceeded to establish the Rescuer. If we labor under difficulties it is but appropriate, for 'rescuers' always do.—We forgot to express regret that we could not procure ITALICS. Many were needed." We must ask our readers to supply the emphasis according to taste."

FRUIT.—The Buffalo Daily Republic of Saturday says:—

We were in the country a few days this week. Down the Niagara, as far as Lake Ontario, the cherries were most abundant, and no season within our recollection has produced fairer or greater varieties of this choice fruit. The apple trees are loaded, and the prospects of a large gathering of this most essential fruit are excellent.—Other kinds of fruit, pears, quinces, &c. bid fair to be abundant. Peaches will not be plenty, though we saw some trees in Lewiston hanging quite full. We shall not be deprived of peaches the coming season.

MONSTROUS OUTRAGE.—One of the most atrocious outrages ever recorded was perpetrated in this city on Saturday morning, by a negro named Mason. About three o'clock in the morning he made a forcible entrance into the house of a white woman living on Elm street, and dragging her from her bed with great violence, he repeated an outrage upon her person until she was nearly dead. He overcame her so completely that she was unable to make adequate resistance, or cry for assistance loudly enough to be heard. Her condition, when he fled, was such that he had ample time for escape before she could start any one in pursuit. It was supposed that he took the Lake Shore for the West, and the Police will give him a small chance of eluding justice. This black villain is a man of pretty large size, dresses in dandyish style and wears a moustach.—Buffalo Express.

It is taken for granted that, should the Austrians be driven out of Italy, a French army of observation will have to be kept there for some time to come. Several of the French general officers, it is said, upon the strength of this conviction, have taken houses at Milan and Genoa for two years and upward.

Some one wants to know whether a man cannot vote by telegraph. This is a question for political wire workers to solve. Our opinion is that it depends entirely upon the regulation of the poles.

A young mulatto girl, traveling with her mistress, was forcibly abducted from Detroit, Thursday, by a party of negroes. She was taken to Windsor, on the opposite side of the river, where she will have an opportunity to starve, or lead a life of prostitution.

A Negro, on being examined, was asked if his master was a Christian. "No, sir, he's a Member of Congress," was the reply.

A correspondent thinks the sum of $300,000 will not pay for the fireworks consumed in the Empire State on the Fourth.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The Cleveland Herald gives a list of twelve vessels that have sailed from that port this season for Europe.

Among the advertisements in a late London paper we read that "Two sisters want washing."

An army order, issued by Gen. Scott, directs that great attention be bestowed hereafter upon the bayonet exercise.

The Auburn Advertiser announces thirty-nine arrivals and thirty-four departures from the State Prison for the last week. Four new comers were from Buffalo.

A religious journal is urging the duty of establishing the washing of one another's feet as an ordinance of the Church. A very wholesome, if not holy, practice.

The Adrian (Mich.) Watchman, a religious paper, says that Rev. James G. Portman has been accused of seducing Miss Cogswell, a girl fourteen years of age, who resides in Hudson in that county. He has hitherto commanded the highest respect, and the girl belongs to a respectable family.

MEDICINES.

[illegible]rofula, or King's Evil,

[illegible] constitutional disease, a corruption of the [illegible], by which this fluid becomes vitiated, [illegible] and poor. Being in the circulation, it [illegible] the whole body, and may burst out in [illegible] on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not [illegible]. The scrofulous taint is variously caused [illegible] mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, [illegible] hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the [illegible] of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies, thrust upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,
(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)
A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL
MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least sixty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of [illegible] Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their own houses without injuries, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these dreadful ills, will receive for $1 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true guide through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!
DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—remove all remaining doubt as to the [illegible] value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many thousands of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. [illegible] and Hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

An Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preventive
as Vaccination is in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce something that would eventually be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-one cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment." Such a result is altogether unprecedented in the annals of disease."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1.00, or three bottles for $2.50, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 41 John street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for there is no promise in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to prevent the [illegible] who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

SUPPOSE a merchant, with his store full of goods, finds that he has got to submit to some sacrifice in order to meet his demands, what is the best thing he can do? The hypothesis is probable enough in these times, but the answers to the practical question will be various.—They ought to be, because the method which will afford relief to one, is not advisable, or if so, not available, to another.

But still, as a general answer, what is better than this:—Cut down your prices advertise vigorously and sell off your goods?

In the first place, if a sacrifice is unavoidable, and the result be the same pecuniarily to the dealer, it is far better that the community in general should receive the benefit of it, than that it pass wholly to one or two brokers. Instead of an enormous per centage, in pursuance of a doubtful system, being thus thrown into the coffers of a few individuals, the cheaper necessaries of life would enter thousands of households, diffusing comfort everywhere. Thus the burdens which rests upon the mercantile class, instead of being made tributary to the avarice of the moneyed class, would be turned to solid benefit of all the other classes.

Again, such a course would keep trade a going. Tight as money is, not a cent has been annihilated—it exists all about somewhere. A great deal of it, in separately small sums must be exchanged for the numberless articles of food and raiment required. If prices hold up, this exchange will be as scanty and put off as long as possible. But let reduced prices be advertised, let it be understood that goods must be sold at all events, and the stores will be crowded under a little panic of the right kind—a dollar will be spent here, and five or ten there, resulting in hundreds or thousands to the enterprising dealers. Thus may hoarded specie be drawn from its hiding places. Thus the healthy circulation of money will be kept up, and the basis maintained for an easy renewal of prosperous times. Everything will grow better by degrees, while of him who recklessly sticks to old prices and wholly relies on borrowing, it may be said, the last end of that man is worse than the first.

Of course, to many individuals this method is not feasible. They cannot wait, or their stocks would be insufficient to realize their needs, or other good and indisputable reasons might be cited. But where it is impossible, we believe it to be advisable on every ground of personal and public expediency. If advertising is indispensable, when customers are rushing to buy of their own accord, and only want to know where to go, doubly necessary in these times when the fact of cheapness is felt to be the all-important fact.

To avoid the danger of lightning during thunder storms, persons in houses should sit or lie in some place as far distant as possible from the chimney, and the most exposed part of the walls—the middle of the room, if it is large, is the safest locality. Sailors on the sea should keep as far from the masts as possible, and farmers in the fields should never seek shelter under trees. Horizontal strokes of lightning sometimes take place, and several persons have been struck while sitting in an open window during thunder storms. Every window of a room in which persons are sitting in such cases, should be closed; a flash of the fluid, which would pass through an open window into an apartment, will be conducted down through the floor and wall to the earth if the window is shut.

By an arrival from Rio de Janeiro Saturday, at New York, we have dates from that place to the 25th of May, and later intelligence from the River Platte, from which it appears that the anticipated difficulty between the Government of Buenos Ayres and Gen. Urquiza has at last come to a head, resulting in active preparations for war. There is also a prospect of a difficulty between Montevideo and Brazil.

Beware of the Crafty!

Chained as we are to the wheels of Popular favor, we nevertheless, claim the right of opinion, and a full and free expression of the same. The right that belongs to the masses we claim for ourself; and we still cling to the right of conscience, which God in his wisdom, has dispensed to us, as naturally as to him who claims all the love and charity, that a reading and reflecting public may be pleased to bestow upon him.

Some would seem, from the abundance of their own feelings, and by the dint of extreme wire pulling, to claim all the public avenues of actual sustenance; and if suffrage and emoluments are bestowed, they alone must be the recipients. Thus selfishness and individual arrogance are too often made the hobby horse for certain factions to ride into power with, by the possession of important office emoluments, and distinctions, the suffrages of a free people have been hoodwinked to bestow upon insinuating and unprincipled aspirants.

Without insinuating upon individuals and without charging in a personal manner any one, in our own mind's eye, we appeal to our readers conscience, if our reflections do not apply very directly to many such persons, now even made rich and "fore-handed," by the blind tolerance of our public generosity towards such "wolves in sheeps clothing."

Even large incorporate bodies have been swindled and State institutions egregiously wronged, by carrying upon the public's shoulders, these vipers and graspers after the people's money. These facts in the line of our experience, should teach us the lesson, that a people's choice should be made with a strict reference to ability and true merit; and any one brought forward by the crafty few should be well counciled upon, before being hoisted to a station of honor and trust—on the principle that a "burnt child dreads the fire." *

T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have surpassed themselves by commencing, in weekly issues, the republication of Sir Walter Scott's novels, at the low cost of 25 cents a number, or five dollars for the complete set, comprising thirty-two stories. We are very glad to see so cheap an edition of novels so much superior in their tone and morals—to say nothing of their genius—to the watery trash that is written, and read, we suppose, by foolish people now-a-days. Better read the Waverley novels, and re-read them to the fiftieth time, than to waste time and spoil good taste over the blood and thunder or yellow-covered sensation novels. The Petersons' have thus far issued ten numbers, containing each a novel complete, viz., Old Mortality, Woodstock, Waverley, Ivanhoe, Rob Roy, Quentin Durward, Guy Mannering, Kenilworth, The Abbot and The Antiquary; and we would advise all our readers to send to the Messrs. Petersons' for a set of these popular and undying works of the great novelist. They are now issued at the rate of one a week, and the whole twenty-six volumes can be had free of postage, by sending five dollars to the publishers. All persons now have an opportunity here to secure his works, which has never before been offered, and which may never occur again. The present chance should be taken advantage of by all.

The Auburn Daily Advertiser of Thursday says: Many of the farmers of the town of Mentz have commenced harvesting their wheat to-day. Mr. W. Haydon of that town commenced cutting his wheat to-day; it never was better, and averages over thirty bushels to the acre.

A gentleman announces in the Buffalo Advertiser that he will deliver a lecture in that city, in the course of which he will exhibit "a model of his Steam battering Ram, by which two men can whip out any war vessel now afloat, without firing a gun or losing a man; and also a Model Cannon, that will load, aim, fire, and swab itself."

Somebody emptied upon a wharf in Philadelphia a quantity of cherries which had been used to flavor rum. About twenty pigs partook of the fruit, and were made very drunk thereby. Being itoxicated, they began to squeal, and in other ways to make themselves ridiculous. In the foolish gravity of their countenances they were said to resemble inebriated humanity very closely.

The Oberlin Rescuers Printing a Paper.

The Rescuers is the title of a small sheet edited by the Oberlin Rescuers in jail at Cleveland, the first number of which was issued on the 4th of July. The principal editor is Prof. Peck, who explains the appearance of the paper as follows:

"After all the 'political prisoners' had remained in jail for seventy-five days, they began to find themselves possessed of 'thoughts that breathed and words that burned.' We not only wish to utter them, but we wish to print them. Could the thing be done? We looked around for printers and found among the 'prisoners' two rusty and dilapidated 'types,' one of whom had not handled a 'stick' for 15 years. Would the Sheriff allow us a corner of the jail for a printing office? We asked him. Generous as ever, he replied, 'Certainly, and I'll help you too, if I can.' 'O, where shall type be found?' we next enquired. The generous purchaser of our old printing office responded by lending us a font of small pica, and the liberal publisher of the Cleveland Daily Leader (the very paper which would please you, gentle reader) added more, with other things. For a 'plane' we used a carpenter's, with the irons knocked out. A policeman's club answered for a mallet in 'taking proof,' and for the other purposes, we could select a pounding instrument from a large pile of shackles which lay at our feet. A fellow prisoner supplied us with 'side sticks' 'quoins' and 'reglet,' made from a white-wood board.

Another prisoner sawed up a fence board to make a 'rack.' (Quite like a 'felon' that, but we must settle it with the Commissioners.) For a shooting stick—not the dangerous kind which we have understood 'rescuers' sometimes use, but a simple instrument—we hewed out a piece of stave, and the door-stone answered for a 'table.'

Thus furnished, and with the ample space of just five feet by ten for a printing-office we proceeded to establish the Rescuer. If we labor under difficulties it is but appropriate, for 'rescuers' always do.—We forgot to express regret that we could not procure ITALICS. Many were needed. We must ask our readers to supply the emphasis according to taste."

FRUIT.—The Buffalo Daily Republic of Saturday says:—

We were in the country a few days this week. Down the Niagara, as far as Lake Ontario, the cherries were most abundant, and no season within our recollection has produced fairer or greater varieties of this choice fruit. The apple trees are loaded, and the prospects of a large gathering of this most essential fruit are excellent.—Other kinds of fruit, pears, quinces, &c., bid fair to be abundant. Peaches will not be plenty, though we saw some trees in Lewiston hanging quite full. We shall not be deprived of peaches the coming season.

MONSTROUS OUTRAGE.—One of the most atrocious outrages ever recorded was perpetrated in this city on Saturday morning, by a negro named Mason. About three o'clock in the morning he made a forcible entrance into the house of a white woman living on Elm street, and dragging her from her bed with great violence, he repeated an outrage upon her person until she was nearly dead. He overcame her so completely that she was unable to make adequate resistance, or cry for assistance loudly enough to be heard. Her condition, when he fled, was such that he had ample time for escape before she could start any one in pursuit. It was supposed that he took the Lake Shore for the West, and the Police will give him a small chance of eluding justice. This black villain is a man of pretty large size, dresses in dandyish style and wears a moustach.—Buffalo Express.

It is taken for granted that, should the Austrians be driven out of Italy, a French army of observation will have to be kept there for some time to come. Several of the French general officers, it is said, upon the strength of this conviction, have taken houses at Milan and Geno for two years and upward.

Some one wants to know whether a man cannot vote by telegraph. This is a question for political wire workers to solve. Our opinion is that it depends entirely upon the regulation of the poles.

A young mulatto girl, traveling with her mistress, was forcibly abducted from Detroit, Thursday, by a party of negroes. She was taken to Windsor, on the opposite side of the river, where she will have an opportunity to starve, or lead a life of prostitution.

A Negro, on being examined, was asked if his master was a Christian. "No, sir, he's a Member of Congress," was the reply.

A correspondent thinks the sum of $300,000 will not pay for the fireworks consumed in the Empire State on the Fourth.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The Cleveland Herald gives a list of twelve vessels that have sailed from that port this season for Europe.

Among the advertisements in a late London paper we read that "Two sisters want washing." *

An army order, issued by Gen. Scott, directs that great attention be bestowed hereafter upon the bayonet exercise.

The Auburn Advertiser announces thirty-nine arrivals and thirty-four departures from the State Prison for the last week. Four new comers were from Buffalo.

A religious journal is urging the duty of establishing the washing of one another's feet as an ordinance of the Church. A very wholesome, if not holy, practice.

The Adrian (Mich.) Watchman, a religious paper, says that Rev. James G. Portman has been accused of seducing Miss Cogswell, a girl fourteen years of age, who resides in Hudson in that county. He has hitherto commanded the highest respect, and the girl belongs to a respectable family.

HAS NOW RE-FITTED IN A VERY splendid manner the SALOON next door east of Mrs. Denslow's Millinery Store, where he will prosecute the above business in all its branches.

He will keep a general assortment of Table and Fancy work, and execute to order such candies and ornamental designs as is demanded for parties of pleasure and Festivals generally.

He flatters himself that his mechanical ingenuity, and long experience in his business will enable him to give to all general satisfaction—having been to much expense in getting his Establishment in readiness, and making his place attractive—he earnestly solicits a liberal patronage from the town and country.

He will also keep Ice Cream flavored to the taste of the most devout epicure—and hold himself in readiness to entertain his customers with the luxuries of his Saloon; and to make his place a fashionable resort to all who desire delectables.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 96 MAIN STREET,
(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)
A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $1 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $2,00, or three bottles for $5,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 43 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S. on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "Evans & Co's Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity and reputation under the same name to increase their trade, to protect the public who may be [illegible] and [illegible] with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO. and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

An Irish storekeeper having ordered a quantity of haddock fish, by Adams & Co's express, was somewhat surprised upon the delivery of the fish to find on the outside of the package the letters "C. O. D."

"An' sure," says Pat, "I didn't order codfish."

The expressman examined the fish, and pronounced them haddock.

"Well," says Pat, "you['ve] spelt haddock [illegible]"

"Oh, no," the expressman replied, "[illegible] spells cod."

"An'," says Pat triumphantly pointing to the fish, "there's fish."

"Yes—you are right, there."

"Well, that makes codfish, don't it, ye spalpeen?"

"But where do you get the cod from?" returns the expressman.

"Look there," says Pat, pointing to the portentous C. O. D., "that's cod, to be sure."

"Oh, no," replies "express," "that's C. O. D., which means 'collect on delivery.'"

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE 6 CENTS PER WEEK.

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

Wool.—The wool market is nearly over, and many farmers who about half washed, half sheared and half "done up" their wool have lost by their own carelessness in this respect, from five to eight cts. per lb. The quality of the wool in this county, has very much improved for a few years past, while the amount sold in this market is said to be much larger than that of any former year.

We would urge wool growers to study this branch of business with great care.—Wool should be clean and free from dirt, or burs, and well done up which will always ensure the highest market price.

Outrage.—Two men, named John Ray, glass cutter, 19 years old, and Thomas Graham, laborer, aged 22, at an early hour Saturday morning entered the house No. 10 State street, Brooklyn, N. Y. and attempted to violate the person of the occupant, Mrs. Elizabeth Morrell. Her screams prevented the parties from accomplishing their purpose, and in attempting to quiet her they stabbed her in the face with a knife. Officer Keene, of the First Precinct, heard the disturbance, and reached the house just after the two men had left. He succeeded in arresting them, however, during the night, and yesterday they were committed by Justice Blackley for examination.

The California Steamship Lines.—The Times of Monday, says the arrangements of the opposition line of steamers on the California routes, with the United States Mail Company (Roberts's) on the Atlantic side, will terminate by limitation on the 1st of October next, in anticipation of which, we learn that a purchase of the Collins' steamers was completed for the Pacific Mail Company on Saturday, and that these fine vessels—the Adriatic, Baltic and Atlantic—will soon be in line so as to place the entire business of the Company under a single interest. The full particulars of the arrangement are not yet made public.

A Little Girl Scalded to Death.—On Saturday, says the Rochester Union, a little daughter of John Fox, who resides on North Clinton street, was dreadfully scalded by overturning a pan of boiling water upon herself. Mrs. F. had just placed the vessel, containing two or three quarts of water, upon a table, when the child seized it and turned the contents upon her head and shoulders, scalding her terribly. A surgeon was called, dressed the wounds and administered such palliatives as he could command, but he found the injuries about the vitals so severe that he entertained scarcely a hope of a favorable issue. During the night of Saturday the little sufferer was attacked by spasms, and at eight o'clock on Sunday morning death put an end to her misery. The child was about two years old, and an active and promising little one. Mothers who have children of tender years about them while attending to domestic duties should always remember that they must exercise discretion for two—that the younger depends upon the older for protection against the mischief it may do itself.

Sons of Malta Going to Minnesota.—The Cincinnati Gazette learns from a private letter from Chicago, the following information relating to the coming excursion of the Independent Order of the Sons of Malta, to the Falls of Minnehaha, viz: "The Sons in St. Paul are making every arrangement for our reception. We expect a large party from here and have all the steamboats we want at our command; so that no one need fear a crowd. Quite a number of ladies go from here and Milwaukee, and at Madison the Governor of Wisconsin, (who is one of us) will receive the party in behalf of the State and join in the excursion."

Romance in Jail.

The conspiracy by which Cadwallader Wallace, jr., who murdered John Godfrey at Chillicothe, escaped from the Ross county jail is being divulged. It will be remembered that Wallace shot Godfrey in the street on account of his demurring at getting out of a wagon in which they were riding, to give place to some girls of the town. He escaped some six months ago mysteriously. Nelson McCollister, an accomplice in the conspiracy, has recently divulged the whole affair. It seems that young Wallace enlisted the servant girl of the Deputy Sheriff, Ross, and she took a man named Long into the plan, and one night while Ross was absent the prison doors were opened and Wallace escaped. A few moments after the girl raised an outcry, and the citizens found her with her eyes bandaged and hands bound, and generally acting the part of having been overcome by force. It appears, also, that the father of Wallace, who is a wealthy man, had effected a bargain with this same Anderson and Geo. S. Baker, City Marshall of Chillicothe, to liberate the prisoner; but while they were at his house concluding the plan, young Wallace appeared, having got the start of them; therefore these conspirators got no money. As in all well regulated plays, there was an under plot in this, in which more women were concerned, and this underplot was the means of divulging the affair.—A young citizen of the place was intimate with the sister of McCollister. Anderson also visited there; the young man was jealous; one night, when Anderson was coming, he secreted himself, and overheard him tell one of the girls his plan for the escape of Wallace. Subsequently he threatened Anderson to divulge unless he paid him $1,000. Anderson being short gave him his note for the amount, and took a written pledge of Secrecy. The note matured and was not taken up. Finally it was settled by Anderson paying $160, and the papers were cancelled; but a third party had been called, and he is now a witness. The case is before the Grand Jury of Ross county.—Columbus (Ohio) Journal.

Steamboat Excursion.—On Thursday evening next, the popular steamer Maple Leaf is to make a brief excursion by moonlight over the waters of Lake Ontario.—A train will leave the Central Depot for Charlotte at 8 o'clock, and the steamer will sail from her dock immediately after the arrival of the cars. The excursionists will be brought back to the city as soon as the boat returns. The price of tickets by boat and railroad, going and returning, will be seventy-five cents—by steamer alone, fifty cent.

The Maple Leaf has generally made one or two such excursions each summer, and they have always proved pleasant.—A good band of music is always engaged, and many seize the opportunity for enjoying a dance.—Roch. Democrat.

Tomatoes.—One who has tried the experiment says that tomatoes are best prepared for eating, in this wise:—Take ripe tomatoes, cut them in slices, and sprinkle over them finely pulverized white sugar, then add claret wine sufficient to cover them.

Further by the City of Baltimore.

London, June 26—3 P. M.

The Daily News correspondent telegraphs from Paris on Wednesday morning, that the following telegram has been received from the Emperor to the Empress:

Cavriana, June 28.

Our Troops are crossing the Mincio without resistance, the enemy having retired from thence.

The Times Paris correspondent says that at the battle of Salferino the Piedmontese were at one moment enveloped by the Austrians, but that they recovered, repulsed the enemy and kept their position with exceeding courage.

Turin, June 25.

Deserters from the Austrians unanimously state that 40,000 men were collected at Pozzolengo. This position fell to the Piedmontese—De Hilliers won Salferino and marched against Cavriana.

The order of the army was admirable. 1000 Piedmontese were killed, and about 1000 wounded. The Heights were occupied by the French, and the Austrians were forced to retire to Goito, being beaten again along their whole line.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

Jerome Nobles, of Wellsville, Allegany Co., was killed by the bursting of a cannon, which had been over-loaded, on Friday evening. He was not engaged in firing the piece, and was twenty rods distant from it.

At Floyd, Oneida county, on the 4th, a lighted fire-cracker was thrown accidentally into a can of gunpowder, which exploded and killed a daughter of Stephen A Jefferson, 7 years old.

Forty two deaths have resulted from the catastrophe on the Michigan Southern Railroad. We hear nothing further of the car-load of laborers supposed to have been drowned.

At Norwich, Ct., on the 4th, a party of juveniles paraded the streets with a banner, on which was inscribed the following words: "Young America—Give us Liberty or give us Confectionery."

Another "fashionable wedding" is announced to come off in New York on the 14th inst, the parties being a Spanish gentleman of 60 years, of fabulous wealth, and a young damsel, poor in purse, but of "marvelous personal attractions and majestic elegance." The bridal veil is said to have cost $1000, and jewels $150,000.

A party of four persons from New Bedford, caught 700 pounds of sword-fish on Thursday, 25 miles below the city. Three of the fish were worth $40.

The Fall River News says that it is just 19 months since the services of the Fire Department have been required at any fire within the limits of that city.

John Hart Prentiss, assistant physician at the Maine Insane Hospital, died on the 2d inst, aged twenty-one years.

Miss Olive Oatman, whose captivity among the Apache Indians recently excited compassion, is lecturing at Saratoga upon the incidents of her life among the savages.

The Washington, (D. C.) Star estimates the population of the national capital city at from 75,000 to 80,000.

At the commencement of Antioch College, Ohio, last week, sixteen young gentlemen and two young ladies graduated. The college has now over 200 students and is free from debt.

The storms in Berkshire, on Saturday night, July 2d, according to the estimate of the Pittsfield Eagle, damaged roads, crops and property to the extent of $60,000.

Playing to Put out a Fire.—The Western Reserve Chronicle, at Warren, states that on the 4th of July, the people of that town purchased an old mill, which had long been an eyesore, on the opposite side of the river, and set fire to it in order to celebrate the day, by giving the fire companies an opportunity to show their efficiency in extinguishing it. But just as they got fairly at it, the wind blew the burning shingles over on the town, setting fire to the Methodist Church, as well as six or seven other buildings, at the same time rendering the utmost exertions of the citizens necessary, to save the town from destruction.

A young man who resides in Buffalo recently went to Chicago in search of a young woman to whom he was affianced.—He found her in brothel, with an older sister, who had induced her to leave her home and assumed a life of shame. The frail girl returned with her lover. Perhaps it is owing to some cases of this sort that the people of Chicago have recently destroyed several houses of ill-fame by fire.—Roch. Dem.

At the Fourth of July celebration in Elizabeth, N. Y., the following fervid toast was offered:

The Women of Elizabeth—We admire them for their beauty, we value them for their intellect, and we love them because we can't help it.

Sewing Machine Co.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made, that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which may readily learn to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

LATER FROM EUROPE!

Arrival of the City of Baltimore.

Additional Particulars of the Battle of Solferino.

NEW YORK, July 11.

The steamship City of Baltimore arrived this morning with Cork advices to the 30th, one day later.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says in regard to the battle of Solferino. It is said that General Neil with 35,000 men and two divisions of cavalry, in all about 50,000 men, was engaged till 4 P. M., when he succeeded in forcing the Austrian centre, after 12 hour's fighting. The Austrians had brought up their reserve of 80,000 and the Allies theirs of 50,000. It was a most critical movement. Three hours more and the general fighting ended to the advantage of the Allies.

The Zouaves are said to be much cut up, and the first Chasseurs of Algeria terribly treated. Four generals were wounded and one killed. Fourteen thousand beds have been commanded at Milan for the wounded.

TURIN, June 28.

The Piedmontese Gazette publishes official details of the battle written the same evening. According to positive information, 25,000 Sardinians held their ground against 80,000 Austrians, who occupied a formidable position, from which they were dislodged by the Sardinians under the order of the King. The loss of Sardinians is said to have been about 1,000, and the same number wounded.

The details of the massacre at Perugia state that neither sex nor age were spared.

Among the murdered by the soldiers, after the fighting had ceased, were three married couples, five elderly ladies, three unmarried ladies, a girl four years old, &c. An infant was taken from its mother's breast and thrown into the Tiber.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

Dr. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues Inflammatory Diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

New Medical Salt. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength it effectually cures Inflammatory diseases, and other, by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

Notice To Invalids! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are speedily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and chest, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgic, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all Itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

Dr. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

Dr. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

Dr. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL Salt is for [illegible] Fellows and by all [illegible] as the [illegible] Patent [illegible] but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, so use [illegible] the New Medical Salt. For [illegible] and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,
(Up Stairs, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)
A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL
MODE OF TREATING

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhœa or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the seminal organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic Inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without exposure, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these fearful ills, will receive for $1 a series of Health Rules and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the invaluable value of this Discovery—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I KNOW that they will prove not only

An Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox."

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it."

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Disease, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda, J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a facsimile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $2.00, or three bottles for $5.00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold, wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no fear delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address, Wisdom is the olive which springs from the heart, blooms on the tongue, and bears fruit in the actions.

Two foolish young men of New York, with all their folly, were wise enough to fall in love; it was their misfortune rather than their fault that their affections met in the same young lady. Their complexity developed itself in a determination to fight a duel about the matter. Life of a Printer.

Printers, it is said, die at an early age. This is doubtless caused by the noxious effluvia rising from the types, want of exercise, constant employment, and the late hours to which their work is prolonged.—There is no other class of human beings whose privileges are so few, whose labor is so continuous, whose wages are so inadequate, as printers. If a "typo" be a man of family, he is deberred of the privileges of enjoying their society at all times because his hours of labor are almost endless, and his moments of leisure so few that they must be spent to recruit his exhausted energies, and prepare him for the renewal of his toils. Poor fellow! he knows nothing of sociability, and is shut out from the world as a convict in a prison cell. Truly he is in the world, but knows not of it. Toil—toil—toil, by night and by day, is his fate, until premature old age ends his existance. For the advancement of science, morality, and virtue, the chords of his heart are severed one by one, and when his life is run, and time to him is no more, he goes down to the grave uncared for and unknown, though his existence has been sacrificed for the benefit of his race.

When we hear mechanics cry out against oppression, and demanding certain hours for labor and for rest, we cannot but reflect upon this situation of our own craft; how every moment of their lives is forced into service to earn a bare subsistence, how uncomplainingly they devote themselves to the good of that same public, who wear them as a loose garment to be donned when convenient, and doffed when no longer needed.

Printers are universally poor men, and for two reasons. The first is—they rarely ever receive a fair compensation for their services. And the second is—that inured to continual suffering, privation and toil, their purse strings are ever untied at the bidding of charity, and the hard earned "dimes" are freely distributed for the relief of their fellow men. Thus it is that they live poor, die poor, and if a suitable reward does not await them after death, sad indeed must be the beginning, the existance, and the end, of poor "typos."

The San Diego Herald says that General William Walker has resigned fillibustering, and that he intends to unite his destinies with a lady of Lower California, who once saved his life. He is said to be abundantly rich, but objected to the alliance in consequence of a difference of religion. This has been obviated by the ceremony at Mobile.

SOME OF LAGER BEER.—There are thirty-five breweries in St. Louis and vicinity, which, during the past year turned out 115,000 barrels lager, and 77,400 barrels common beer, the total value of which was $1,236,400.—In addition to this 50,000 barrels were imported during the year from Milwaukee, Belleville and Pittsburg, all of which were needed for home consumption.

WRECK.—The Ontonagon Miner gives an account of the recent loss of the schooner Coaster. She went on the beach on the South shore of Presque Isle, in a gale, and is a perfect wreck. She belonged to Willard & Day. Her cargo was mostly saved.

EDITOR ASSAULTED.—The Editor of the Toledo Blade, on his way home from his office, on Friday, was attacked by Paul Edwards, Canal Collector of that city, and harshly used, in consequence of some remarks made in his paper.—Great country this!

A snake more dangerous than the dreaded reptile with the rattle was recently killed on a New Jersey farm. It goes by the name of the "hoople snake" Its plan of action is to curl itself into the form of a hoop, and then strike its victim. The venom of this thing of evil causes death in five minutes.

Horse Thief Shot--Two Notorious Counterfeiters Arrested.

Mr. McCutchen, an expressman, located at Sparta, Illinois, brought to this city yesterday, and handed over to the police, daguerreotypes of two notorious scoundrels, who had infested the neighborhood of Sparta, in company with others, for some time back. Mr. McCutchen states that a gambler and horse thief named Gus Graham, with the two individuals above alluded to, had been ordered to leave Randolph county by the citizens.

This kind request not being complied with, the people gathered, en masse, and visited the house where Graham and his two associates were stopping. Upon seeing the crowd approach, Graham drew his pistol and discharged its contents in the crowd; but scarcely had the smoke of the pistol died away, ere Graham fell a corpse—shot by several persons at once. The other two scoundrels were arrested, and are now confined in Chester jail. Graham was one of the most desperate scoundrels in Illinois.

A HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—A few evenings since a young lady belonging to a very respectable family in Hudson City, while returning home through Palisade avenue just in the edge of the evening, was seized by five of the tunnel men who conveyed her into a piece of woods near General Wright's residence and there committed an outrage upon her person. The young lady remained insensible for some time, and finally recovered sufficiently to make herself heard by passers, who conveyed her home where she now lies in a critical condition. The friends of the lady have endeavored to keep the affair secret, but are making every effort to ferret out the ruffians and bring them to justice. There are some 800 laborers employed in the New York and Erie tunnel, some of whose conduct has been such that ladies in that vicinity dare not go out after sundown.—It is hinted that a riot, which will be fearful in its results, is not far distant.—N. Y. News, of Monday.

The Jacksonville (Ill.) Argus says the case of Samintha M. Wood vs. James Scott, for a breach of promise of marriage, and another suit by the father of the plaintiff in a former case against the same defendant for the seduction of his daughter, were both decided on Tuesday, in the Circuit, now in session at that place. The jury returned a verdict in each case for five thousand dollars, the full amount of the damage laid in the declarations.

PUPPIES.—Community is running wild over black and tan terrier puppies, and so extreme has the fashion become for black and tan that many young male bipeds are raising black and tan goatees and moustaches. Even the women are running after the puppies of this description, from which fact we may reasonably infer that we are in the midst of the dog days.—Buf. Rep.

A DIVORCED WIFE A SERVANT IN HER HUSBANDS FAMILY.— The Cincinnati Times relates that a gentleman living in that city, and well to-do, married about ten years ago and after living with his wife some five years, he concluded to get a divorce, on account of the unhappiness of their domestic relations. The wife assented and he applied to the courts and was successful. A year passed, and he concluded to venture once more in the matrimonial market and see if he could not find one who would make his home happier than the first. In this he was successful, and a short time afterward his divorced wife applied to him for work in his family in the capacity of servant girl.—The situation was given her and she now does the work in the house of which she was once mistress.

A "FIRE ESCAPE." On Saturday last, a stable attached to Jameson's Hotel, at Kernville, near Johnstown, was discovered to be on fire, but was speedily extinguished. On Monday, Nathaniel Attic was arrested charged with having fired the barn. While standing in front of the Justice's office, and no one but a relative near, he took to his heels and made his escape; meanwhile the counsel were arguing whether the offence was bailable; the accused evidently thought it was.

DANIEL E. SICKLES.—We are credibly informed from various sources that the Hon. Daniel E. Sickles has become entirely reconciled with his wife and is now living with her in marital relations as before the death of the late Philip Barton Key. We are also assured that in taking this remarkable step, Mr. Sickles has alienated himself from most if not all of those personal and political friends who devotedly adhered to him during his recent imprisonment and trial. This is the last act in the farce. This showshow "deeply injured" Mr. Sickles was by that intimacy which caused him to murder Mr. Key.—Albany Standard.

At Oskaloosa, Iowa, a young woman, whose husband came home drunk the other day, took down an ox-gad, and chastised him most gloriously—until he promised not to do so again. He laid the blame upon a friend who asked him to drink. She then whaled him again for not having a'ability to refuse.

NEW YORK, July 12.

The steamship Star of the West arrived at 3:30 this afternoon.

The trial of Wm. Williams at Panama for the murder of Capt. I. Otis, of Boston, resulted in a verdict of homicide in the 1st degree.

Advices from Peru mention another revolution under the lead of Seballos, Castillo, Echenique and others.

The revolution in Equador under Morena had become quite threatening, the regular troops going over to the insurgents. The defeat of the government forces was considered certain.

Guayaquil was still blockaded by the Peruvian fleet.

WASHINGTON, July 12.

The late Congress has appropriated only $15,000 as a preliminary to taking the next census, for the preparation of blank forms, instructions to Marshals, &c. Ample time will be allowed for the selection of reliable deputies, and such arrangements will be made by the Secretary of the interior as will secure the prosecution of the work with more promptness and perfection than heretofore.

Many applications have been made for employment as clerks, but the census bureau will not be organized until next year, when the returns shall begin to be received.

There is authority for the assertion, that however desirable the acquisition of Lower California may be to the Administration, no such proposition is now pending between the Government of the United States and Mexico, as has been stated.

Secretary Floyd's health is slightly improved, and he will return to Washington to accompany the President to Bedford Springs on Monday.

The President has recognized Frederick Kuhen as Consul of the Grand Ducky of Hesse Cassel, at New York.

The Mexican Minister is ill.

The Mayor of Washington having received a despatch from the Mayor of Richmond, that O. Jennings Wise and P. H. Aylett had left to fight a duel, and would probably proceed to the neighborhood of Washington. He caused a warrant to be issued for their arrest in case they should come this way. The officers are now on the look out for them.

Characteristics of Prominent Cities

Chicago—In this city the people do nothing but mortgage each others property, until there is not a man there who "holds his own!"

Detroit—The most of the white women marry negroes; the rest of the population run them off to Windsor in Canada.

Cleveland—Distinguished for receiving negroes, blowing up steamboats, and relying on the statements of third rate editors.

Erie—Noted for the best Harbor on the whole chain of lakes—drinking lager beer—pretty girls, and pulling up railroads by the roots.

Buffalo—Aldermen are frequently allowed to associate with white citizens, and the Buffalo platform is thereby rendered a substantial fact.

Rochester—All the people who are not throwing their brother-in-law over bluffs, are getting up conspiracies to imprison their wives.

Syracuse—Remarkable for running off stolen negroes—for packing conventions—for abandoning babies—for local editors, and for making salt, "Salt won't save 'em."

Utica—Molten whiskey and red hot politics.

Troy—McArthur, Francis, and Whitman. Its entire features.

West Troy—Counterfeiting and slung shot.

New York City—! ! ! ! ! ! !

LOCAL MATTERS.

HOT.—Yesterday and to-day were corn weather of the extremest kind. Business does not hurry itself, and but few attempt to hurry it.

Mrs. Hoag granted a New Trial.

This Case was argued before Judge Green yesterday and resulted in the above decision. It seems the point upon which the new trial was granted, was upon the proof of an injudicious remark made by one of the members of the Court to the Jury before their final decision, and which, there could be no doubt, had its influence, in swaying the minds of some, if not all of the Jury, to the verdict which they at last unanimously arrived at. The Judge, under such circumstances felt constrained, to grant a new trial, which will take place in August next. The endeavors of her Council—Wakeman & Bryan—will be doubled; and a sifting of testimony may be expected.

Is Curry to be hung?

As the day approaches—Friday of this week—this question seems every where passing. As yet no tidings from the Governor has reached the public ear; and all seem expectant of commutation, or the fatal day will find poor Curry hanging by the neck, and the law in its exactions of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," will be gratified, while Curry's spirit will be passed to the bourn on the planes of Higher Life, where justice fills her own measure from the lap of endless fruition, and where judges and juries have no power to erect a gallows.

P. S.—Since committing the above to type, the Sheriff informs us that the Governor has commuted Curry's sentence to imprisonment for life.

PARK PLACE.—B. G. TISDALE, Esq., formerly the popular proprietor of the American Hotel, is now the proprietor of one of the most pleasant Saloons in town. His Ice Creams, Soda's &c, are delicious.

We notice to-day that BIERCE is paying 16 cts per pound for good butter and has reduced still lower the price of all his Summer Goods. Lawns worth 12½c to 8c; Silks worth 75c to 50c. Latest News.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Arrival of the Steamship Canada.

SACKVILLE, N. B., July 12

The royal mail steamship Canada from Liverpool Saturday the 2d inst, passed Cape Race at 3:30 P. M. on Sunday the 10th inst, and arrived at Halifax to-day.

She was boarded off the Cape by the news yacht of the N. Y. Associate Press, and a brief summary of her news procured, which was started from St. Johns yesterday but only reached this place this forenoon.

ST. JOHNS, July 11

The following is a summary of the news by the Canada, which passed Cape Race at 5 o'clock P. M. Sunday.

The Emperor of Austria was expected to remain in Italy.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The new English ministry has pronounced for a strict neutrality.

Mr. Cobden had declined a seat in the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, July 12

The New York Times of to-day contains letters from Mr. Raymond and Malakoff, its Paris correspondent, dated from the battle-field of Solferino.

Mr. Raymond says that not less than 400,000 men have been engaged, and of those not less than 20,0000 dead or disabled lie on this bright starry night upon this bloody field.

The battle commenced at a little before 5 o'clock in the morning—not far from sunrise.

Just back of Castiglione rises a high range of hills; the Austrians had taken position upon those hills, planting cannon upon those nearest to Castiglione which they could approach, and had stationed their immense army all over the plain.

Napoleon promptly accepted the challenge and commenced the attack as soon as it was light this morning, by placing cannon upon the hills still nearer to Castiglione than those held by the Austrians, and opening fire upon them on the heights beyond.

He took his own stand upon the heights of this steep sharp backed ridge commanding a magnificent view of the entire circuit of the plain and from that point directed the entire movements of his army during the early portion of the day. The French very soon drove the enemy out of the positions they held nearest to the town and followed them into the small villages of the plain below.

The first of these was Solferino, where they had a sharp and protracted engagement.

The Austrians disputed every inch of the ground and fought there as they did throughout the day, with the utmost desperation. They were three times driven out of the town before they would stay out.

The people of the town took part against the French, upon whom they fired from their windows, and the French were compelled, in self defence to burn the town. When they found it impossible to hold their ground any longer, they fell back slowly and steadily until they reached the village of Volta.

Upon the hills in the rear of the town and overlooking it completely on the south and south-east sides, the Austrians had planted very formidable batteries, and when I arrived upon the field I went at once to the height where the Emperor had stood at the opening of the engagement, but which he had left an hour before to follow his victorious troops, these batteries were blazing away upon the French, who were stationed upon the broad plain and moving up in masses towards the front, where the artillery was posted, as their services were required; but as soon as they reached this point, they were repeatedly enveloped in the smoke of the cannon and disappeared from observation, but the general result was soon made evident by the slacking of the Austrian fire and by the falling back of their smoke and a corresponding advance on the part of that which rose from the French artillery.

Malakoff estimates the French loss at about 25,000, including 10,000 wounded.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA.

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the incontestable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost [illegible] success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am certain that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I KNOW that they will prove [illegible]

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it."

"Out of seventy-two cases in the third or last stage treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight were completely restored, eight have died, and [illegible] are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of nerve force, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $2.00, or three bottles for $5.00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 43 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S. on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious [illegible]. Address,

French Fun.—"Why does France make war on Austria?" said a gobemouche to his comrade.

"Stupid! don't you know we are opening new Boulevards every day?"

"Bother your Boulevards! that don't explain the war."

"Yes it does, dolt. As soon as we open new boulevards we have to make war."

"But why?"

"To find names of victories for them, to be sure."

Reciprocated Affection.—A "dandy, with more beauty than brains, married an heiress, who, although very accomplished, was by no means handsome. One day he said to her:

"My dear, as ugly as you are, I love you as well as though you were pretty."

"Thank you, love," was the reply, "I can return the compliment, for fool as you are, I love you as well as though you had wit."

One of the beauties at the Court of Prussia said to the King—

"Sire, how is it, that you, who are so glorious already, still seek for new fame?"

"Madame," he replied, "it is the same reason that you, although so beautiful, will still wear rouge."

Napoleon's Field Telegraph.

The Paris correspondent of the London Globe obtains from a Brescia letter of June 24th, a fact which has not hitherto transpired, concerning the scientific appliances of electricity to war purposes. It would appear that the remarkable precision and unity of the French evolutions were accomplished by a quite novel sort of flying aide-de-camp. From each corps, once in position, a horseman rode off to the next division, unrolling on his rapid course a light wire, which no time was lost in adapting to a field apparatus; and the process was repeated all along the French line of twelve miles. Hence the movement of the whole army was known and regulated like clock work, "from dawn to dewy eve," on that decisive day. This arrangement had been planned in Paris, and a supply of gutta percha covered metal thread forwarded with secrecy and dispatch. It was already known that a special telegraphic corps operated in the rear of the Allies, and laid wires as fast as advance was made. M. Lair is the Chief Engineer, and the first Frenchman who entered Novara, while the Austrians were scarce yet out of it, was M. Granthier, of that staff, who set up his box and telegraphed the details of the retreating corps at the moment they were outside the gates. Lonato, Montechiaro and Castiglione, were in instant communication with Brescia and Milan when evacuated by the foe on the 23d.

Naturalized Citizens.

The official declaration of the Administration with regard to the rights of naturalized citizens has been made public.—The State Department has addressed a dispatch to the American Minister at Berlin in relation to the case of a naturalized citizen of the United States, a native of Hanover, who, upon his return, was compelled to perform military service in the Hanoverin army. The instructions to the American Minister are definite.—Our Government refuses to recognize the right of any foreign Power to punish any naturalized citizen of the United States for misdemeanors which were not complete at the moment of his expatriation; so complete that he might have been tried and punished therefor at the time of his departure. With this single exception, a naturalized citizen returning to his native country, returns as an American citizen, and as such is placed under the protection of our laws. With respect to the requirement of future military service, our Government denies the right to impose such service upon the expatriated subject after he shall have become naturalized as a citizen of the United States. It is added that any infringement of these regulations will involve the offending nation in serious difficulties with the United States.

The Sportsmens Club of Monroe county have determined to enforce the game laws most strictly. They caused the arrest of a man who brought a pair of woodcock into Rochester and offered them for sale. He was fined $50 and costs.—This is a right course, and we hope it will be persevered in until the remedy has cured the evil.

THE SICKLES RECONCILIATION AT WASHINGTON.—The correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says:

The news of the reconciliation between Mr. and Mrs. Sickles has created, as you may well suppose intense excitement in this city. I forbear comments upon this event, which seems to have taken all parties by surprise.

CHOLERA.—The following extract from the letter of a clergyman to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland presents a very simple and he says, effectual preventive of cholera as well as a remedy of great power:

The preventative is simple; a teaspoonful of powdered charcoal taken three or four times a week in a cup of coffee or other liquid in the morning.

When attacked with cholera, a mixture of an ounce of charcoal, an ounce of laudanum, and an ounce of brandy or other spirits, may be given as follows, after being well shaken: a teaspoonful every five minutes. In half an hour I have known this effectually to relieve and stay the disease. As the patient becomes better, the mixture may be given at long intervals.

I have known a patient in the blue stage and collapsed perfectly recovered in a few hours.

The charcoal was tried as a preventive on a large plantation in the Mauritius, and not a single individual out of eight hundred was attacked with cholera.

THE BREAK IN THE CANAL.—The Rochester Union has intelligence from the Canal break at Perinton, to the effect that it will take ten days to make the necessary repairs. The Union adds:

Boats from the West are detained in this city, and already upwards of fifty are tied up. The forwarders appear to be discouraged. What little business they find to do is done at such a disadvantage as to afford no profits.

The following table of distances may be serviceable to watchers of the war:

Turin to Paris, 550 miles; to Vienna, 450; to Milan, 81; to Parma, 135; to Florence, 200; to Geneva, 108; to Alessandria, 50; Pavia, 76; Mortara, 55; Vercelli, 41; Novara, 55. Alessandria to Vercelli, 30; Novara, 38; Milan, 47; Mortara, 24; Pavia, 33; Voghera, 90; Genoa, 37 miles, Fiendish Crime.

The Detroit papers have the particulars of the murder of a little girl, by her own father, in Nankin, Wayne county. There appears to have been no provocation for the deed except such as was furnished by the diabolical nature of the man who committed it. The family were at supper, and the woman refused to go to town with him the next day, as she suspected that he would, with his companion, get drunk and desert her in the streets. He became enraged, jumped up, and got the gun, saying that he would kill her. She said, "Oh, no, you won't," whereupon he raised his gun level with his breast, and pulled the trigger. She dodged back on seeing his intention, and the charge blew out the brains of the little girl sitting beside her. She exclaimed, "You have killed sissy," to which he answered "D—n you, I will kill you too," and rushed at her to beat her brains out with the butt of the gun. The first few blows broke the gun in pieces, when she caught up the bleeding and insensible child, and ran away from the house in the direction of a neighbor's. He also left the house. The woman, scarcely able to walk in consequence of her injuries, carried the child some distance, and then laid it alongside a log, and went to the next house, where she gave the alarm, and prevailed upon the man of the house to go after the child. He did so, and found it, also meeting the murderer, whom he accused having killed the child. Fulton answered that he did not care anything about the child—that he did not mean to kill it, but meant to kill his wife. The neighbors were gathered in a short time, but all were bewildered and at a loss what to do. A guard was kept upon Fulton, who did not manifest any inclination to escape, but stood around with his hands in his pockets, in a surly and morose mood. Fulton was a well to do farmer, and the crime was caused by whiskey.

Mexico.

The details of Mexican news, as brought to New-Orleans by the W. H. Webb, confirm the telegraphic outline. It was in deference to Mr. MCLANE's remonstrance that ROBLES released the specie conducta, not, however before he had obtained a bribe of $10,000 from the Vera Cruz merchants. The tendencies of the Miramon faction were still more distinctly in favor of SANTA ANNA. There has been no farther military operations. Gen Cobos who headed the Conservation expedition into Oaxaca is reported as dead

The other day, on the Canada side of Suspension Bridge, a Canadian Custom House official had an altercation and fight with a Yankee boy, and both went into court for a settlement. After hearing proofs, the justice announced the verdict to be a fine of 7 dollars for the Canadian and 3 dollars for the Yankee. With this plan of disposing justice, we think law suits for assault and battery would diminish.

THE GROVER & BAKER

Sewing Machine Co.
having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They
HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH
in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made, that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of
ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

WASHINGTON, July 15.

Judge Ross, the American Consul at Guaymas, reached here this afternoon and tendered his resignation to the Government. He made a thorough exploration of Sonora and pronounced it the richest mineral country in the world.

Gov. Peschiera is now absent in Sinaloa, and the Indians are devastating all the upper and western portions of Sonora. Murders and robberies are of every day occurrence.

Captain Stone, who was engaged in surveying public Government lands in that State, under contract with the Federal Government, is stopped by Peschiera and required to leave.

He is expected here to-morrow to lay complaint before the State Department.

NEW YORK, July 15

The Rome correspondent of the Evening Post gives the particulars of the outrage at Perugia, upon Mr. Edward Newton, Perkins and party of Boston. The hotel where they were stopping was invaded by a band of soldiers, who rushed into the dining room, killed the waiter before the eyes of the horrified ladies, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Doane, and Miss Cleveland, shot the master of the hotel and destroyed the furniture, carrying off, however, all that was valuable. Mr. Perkins and party saved their lives by escaping into a secret passage with the mother of the hotel keeper, where they remained hidden for 14 hours. Their baggage, jewelry, &c, was carried off, and the actual loss amounts to $2,500.

Mr. Stockton, the U. S. Minister to Rome, is taking energetic measures to obtain satisfactory reparation.

A meeting of the bar will be held to-morrow to express the regret of the profession at the loss it has sustained in the death of Rufus Choate.

John Sampson and Kerrigan were mortally wounded, and John McKerrigan somewhat injured, in an affray on 41st street last night. It would seem that that they committed the first breach of the peace upon some Germans named Jacob Eberhard and Jacob Shuck, and some women. Shuck has been arrested, but Eberhard escaped.

Robert Vincent and Alfred Curry, of Orange N. J., were drowned in the Passaic River on Wednesday evening, their boat having been run down by a steamer.

The shipment of specie by the Vanderbilt and City of Baltimore to-morrow, will be about $5,000,000.

Advices from Venezuela show that the revolt there is not a political movement, but a negro insurrection. Murders were frequent, and although the insurgents had been beaten in an attack on Puerto Cabello, and in several engagements they still caused great uneasiness. Business was suspended and communication with the interior was interrupted.

WORCHESTER, Mass., July 15.

Edward H. Hemmenway, President of the People's Insurance Co., a wealthy and unmarried man, committed suicide this morning. Cause—temporary insanity, caused by ill-health.

RICHMOND, Va., July 15.

A duel came off to-day in North Carolina, between O Jennings Wise, of the Enquirer, and Patrick Henry Aylett, a contributor to the columns of the Examiner. Mr. Aylett fired first. Mr. Wise then fired in the air, when Mr. Aylett withdrew the challenge and asked for a reconciliation, which Wise refused.

The difficulty grew out of the late controversy between the Enquirer and Examiner on the subject of intervention and non-intervention.

He will also keep Ice Cream flavored to the taste of the most devout epicure—and hold himself in readiness to entertain his customers with the luxuries of his Saloon; and to make his place a fashionable resort to all who desire delectables.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdue Inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the serious loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of Inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affection, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S New Medical Salt. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt. Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] fail to try the New Medical Salt. [illegible] for old testimonial and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhœa or Fluor Albus &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of old-School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new. It is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $1 a series of Health Rules and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

The only real Hair Restorative

HAIR RESTORATIVE AND INVIGORATOR.

IS WARRANTED to grow hair on bald heads, stop its falling, and increase the growth of mustaches and whiskers to any desired extent; to cure dandruff and all diseases of the scalp, even "scalded heads." It has a reputation of merit unknown to any other article, and those who buy a bottle are sure to purchase the second and third. Is it ever fails to give satisfaction, and to none of that it is claimed it to do. For TOILET USE it is also unsurpassed.

When the evidence of this kind is within the reach of every one, why will any one fail to get a circular and read the certificates of well known citizens, then buy a bottle for fifty cents, or a dollar bottle. It never was failed.

☞ Each bottle has the following words impressed on the sides—McOmber's Hair Restorative and Invigorator, Buffalo, N. Y.

MRS. M. M. DENSLOW,

Having returned from New-York with her usual supply of New Millinery Goods, is now ready to offer to the Public an assortment that will vie with the very best self-imported Stock ever before brought into a Batavia market.—True Mrs. D. did not go to Paris herself, but bought her supply at Importing Houses in New York, who have been long in the Trade and who sell to their old customers who pay, at very reasonable rates, and Mrs. D. being one of this class of customers, is enabled to give her patrons the full benefit of a superb Stock of Goods, purchased at those Houses, where Fashionable Goods are to be had at very small profits. The Public are invited to call and see, after seeking to be supplied elsewhere, among Importers, and she feels they will not go (?) inclined to go empty away.—Through trade is greatly desired—though responsible persons can have credit from four to six months.

She is fully prepared to execute all orders in this line of trade, and to promote with dispatch, and with all of the neatness, elegance and fashion, that her reputation has heretofore won her, any work trusted to her care. Her millinery prices are also made to suit the times and the wants of the buyer. 38mdw

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade. To prevent the [illegible] who may be [illegible] with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and, though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm consisted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only one now rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

WM. BENDER.

You who have drank "Bill's" Lager Beer,
And felt its warmth arise,
Know well it drives out ev'ry fear,
And wakes up just surprise!
It fills the nerves with Native life,
And warms the stomach so,
Digestion goes on with greater strife
And sets the soul in glow!

"Bill's" Lager is the best of drink;
It makes a man yearn all he'd think;
It warms him through and through, you know
And puts his senses in a glow.

It never makes a man quite drunk
Nor filthy as a common skunk!
But always makes the senses clear,
To Truthful triumph it be here!

Bill's glasses, too, are just the thing,
They hold as much as Sauerall swing,
And keep the mind in equal poise,
And economy from a drunken noise.

So you who want your senses whet
You drink Bill's Lager, and you'll get the thirsty one wo that sparkling foam,
At Bender's shop and happy home!
So you that's but a bar'room clear
And see the sparkled fine

Every man likes to be taken for a gentleman, and yet no man likes to be charged as one—in an hotel bill.

What make the loudest noise, a crockery dealer and a cabinet maker? One sells tea setts, and the other settees!

Absence destroys small passions, and increases great ones, as the wind extinguishes tapers and kindles fires.

Girls are a floating show—more sublunary phantoms. Hymen changes them into substantial wives and tangible mothers. Divested of tissue frost-work, and artificial roses, the sober sway of reason ripens them into something like a reality.

The young man who was forbidden the house by his sweetheart's papa, feels much put out.

Who were the first astrologers? The star, because they first studded the heavens.

What is that which every one can divide, but no man can see where it has been divided? Water.

Why are a pretty girl's eyes like an oatmeal cake? Because they are apt to give the heart-burn.

By what light should a vessel be piloted at night? By a steering (stearine) candle, to be sure!

THE DAILY HERALD.

BATAVIA, Monday, July 18, 1859.

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

What of the Harvest?

The crops this year are a standard topic among all classes, about as much so as the weather. The promise that the European war would create a demand for bread stuffs, at large prices, at first stimulated interest in the yield over and above the requirement for home consumption.—Then came the frost, which through the industry of speculators, was made the exciting cause of a regular panic, and fear actually spread that we were to be visited by a famine. A few days ago there was much complaint in this section of the drouth, but the recent rains have appeased alike the croakers and the earth.

The grass crop in Genesee Co., is unquestionably very light, and it is probably so in Erie Co. also, and perhaps some others. Wheat for a number of years has not promised so well as as it does now; Corn is backward but with this weather it will come forward, and if frost holds off usually late, will be a good yield. Potatoes look remarkably well; of the other staple products we have not very definite information. At one time there was a cry that all the fruits were killed, but we have never known a season that promised a more abundant harvest of apples and pears than this cherries, even, a fruit that is more frequently blighted by unseasonable weather than almost any other, are very abundant and remarkably fine.

From distant parts of the country we hear still of injury by frost, but in some places, it is calculated that it saved the grass and grain harvest in killing off grasshoppers that had begun their work of devastation before the 4th of June. On the whole we have every reason to think that the husbandman had never a better prospect of an abundant reward for his labour, while the non-producing classes have the cheering encouragment that provisions will be abundant at prices commensurate with the price of labor.

Arrival of the Weser,

The North German Lloyds screw-steamship Weser, which was to have sailed from Southampton on the 30th ult, but which was detained by an accident to her propeller, left that port on the 4th inst, and arrived in New York at a late hour Saturday night, making the passage in about eleven days and a half. The advices are two days later than those by the Canada, ann embody a telegraphic summary of events at the seat of war subsequent to the battle of Solferino. There had been no more fighting, and no movement of special importance seems to have been made on either side. The most noticeable feature of the news is the French official report of the engagement of the 24th ult, which we find in the London papers of the 4th inst. There is no change to notice in the English markets. Consols, on the day of the Weser's sailing, were quoted at 93⅜. A rumor prevailed in London, and was telegraphed to Southampton, that the American clipper ship Dreadnought had been spoken off the coast, having crossed the Atlantic in the extraordinary time of nine days.

The Coroner's Jury in the case of the Michigan Southern Railroad Disaster, have completed their investigation and rendered their verdict. It fully exonerates the company from all blame; finds that while the embankment and culvert were very thoroughly and substantially built, and of sufficient capacity for all the water that has been accustomed to run there, or has been there for twenty years past, yet it would have had to be at least double its size for such an unprecedented flood as this was. They say the train was run with great care and caution, and the devotion as well as confidence of the men in the safety of the culvert is proved by their being found dead at their posts.

For the Daily Herald.

Daniel E. Sickles.

It is but a few days since the announcement come through the New York Press that Daniel E. Sickles had become reconciled to his wife. There are few newspapers in the land but what have already copied the paragraph; and few of those that have commented on this little domestic event but what have condemned the man, and predicted his political ruin—predicted, that this man of the world, because he has exhibited soul and manhood enough to forgive his erring wife, should loose his influence, loose his place in society, and in short, become an outcast.

The noblest act in the life of Daniel E. Sickles, was that when he took back and forgave the young wife that had strayed from his arms—when he said to her "though the world condemns thee I will not," and said to the world, "though you have acquitted me of crime when my hands have been stained with blood, and will condemn me now when I am merciful, yet will I brave thy condemnation for my own peace, and the happiness of mine."

There is something like heroism on the part of Sickles in this truly noble act, for he braves a public sentiment that will try to crush him out—acts contrary to popular clamour in the full consciousness that he is doing right, and defies that unrighteous judgment of mankind which condemns the weak in error, and applauds the strong in vice.

Mr. Sickles may not have studied the moral points of the act that redeems him measurably with the christian, while it incurs the animadversion of the politician, but it shows that his heart is in about the right place, and if once the good of his nature gets the control of him, he will rise above the fame of a corrupt politician.

The true lesson taught in the Sickles tragedy of last winter has evidently found one learner in the principle actor. Neither political fame, nor the fascination of a fashionable life are contributors to happiness, they are not either, essential to ultimate good, and hence good cannot grow out of them.

We glory in the man that dares the right to do, in the face of the world, and we esteem him the christian who lives the christ doctrine, rather than him who professes christianity and doeth not the works. Who ever condemns Sickles in forgiving his wife can claim no respect for Christ or His doctrines.

Miscellany.

—The inhabitants of the Pike's Peak region not finding gold enough to keep them busy picking it up, have already projected the formation of a new state.

—The Dansville Register has discovered a gentleman who sponges the reading of that paper. We havn't any sich here!

—The weather is warm just about here, and we presume it extends. We saw a native yesterday who complained of a want of courage and strength; we have seen one to-day who at an early hour was discouraged; another who in the most unqualified manner declared, "it is hot!" and we are inclined, without over-much confidence in human judgment, to think he was right.

—GREELEY says, "the Rocky Mountains with their grand aromatic forests, their grassy glades, their frequent springs and their dancing streams of the brightest, sweetest water, their pure, elastic atmosphere, and their unequaled game and fish, are destined to be a favorite resort and home of civilized man. I never visited a region where physical life could be more surely prolonged or fully enjoyed."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The morning train on the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway, Saturday ran over a negro about three miles west of Dunville. The negro was walking on the track, and carrying a cask of flour. The locomotive cut his head completely off and both his legs.

The late Mr. Rufus Choate had policies upon his life with several companies, among them $10,000 in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, of which institution he was one of the earliest members. He was remarkably punctual in paying his premiums, and never had occasion to be informed that his policy had expired.

TRAGEDY—A KENTUCKY DESPERADO HUNG BY A MOB.—The Louisville Democrat has the following:

In May last, Jasper Rouzy shot James Oldham in Milledgeville, Lincoln County, and immediately fled. He located himself in a remote corner of Marion County, and although the Executive of the State offered a reward of $400 for his apprehension, every one was fearful of attempting to make the arrest—such was his desperate character, and so thoroughly was he armed. While in Marion he was accustomed to committing depredation after depredation, of the most serious nature. He wou'd go to the house of persons and demand their guns, threatening to blow out their brains in case of refusal, so that he was enabled to form quite an arsenal. On last Monday he went to Bradfordsville, and encountering a gentleman, he seized his gold watch, and placing it in his pocket said, "What will you do about it?" Just at this juncture a small man seized him from behind pinioned his arms so closely that a number of persons were enabled to come up and assist in handcuffing the prisoner. He was then taken to Lebanon. When leaving the latter place he expressed a desire to be killed there, as he was sure if he returned to Stanford he would be hung.

Arriving at Stanford, the county seat of Lincoln, he was placed in jail. Yesterday (Saturday) morning, about 2 o'clock, a mob of some eight persons attacked the prison, made a forcible entrance, and carried off the prisoner. They proceeded a short distance, and then informed Rouzy of their intention. He only requested that his body should be given to his wife, and that it remain in peace, as he trusted his soul would. The mob then hung him upon a tree, and left the wretched man suspended. He was not discovered until after daylight.

Rouzy had for a long time been a vicious ungovernable person, and was a perfect terror to the neighborhoods of Milledgeville and Huntsville.

POISONOUS HOOPS.—The Cayuga (C. W.) Sachem says that a couple of women in the backwoods of that county, wishing to conform to the prevailing fashion, and being economically inclined withal, started for the forest to procure hoop timber, and after due investigation and consideration, they came to the conclusion that the stem of the "poison ivy" would answer their purpose better than anything else, and therefore proceeded to appropriate as much of it as they deemed necessary, little dreaming of the consequences of the rash act. In a very few days thereafter these would be fashionables found that they had not only enlarged their spheres of action, but that they had badly poisoned themselves. The services of a physician were in requisition at last accounts.

STEALING CATTLE.—Some rascal last week stole five fat cattle from THOMAS KIBBY, who has a farm near Akron, brought them in this vicinity, sold four of them to Mr. CLUTE of Black Rock, who butchered them, and lost the other one.—Officer SHERWOOD arrested the man who had sold them to CLUTE, but he insisted that he had bought them from an Indian, and the officer has gone in pursuit of the aborigine, who we fear, is rather a mythical Mohigan, Senica, or Red Jacket. The Indian had not been found at last accounts—and according to our accounts, never will be.—Buffalo Republic.

ANOTHER PIQUE.—The people at the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains have taken a step towards greatness.—They have had a meeting and issued an address calling a convention of the people to form a new territory or state, by taking parts of Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, and Utah. It is proposed to call the State Jefferson. There is room and range enough in that direction to form empires.

Advices from Puerto Cabello to July 1 announce the existence of a formidable insurrection of negroes in the vicinity of that city, which has entirely suspended communication between the town and country. The insurgents are guilty, it is reported, of every species of atrocity, and are strong enough to defy the troops sent to subdue them.

The Lancaster (Pa.) Union says the largest harvest ever secured in that county is now being gathered.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THERMOMETER stands at 98, in the shade; a thunder storm is coming up to take it down. Let it come, 3 P. M.

Easily Annoyed

JOE PENTLAND'S Show Bills being larger than ordinary village barns, he is obliged to erect a Monster Bulletin board in order to display them. The one down by the Eagle, while undergoing the artistic process of decoration with pictures of monstrous men and small ponies, and re-vaulting chaps suspending and projecting in every conceivable attitude,—greatly to the amusement and entertainment of the village urchins,—produced a very unhappy effect upon one of our executive citizens, who proceeded immediately to order the work discontinued. The agent appealed to the President of the board of Trustees, who "not standing in the fear of the Lord," according to the words of JOSHUA, at once and in the most emphatic manner renewed the permit that Joe Pentland's bills should be displayed before the citizens of Batavia, greatly to the indignation of the opposing authority, and much to the delight of the urchins.

For this defence of the Showmans rights our worthy village President will hereafter receive the gratitude of the "younger members of society," who are notoriously fond of the Circus and of fun.

The Batavia Brass Band.

Our citizens while sitting out in the shade—of the evening—on Saturday night, wooing the cool night air, were agreeably entertained with music from the Brass Band, recently organized in this place. It is but a few months since this band commenced practicing, but it has made great proficiency, and already discourses music, which, when it comes floating on the soft air mingled with the moonbeams of a night like that of Saturday last, is mellowed to the tone of the gentlest heart.

We understand that liberal contributions have been made by a number of our citizens to furnish a complete fit-out for the members of this Band, and we hope soon to see them in regalia making merry music for the delight of all.

It is hoped that all who are fond of music will add contributions to those already made for the furtherance of the object above stated.

University of Rochester.

We see by the Rochester papers that at the recent commencement in that city, A. B. RATHBUN and J. A. MACOMBER, both of this county, were among the graduates. We hear from those who attended the commencement, that the addresses of these young men were creditable to themselves, and reflected honor on old Genesee.

Mr. MACOMBER, who has been very fortunate in college honors, has been elected to deliver the oration before his class at their reunion five years hence—certainly the highest compliment which could be paid to his talent as a writer and speaker.

We are glad to know that "our boys" have done so well in the University in which, from its location, we take so deep an interest. The growth of this college is unparalleled. Half a century is a short time for a college to make a reputation but this one, in less than ten years, has attained a rank along side our oldest and best. The graduating class this year numbered twenty seven, taken from all parts of the Union, and four were from the Queen's Dominions.

NEW LAW FIRM.—J. M. Willett, Esq., and M. H. Peck, Esq., have entered into copartnership for the practice of law.—Their office is in the old American, cor. Main and Mechanic st's.

CHERRIES.—The basket of cherries which we received from the Park Place Saloon, were of the very finest quality, and our thanks are due to the Proprietor, B. G. TISDALE, Esq., for the same.

TWO DAYS LATER NEWS.

Arrival of the Steamship Indian.

FARTHER POINT, C. E., July 17.

The steamship Indian, from Liverpool at about noon of the 6th instant, passed the station at 3 P. M. to-day and will be due at Quebec at 6 P. M. to-morrow.

The following telegraph show the course of events:—

A private despatch from the French headquarters, dated the 3d, says:—"This morning at 7 o'clock the Emperor quitted Volta in order to cross the Mincio and establish his head-quarters at Vallegio.

We are only four leagues from Peschiera—the seige of which was begun two days ago by the Sardinians. Cannons were heard night and day in that direction.—The Austrian advance post is but a short distance from Villafranca, which is occupied by the corps of General Neil.

"It is much doubted that the Austrian army will venture to accept a battle in the state of demoralization and stupor into which they have fallen since our victory at Solferino."

NALLIGO, July 4.

Official.—The French army, increased by Prince Napoleon's corps will operate against Verona, whilst part of the Sardinians begin the siege of Peschiera.

The Emperor having sent back the wounded officers without exchange, and having requested an exchange of prisoners, an Austrian has arrived with the announcement that the Emperor of Austria will also send back without exchange the wounded prisoners of the allies, and that His Majesty is equally desirous for the exchange of others.

TURIN, July 4.

Official—On the 29th ult. the Sardinians closely invested the exterior fortification of Peschiera Setuatio, on the right bank of the Mincio.

Our army crossed the river on the 30th, to invest Peschhiera also on the left bank

BERNE, July 3.

The Austrians have withdrawn from Bormio.

The Piedmontese are advancing towards the Stelvio Pass.

A report was current at Castiglione that the Austrians had entered into Verona. The Herald's Turin correspondent says that 20,000 beds had been ordered down from Milan from Briscia, and 10,000 from Turin.

There were great complaints of the scarcity of provisions in the villages occupied by the allies.

On the 7th there was an extraordinary sitting of the Federal Diet of Frankfort, when Prussia presented new and farther proposals respecting the establishment, extention and command of the corps of observation on the Rhine. Immediately after the sitting M. De Weden left for Berlin.

Prussia, it is said, has given tranquilizing assurances to the French Government.

A Berlin correspondent of the Times says that the Prussian proposals were in the hands of Russia and England. The writer says that by the end of the week the Prussian army will be in full march.—Two corps d' armee will be stationed on the Silesian frontier in case of an unexpected attack on the part of Russia. On the lower and middle Rhine 140,000 Prussians will be stationed. When these preparations are completed, Prussia will probably make her proposals to France, and this unquestionably will be refused.

The same correspondent gives an outline of the proposition, which includes the erection of Venice into a separate kingdom, with the Archduke Maximilian as King.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subduing inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Lungs, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia Spinal affection, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, [illegible] Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all [illegible] druggists wherever the [illegible] is. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] fail to try the New Medical Salt. For [illegible] and directions see circular.

ACUTE PACKAGES, $1.00; CHRONIC $2.00.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "Evans & Co's Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to prevent the [illegible] who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the one conducted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be liable to suffer the penalty of the law.

Dr. Abernethy used to tell his pupils that all human diseases sprung from two causes—stuffing and fretting.

Ladies who have a disposition to punish their husbands, should bear in mind that a little warm sunshine will melt an icicle much sooner than a regular North-easter.

Mildness in society is like salt in our food, as salt seasons and gives a relish to all meat, the other gives content to every body.

A convict wrote a letter to his brother, a serious letter, without even an attempt at a joke, which, however, concluded thus: "I must leave off now, for my feet are so cold I can not hold my pen."

A farmer made his last will and testament in words few but significant: "I have nothing, I own nothing, and I give the rest to the poor!"

In the game of life we should watch for the "Last Trump!"

A darkey's instructions for putting on a coat were—"Fust the right arm, den the left, and den gib one general conwulshun."

Where shall I put this paper so as to be sure to see it to-morrow?" inquired Mary Jane of her brother Charles. "On the looking-glass, to be sure," was the prompt reply.

The war in Europe.

It has been hoped, and even contended by some good thinkers, that the enlightened portions of our world had become too far advanced in wisdom to ever again engage in a sanguinary war. All such peace-loving people must by this time have seen that the formenting elements of human nature are not all yet worked out.

Never was a war waged on a more gigantic scale than that now raging in Italy. With the exception of England alone, every European Government is ready for battle just as soon as what may be deemed a sufficient provocation is offered, to enter into the contest.

The present conflict presents many new features, that very distinctly mark the progress of the world in physical science. The first NAPOLEON was possessed of very meager facilities for prosecuting his campaigns compared with what the Emperor of France now brings to his aid. Among these, Railroads and Telegraphs are the most prominent, while the great improvements that have been made in every species of fire-arms, and other projectiles of warfare, serve to expedite the work of human distruction.

Think of a commander in the heat of battle ordering recruits from a distance of a hundred miles, and within five hours afterwards assigning them a place in the field; and, that on the same evening a victory is won in Italy, the city of Paris is illuminated in honor of the achievement, and we have an insight of the rapidity with which war may be carried on and intelligence of its movements and wants may be communicated at the present time.

When, and where, this war will end, is a question that no one at present seems competent to answer. It requires more confidence in the wisdom and self control of LOUIS NAPOLEON than mankind generally entertains of him, to believe that he will stop at the point prudence would dictate, flushed as he is with successive victories and an unbounded love of power. Let him step one foot over the line he has drawn as the boundary of the field of his offensive operations, and the other great powers will at once put their fortresses in a bristling aspect against him.—That Austria is to be entirely subjugated there seems not a doubt, but that her territory will ever be ruled by Napoleon III, no one can for a moment believe will be allowed. A balance of power in his hands would make all Europe tremble, and England as well as Russia would at once enter the field, and feel obliged to do so in self defence. It is impossible for the most sagacious mind to foresee what may be the ultimate positions of these powers that now earnestly desire peace; and that all Europe may yet be turned from the peaceful pursuits of industry, to enter the field of strife and warfare, is by no means an impossible result of the present circumscribed contest. The world needs the lessons it is now being taught, in order to do away with oppressive systems of government which hold it bound in chains, and they may as well come now as at a later day.

A Farmer who cultivates 300 acres in St. Josephs county, Mich., writes, under date of "Three Rivers, June 27," as follows: "We are just commencing harvest in this part, and if nothing unforseen occurs, we shall secure large crops in this county. The frost I certainly think has been of benefit to us, destroying insects and not injuring any standard crop. All the injury to any one here falls upon myself, and amounts to about eleven hills of Lima beans, which are used up."

AMERICAN TEA.—The culture of the Tea plant is being tested to a considerable extent in the eastern States. The plant grows well, the climate not being found to interpose any serious impediment. An Eastern man is already preparing a machine for rolling the leaves, which the Chinese do with their fingers, and which will greatly lessen the expense of its preparation for market. We apprehend that the soil of this country is destitute of those principles essential for the genuine chinese flavor, the same cause that makes American Tobacco inferior to that of Cuba for smoking.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—A confident hope is entertained that the Atlantic Cable will yet be restored to use. This is predicated upon a theory that the shore end was burned out by the powerful batteries used by the English electricians.—In the mean time negotiations have been settled upon for the necessary capital with which to construct and lay another wire next Summer.

The members of the Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations, lately in session at Troy, visited Saratoga in a body, on Saturday. They numbered nearly five hundred persons, representing all portions of the Union. After seeing the sights at the Springs, the company sat down to a dinner at Congress Hall, where sentiments were proposed and speeches made.

NEW WHEAT.—T. H. Yale of Leicester, has handed in a sample of new wheat raised by him on his farm on the county line. The berry is large and plump. Mr. Y. informs us that his whole crop of wheat will come up to the sample—being the largest and best raised by him in a number of years, so says the Wyoming Times.

A LOADED CANAL BOAT SUNK,—The New York papers report a canal boat from the Erie canal, loaded with corn, cargo valued at $12,000, sunk in the river near Rhinebeck a few days ago while on its way to that city, in tow of an Albany steamer. Insured for $2,500. They do not give her name.

George Kelly, a notorious highway robber and horse thief, who is believed to have been associated with most of the horse stealing that has been so frequent in the vicinity of Buffalo, was captured Sunday evening on the Aurora Plank Road, near Whitman's Tavern.

A son of the pugilist, Izzy Lazarus, of Buffalo, was yesterday detected in a robbery of $16, from the money drawer of Mr. C. S. Van Norman. He was consigned to the House of Refuge.

WASHINGTON, July 18

Advices from Tampico to July 2d, specially telegraph to the Charleston Courier from New Orleans, say that the organization of the Liberal forces in Northern Mexico is broken up.

Miramonists are acting with renewed vigor and are not only threatening San Louis Potosi, but an expedition of 5,000 men against Tampico is being organized under Gen. Morano.

Artillerymen and ammunition had arrived at Tampico from Vera Cruz, and a large quantity of powder had already been received from New Orleans.

BALLOONING.—Mr. La Mountain has challenged Mr. John Wise to test their "relative capacity, scientifically considered, in a trial trip from San Francisco to the Atlantic seaboard, with balloons." Mr. Wise, in a card, published in The St Louis Democrat says that his "thoughts are now turned to the crossing of the Atlantic, and with a provision much better than was the trip from St. Louis to New-York. I have fully resolved on that, because I have learned in the St. Louis trip that it is easier to accomplish than I had heretofore thought it was."

Alexander Dudley, lately resident of Castile, Wyoming Co., was found dead in his buggy some half a mile east of his residence, Saturday evening, the 9th.—Coroner Amsden summoned a jury, verdict: Deceased came to his death from strangulation, caused by falling with his neck across the dash board while in a state of intoxication. Mr. D. was 70 years of age.

Although Rufus Choate, the eminent lawyer, is dead, he leaves behind him a son who is likely to do honor to the name he bears. Rufus Choate, Jr., is also a lawyer, inheriting to a certain extent the talents of his father. He graduated with honor at Amherst College in 1855, and was admitted to the bar about a year since.—His age is about twenty-five.

Greeley Turned Fillibuster!

A Los Anglos correspondent of The Philadelphia Bulletin states that a California paper started a canard to the effect that Horace Greeley of the Tribune was on his way to California to take command of all the various rag, tag and bobtail fillibusters to be found there; that Henningsen and Walker would join him with forces collected in the Atlantic States; and that the whole horde, under the supreme command of the aforsaid Greeley, would invade Mexico and usurp the government of that Republic. A copy of this paper fell into the hands of the commander, at Mazatlan, and he at once issued a proclamation informing the people that "One Horace Greeley, a most diabolical, bloodthirsty and unmerciful man—worse than the infamous Walker, or even the minions of Miramon—a man whose very name struck dread to the heart of thousands in the United States, so many were his crimes and so terrible was his conduct—is now at the head of the most extensive band of fillibusters ever collected, and on his way to Mexico!" He then exhorts the people to prepare themselves for instant action, and concludes thus: "This dangerous man (hombre peligrose) is not of the common school of fillibusters; they wish for plunder, he for blood and murderous deeds." "Just imagine," says the correspondent, "the mild and amiable philosopher of the Tribune converted into the hardened fiend this bright greaser makes him!"

WHERE TO FIND ROGUES.—A gentleman in the Metropolis from the East some time since remarked that New York appeared to him to be "the receptacle of things lost on the earth," for, among others whose whereabouts had long since been to him unknown, he had met in the streets an old sweetheart who had once jilted him; a fellow-boarder at a Boston Hotel, who took his leave between two days, forgetting in his haste to pay his landlord's bill; a room-mate to whom he had sold a watch on credit, and who had disappeared quite as mysteriously as the other; and, which surprised him more that anything else, he found at Barnum's Museum the old elephant Columbus (one of the first, if not the first, ever exhibited in this country), whom he had been taken to see, when a very little child, about the close of the war of 1812, at Davenport's Inn, in Market street, Portsmouth.

An ex-clergyman, Mr. Robert D. Dwyer, has sued the New York Sunday Courier for publishing a sketch entitled "Exploits financial and otherwise of a Model Clergyman," which sketch Mr. Dwyer claims was intended to injure him in the eyes of the community. The complainant was cross-examined, and stated that he preached as a Presbyterian clergyman in Richmond, Va., three years. Subsequently, he came to New York and joined the Congregational Church, and was a clergyman of that denomination when the "sketch" appeared. He stated further that he had been married, and had two daughters, one of whom ran away, and the other married against his consent.

NEED OF REFORM.—The New-York Daily Advertiser says:

"Among the persons who signed the pledge in teh County jail, by the influence of the chaplain, a few days since, was a young woman who said she drank forty-four glasses of lager beer, beside a lot of poor liquor, on the 4th, when she became noisy and quarrelsome, and was arrested and sent to jail. The whole number of sinners was 62."

Lizzie Wayte, the gay deceiver, who stole $2,700 at a Wheeling hotel has escaped custody. The loser only received $1,800 of his money. The police were not very hard on Lizzie—boarding her at a hotel, hoping to coax her to tell where the rest of the money was. She gave her custodians the slip without giving the information they sought. She will shortly resume her lectures on "home ties."

AARON BURR.—A marble shaft recently erected over the remains of Aaron Burr, in the grave-yard in Princetown, New-Jersey, has been mutilated and broken by some person unknown. The shaft was erected by stealth, no one knowing who put it there.

It is stated that Richard Slauson, of Piqua, Ohio has commenced a suit against the New York Central Railroad Company, for injuries that his wife received at the melancholy accident near Jordan, on the 18th of May last. He lays his damages at $10,000.

On Friday night John Haley stabbed John King in Water street, New York, not fatally however. On the same night John Crowley shot Patrick Lovejoy to satisfy an old grudge. He was arrested, pleaded drunkenness, and was locked up to be acquitted some day by Ashmead.

The Kansas Constitutional Convention, after a somewhat lengthy discussion, has decided upon fixing, as the Northern boundary of the State, the original Nebraska line.

The thunder storm of Wednesday was severe in the New England States, and many accidents resulted, fatally to man and beast.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Arrival of the City of Washington.

NEW YORK, July 18.

The City of Washington arrived this P. M. from Liverpool 9th via Queenstown 7th.

LATEST NEWS TELEGRAPHED FROM LONDON TO QUEENSTOWN.

LONDON, July 7.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says the Minister of War and Marshal Pellisier have had another conference for the purpose of concerting measures for the complete organization of the army of the East. An eighth division is in course of organization at Lyons to enforce the army in Italy.

A telegraph from Trieste, dated 7th July, says that advices from Naples of the 28th ult., announces that legal proceedings have been taken against a secret political society at Messina, and several arrests have been made.

Advices have also been received from Ancona to the 30th June. General Coltenmatter had taken command of the town and declared it in a state of siege. A general disarming of the citizens had been ordered.

An address of the Sardinian admiral to the people of Messina had been issued.

TRIESTE, Tuesday.

An Austrian Prize Court has been established at Yarra; the appeal from which is to be to the Court at Trieste.

General Clam Gallos, commander of a corps d'armee, has arrived here from Verona.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says, that letters from head-quarters say that Prince Napoleon states that another great battle is expected on the banks of the Adige, and the Austrians are believed to have 200,000 men in line.

Fresh battalions are organized at Paris.

The Times also says, that it is now pretty clearly understood that Prussia will act only on the defensive.

Reliable information had reached Vienna that Garibaldi's men had violated the Tyrol, by entering the Tonale pass.

Prince Windischgratz has been sent to Berlin to acquaint the Prussian Government with this fact.

A Frankfort letter announces that the Austrian Government having been compelled by the battle of Solferino to despatch to the theatre of war those troops which it had in reserve in the Tyrol, that province being consequently menaced by invasion by Gradibaldi's corps, it intends to propose to the Diet in virtue of the treaty of Vienna, which requires the German states to guarantee each other German territories, to send a German army into the Tyrol.

Kossuth had issued a proclamation calling the Hungarion nation to arms to struggle for liberty, and announces that he would soon be among them.

The Invalid Russe discusses the possible complication of the war.

Prussia, it says, has called out an army of 300,000 men which will be reinforced by a federal contingent of 150,000 men, and it is with such an enormous display of force that she proposes to offer her mediation to France and hasten the conclusion of a peace, but such an armed mediation constitutes a kind of ultimatum.

The English Ministry most certainly will not allow the new war to begin without first exhausting all the powers of persuasion.

The proposals made by Prussia on the extraordinary sitting of the Federal Diet on the 4th, were the following:

First—The junction of the 8th or 10th corps d'armee to the Prussian army.

Second—The appointment to the command in chief of the four non-Prussian and non-Austrian corps d'armee.

Third—The placing of all reserve contingents in readiness to march.

The revolutionists in Tuscany have quietly dispersed after capturing ex Gov. Herrera.

Meramen proposed to issue $18,000,000 worth of forced paper currency, and was also about raising a forced loan from all natives from $9 to $500 each.

BERNE, July 16.

News has been received from Bormio that a corps of 3,000 to 5,000 Tyrolese chasseurs had been threatening the Valtelline, but the several columns of Garibaldi's and Cialdini's corps had repulsed them from Bormio, and driven them as far as the 1st canton of the Stelvio pass.

The Austrians suffered severely.

Garibaldi's loss was 10 severely wounded, and Cialdini's 3 killed.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues Inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unballanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia Spinal affections, Erycipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt. Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by R. W. Fellows and by all apothecaries druggists wherever the Herald is read. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one should fail to try the New Medical Salt. For all testimonial and directions see circular.

ACUTE PACKAGES, $1,00; CHRONIC $2,00.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion: Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgy pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Flour Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarly in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflamation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to prevent the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

JOB PRINTING, OF ALL KINDS, EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE WITH TASTE AND DESPATCH.

Theodore Parker.

In the recent letter of THEODORE PARKER to his Congregation in Boston, written since he has been abroad, he gives the following account of his peculiarities as a preacher:

In my preaching I have used plain, simple words, sometimes making what I could not find ready, and counted nothing unclean, because merely common. In philosophic terms, and in all which describes the inner consciousness, our Saxon speech is rather poor, and so I have been compelled to gather from the Greek or Roman stock forms of expression which do not grow on our homely and familiar tree, and hence, perhaps, have sometimes scared you with "words of learned length."—But I have always preferred to use, when fit, the every-day words in which men think and talk, scold, make love, and pray, so that generous-hearted Philosophy, clad in a common dress, might more easily become familiar to plain clad men. It is with customary tools that we work easiest and best, especially when use has made the handles smooth.

Illustrations I have drawn from most familiar things which are before all men's eyes, in the fields, the streets, the shop, the kitchen, parlor, nursery or school; and from the literature best known to all—the Bible, the newspapers, the transient speech of eminent men, the talk of common people in the streets, from popular stories, school books and nursery rhymes. Some of you have censured me for this freedom and homeliness, alike in illustration and in forms of speech, desiring "more elegant and sonorous language," "illustrations derived from elevated and conspicuous objects," "from dignified personalities." A good man who was a farmer in fair weather and a shoe maker in foul, could not bear to have a plow or a lap-stone mentioned in my sermon—to me picturesque and poetic objects, as well as familiar—but wanted "kings and knights," which I also quickly pleased him with.—But for this I must not only plead the necessity of my nature, delighting in common things, trees, grass, oxen and stars, moonlight on the water, the falling rain, the ducks and hens at this moment noisy under my window, the gambols and prattle of children, and the common work of black smiths, carpenters, wheelwrights, painters, hucksters, and traders of all sorts.

A young man named Barney Gilday was struck by lightning Monday near Scottsville, and instantly killed.

Last Sunday afternoon a boy named Anthony Bierbier, aged 12 years, was drowned in the Erie Canal, in the town of Gates, Monroe Co.

The Paris correspondent of The Globe says:

"The only incident reported from the quadrilateral scene of war is the balloon ascent of M. Goddard before Peschiera, who has accurately inspected the present state of the works, the distribution of the garrison, and the nature of the approaches on every side. Gunboats, brought up from Genoa in compartments had been launched on Lake Garda, (30th June)"

At the Fourth of July celebration in Ironton, Missouri, Capt. JOHN HALL, one of MARION's men, was present. He is a native of North Carolina, and will be 99 years of age on the 21st of September next. He supports himself by making brooms and baskets, and has never received a pension though he fought gallantly during the Revolutionary war, and distinguished himself at the battle of Guilford Court House, N. C., March 15, 1781, where he was made Lieutenant of a company.

John Rosner and his wife Barbara Rosner were arrested at Cincinnati for cruelly whipping their child, a lad about thirteen years of age. It seems that he did not sell as many bunches of matches during the day as they told him to, and when he returned home one held him and the other flogged him with a leather thong.—They took turn and turn about this until the child's back presented a fearful sight.

The Buffalo Commercial says the preliminaries of a prize fight for $2,500, between Australian Kelly and Ed. Price, a Boston bruiser, have been arranged, the contest to take place in October next.

About the Crops.

A correspondent of the Rochester American writing from Tecumseh Mich, Says:—

You may let your millers know that we have raised one of the finest crops of wheat in this county, Lenawee, that has been raised for many years. The berry is very large and clear, the straw free from rust and mildew. It is far before anything I ever raised or saw in the Genesee valley during a period of thirty years farming there. Those who wish to secure a fine quantity of wheat will do well to pay us a visit and see what they can do. We have large warehouses, railroad depot, &c., for shipping at all times. The cost to Buffalo is 8 or 9 cents per bushel.—Western funds will buy but a small part of this year's crops. The farmers are all busy in housing their fine harvest.

The Crops in Canada West.

A recent trip from Suspension Bridge through Hamilton, Paris and Goodrich, enables us to state that the condition of the wheat crop in that region is unusually promising. In several places the harvest was commenced last week, but the cutting will not be general until the middle of this week; and it will be still later in the northwestern portion of the region indicated. The anticipations of the most hopeful are more than realized, and the panic of a few weeks since has entirely subsided. Instead of anticipations of famine and distress, the prospect of a bountiful harvest lightens the hearts of the people. There are drawbacks from the fly and frost, but in spite of these there is a large crop. In some localities there is scarcely any corn. This is particularly true of the county of Bruce on Lake Huron, where the frost was very destructive. Potatoes were put back, and are seriously injured. The hay crop is very light, and the farmers will feel obliged to save everything which will answer to feed their cattle. But with every drawback, the present harvest will materially advance the condition of the people of Canada West. In a portion of the country between Lake Huron and Georgian Bay, the settlers have been reduced to nearly the point of starvation, and have been subsisting upon supplies of flour, &c., at high prices, and from a long distance. But they are rapidly emerging from this gloomy state of things, and have brighter prospects before them.—Rochester Democrat.

A young lady of named Calista Robinson, daughter of A. Robinson, of Southwest Oswego, N. Y., was killed by lightning on the 14th of July. An eye-witness describes the catastrophe as follows: The house was filled with smoke and the floor covered with plastering from the walls, and the parents almost distracted. I immediately sent for Dr. Place, who arrived in about an hour after the catastrophe. In the meantime the youngest (aged 6 or 7 years) began to show some signs of life—but the deceased was killed instantly. She was a young lady aged about 16 years, uncommonly active and full of animation. She was struck on the head, badly burning her hair, also the sunbonnet which she was wearing. The lightning ran down the door-casing, tearing it off and striking the girls, who had just ran there and clung together through fear of the terrible flashings.

An adjourned meeting of the American State Council is to be held at Geneva on the 24th of August. The Auburn Union states its objects as follows:

"It is to be held for the consideration of all questions involving the principles and policy which are probably within the purview of the order, but more particularly for the purpose of consulting in reference to the nomination of a State ticket, to be supported at the ensuing election.—This will be an important meeting, and upon its results, we believe, hang the fate, not only of the American, but of the Republican and Democratic parties in the State. The Americans hold the balance of power, and as they shall vote with one or the other of the parties, so will go the election of State officers."

The ladies of Milan are exhausting their ingenuity upon pleasant combinations in their dress of the tri-color. A white bonnet, with a profusion of blue berries, green flowers and rh [illegible], is rather trying to some complexions, but they are plentifully worn. The more credit is due to the pretty Milanese for thus sacrificing the becoming to the patriotic. Nor is this good disposition confined to the ladies. A tawny little girl, the attendant on a couple of itinerant musicians, says a letter, came collecting coppers last evening from the persons sitting outside a café. She, too, would not be behind the times, and her begging-box, fresh painted, was gay with the tripple tint.

A young lady up town was cured of palpitation of the heart the other evening by a young M. D., in the simplest and most natural way imaginable. He merely held one of her hands in his, put his arm round her waist, and whispered something in her left ear.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

It is through inward health that we enjoy all outward things.

A second crop of oats has been raised this season in the vicinity of Fort Smith, Arkansas.

The laborers on the Erie Railroad dock at Piermont have struck for wages and stopped work.

Mr. A. D. Richardson, the Kansas correspondent of the Boston Journal, who accompanied Mr. Greeley to Pike's Peak is at Cincinnati.

Mr. La Mountain, who is still at Watertown, expects to make an ascension in a balloon thence on the 27th inst.

The daily war expenses of France are estimated at 3,000,000 francs, of Austria at 1,200,000 florins, or each at about $600,000.

An English paper states that "a sheep gave birth to a lamb in Cambridge, lately, belonging to a widow lady with six legs and fine wool all over her head."

A letter from Pike's Peak says that gambling and whiskey-drinking flourish there extensively. Tanglefoot whiskey sells for 25 cents a drink, and "it will almost make a man shed his toe nails."

A French soldier of the Voltigeurs, who in the battle of Solferino had his right epaulet shot away, and the right leg of his pantaloons pierced, writes home to his mother that "the enemy didn't wish to do anything to him but what was right."

Mr. Eugene Fuller, of New Orleans, and for a long time news and commercial reporter of the New Orleans Press, was lost overboard from the steamer Empire City, on her last trip to Havanna. Mr. Fuller was a brother of the celebrated Margaret Fuller, Countess d'Ossoli.

A young man said recently, in rather a pert way, to the Rev. Dr. C.——, "Doctor what is the difference between this puseyism they talk so much about and puppyism?" "Why," replied the doctor, "puppy-ism is founded upon dog-matism, and pusy-ism on the cat-echism."

Curry, the murderer, whose sentence has been commuted by Gov. Morgan to imprisonment for life, passed through Rochester on the 14th on his way to Auburn State Prison. The Rochester Union says: "The man did not act like an insane man on the cars, and so far as his sanity can be judged of by appearances, he is as sane as the most of people doing right and wrong in these days."

The proprietors of the Detroit and Milwaukie Railroad have authorized the erection of a force pump and convenient troughs in a building near their depot in Detroit, for the purpose of accommodating passengers with gratuitous ablutions, where they may bathe and clense themselves with pure and refreshing water, after a long ride in the cars. Dressing rooms are are soon to be added.

The morning after the French occupation of Milan several journals that had been suppressed by the Austrian government, re-appeared. One had been suppressed five years, and in the last number had promised the "conclusion" of a story in the next. True to promise, the next, at the end of five years, took up the story where it had been left off, and concluded it.

The Petersburg Express says the following is a letter recently received by a clergyman in that city, through the Post-Office:

"Riverent, sir, I forbid the Bands of Marriage between Edwoord Bluitt and Mary Ann Howell the reason is he is under age, and she Have got a husband alive and she went away from him; He is in Carralina, and she is with her unkell, so you cannot Marry them sir, and Dursent."

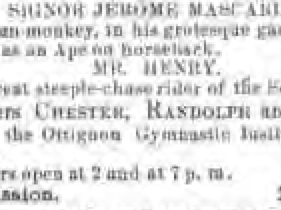
THE GROVER & BAKER



Sewing Machine Co.

having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made, that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE

ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

BEFORE DINNER.—Our subscribers will receive the HERALD to-day before dinner. ARREST ON A CHARGE OF FRAUD.—We learn from the Buffalo Republic that three enterprising business men of that city were arrested on Monday, charged with fraud by Trumbull Cary Esq., of this village.—The parties names are James Sully, Erastus H. Cross and Wm. M. Moulton; who, according to the affidavit of Mr. Cary had together co-operated in procuring a bond and mortgage on property, and selling the same to him, representing the same to be the first lien on the premises, whereas, another mortgage pre-existed, and was known to exist at the time of the sale to Mr. Cary.

Mr. Sully who sold the mortgage to Mr. Cary is said to be a highly respectable real-estate agent well known in Buffalo.

The parties were locked up to wait examination.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

LECTURES FOR THE FIRE SIDE, by the late Dr. Wm. A. ALCOTT, is a neat volume of 336 pages, written in the true humanitary spirit which characterised all the writings of Dr. Alcott. The scope of the work may be gleaned from the fact that it is the substance of a course of Lectures or conversations with a Bible-class, first delivered in Boston, and subsequently in other places. It is written in a plain familiar style embracing much thought and careful study. Dr Alcott was an eminently useful man, and his works are such as will live after him.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 19.

The Secretary of the Interior has understood the act of March 3d, 1859, making appropriation preliminary to the 8th census, appointed Mr. Joseph C. G. Kenedy to take direction of the work.

It is a well ascertained fact, known to the Indian bureau, that very many of the Indian disturbances are justly attributable to the encroachments of the whites on the reservations set apart for the Indians by the government, the whites once having obtained possession, there is no way the U. S. Military force, to dispossess them, and sometimes in consequence of their remaining unlawfully on the soil; new treaties have to be made with the Indians who are thus continually harrassed in their affairs.

Owing to the inadequate number of Indian agents, and considering the wide extent of country over which the Indians are scattered, it has been found impossible in every case to carry out all treaty obligations in time to impress the Indians favorably by an exhibition of our good faith and prevent dissatisfaction arising from unfulfilled pledges. The present Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Mr. Greenwood, who is thoroughly acquainted with the Indian character and has always practically showed a warm friendship for them, will, it is believed, recommend to the consideration of the next Congress, such measures as will lead to the carrying into effect of all our treaty obligations, for the fulfilment of many of which no appropriations have yet been made; and this is especially the case as to those with the Indians of the State of Oregon and the territory of Washington.

From Arizonia.

WASHINGTON, July 19.

Private advices from Tucon, Arizonia, dated July 5d, states that Peschiera had arrived at Hermosillo, and announced his intention of driving all the Apaches north of the line, with the Sonora battalion.

The revolt of the Yaqui and Apopta Indians seemed suppressed, but another had broken out in the northern part of Sonera, and a band of 450 men under a Passage Indian Leader, were creating damage.

It is expected that Lieut. Mowry and Edward E. Cross, the latter editor of the Arizonian, would fight a duel on the 5th of July. Lieut. M.'s grievance is an abusive letter concerning him, communicated to the State newspaper in this city.

The Indians in Arizona continued their depredations, and volunteers were in pursuit of them.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the medical loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT [illegible] what it claims to do—no more no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. It is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, we [illegible] Fathers [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt. For all testimonials and directions see circular.

ACUTE PACKAGE, $1.00; CHRONIC $2.00.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment in trying it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am advised that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

An Active Remedy in Consumption,

as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as [illegible] a Preservative as Vaccination is to Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of thirty-five cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and [illegible] under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of Nerve Force, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system."

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a facsimile of signature.

No others can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, [illegible], or three bottles for [illegible], with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution, sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 43 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also circulars and all possible information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

JOB PRINTING, OF ALL KINDS, EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE WITH TASTE AND DESPATCH.

A Fourth States Prison.

It appears that the necessity of a fourth States Prison in this State is advocated by some parties, to provide for the wants of criminals, and some of our cotemporaries are seting up claims for the location. The Advertiser at Elmira thinks that place would offer a convenient location, as the home patronage would nearly support one. The Le Roy Gazette on the other hand thinks Le Roy would afford a better atmosphere and more stone for the purpose of building. It is a little queer that these editors should be so anxious to have an establishment of this kind so near at home.

THE PEACE.—The London Daily News in discussing the tun of events in Italy, says that the just hope and expectations of Italy are deceived. It adds, history will call the Emperor to a strict account for having made war on false pretensions, and signed a mock and selfish peace—a peace that leaves Austria impregnably fortified in Northern Italy—that connects Central Italy to the patronage of the Pope, and to the constant mennace of military invention on the part of the Pope's patrons and protectors—that takes no account of the welfare of the people, and substitutes for national findependence a confederation under lock and key of Austrian garrisons.—The Emperor of France has sown the seeds of future wars, and the closer we examine the pretended pacification the more futile and iniquitous it appears.

A chap calling himself Dr. Samuel Hankinson, was recently arrested in New York for practicing a swindle, in pretending that he could transmute base metals into gold and receiving money for it. He advertised the manufactured article at $18 per pound, guaranteeing it to be equal in quality to California gold and saleable to Jewelers for $115. Strange as it may appear, this man received thousands of letters, enclosing sums of from $5 to $100, for this base metal. How wide avarice opens the door for gulability.

The North Briton reports Icebergs in great numbers on the Eastern Coast, which no doubt have much influence over the changableness of the weather this season.

SOME ON BABIES.—A Mrs. Rush, a "widow" woman living in Milwaukee, has recently been delivered of three children at one birth. This makes the third time she has violated the natural law of fecundity.—Exchange.

The poor lone widow "does things with a Rush." Her being a widow is we think, accounted for by the fact that being overbearing in her ways, her husband was unable to live with her.—Statesman.

The mistery seems to be that being a poor lone widow, where does she get the babies?

The frozen well at Brandon, Vt. has attracted crowds of savans to that place this season. Scientific persons in that vicinity ascribe the phenomena to an iceberg, and that originally, or at some remote period in the long past, that part of America was the head of the sea. This hypothesis is sustained by the fact that several years ago, in building a railroad between Clarmont and White River Junction, the terminus of the Sullivan Railroad, the bones of an arctic whale were found on one of the highest points of land. All the land near the well is frozen at a depth of a few feet below the surface. An interesting scientific report on the subject is understood to be forthcoming.

SCHOOLMASTERS.—Mr. John S. Fosdick has been appointed Principal of one of the Chicago schools at a salary of $1,200 per year. We are not informed as to his acceptance. Mr. M. J. Oatman (formerly of Batavia) has been recommended by the Superintendent of the Schools at Cleveland for the Principalship of a school in that city.—Buffalo Express.

A pin has as much head as a good many authors, and a great deal more point.

To Make Little Ones Healthy.

We have read much about the education of the young, and have heard many sage remarks about the importance of education. But do not people think too much of mental, and too little of physical education? We think they do. Children now-a-days, must go through a regular course of hot house forcing, commenced too, before their minds are properly prepared to appreciate their exalted privileges, and before their bodies are at all fitted for the constraint and constant depleting powers. Rather defer all education a few years, and prepare both body and mind to undergo the necessary demands upon them. Until such time don't keep them caged up like canaries, or shut in the house like plants, until they become thin and pale. Take off their finery, put on substantial garments, and let them run in the dirt if they wish to—make mud pies, and dabble in the sand. Turn them out, boys and girls, let them romp, and snuff the pure uncontaminated air of heaven. They will be all the happier and healthier. Let them get tanned, who cares. Leather must be tanned before it is fit for use, and boys and girls must go through a health-giving process, to fit them for the school-room and for active duties of life. Do this with your children and they will be longer-lived, and better props and supports for your declining years.—Utica Advertiser.

The Manchester (N. H.) American has the following bit of personal gossip: "Seven years ago an English boy of 17, a stranger, engaged to work for us at type-setting, with which he had an indifferent knowledge. He was John Bull all over, persistent, stubborn and industrious—setting type by day and reading law in Riddle's building at evening. Some eight months passed, when he told us confidentially that a fortune was due his family in England from the recent decease of an uncle. His father was poor and aged, and he himself, was the only claimant who was able to look after it. The next week he took passage for Liverpool. It was two years before we heard of him. Then he returned jolly and radiant with a fortune for himself and family of over $60,000. We were anxious for an explanation of the strange success of the almost penniless adventurer. "Pluck and Pam" had done the work. He applied to the Foreign Secretary, and showed that persistence and courage which won him the influence and advice without which his efforts would have been utterly useless.—He is now a thrifty young lawyer in Wall street, and would knock down any Englishman who should dare disparage the old British premier."

WHEAT HARVEST.—The Detroit Daily Advertiser of Saturday says there is now about to be marketed at this point one of the heaviest crops, of the best quality, of wheat ever raised in the State of Michigan. Samples already brought in surpass any we have ever seen before, East or West.

In Wisconsin the harvest will be garnered in all this week. Samples of the new crop, indeed, are already on Change in Milwaukee. The berry is large and well filled.

At the close of last week, a gentleman who passed through Canada, on the line of the G. W. Railway, reports that wheat was being cut along the line of the road, and that farmers were expecting more than an average crop. Spring grains, also, with the exception of a few fields of oats, gave promise of an abundant yield.

OMITTING TOO MUCH.—A green, good-natured, money-making, up-country fellow who said everything drily, "got things fixed," and struck up a bargain for matrimony. Having no particular regard to appearances, the parties agreed to employ a not over-wise country justice to put on the tacking. He commenced the ceremonies by remarking that "it was customary on such occasions to commence with a prayer, but he believed he would omit that." After tying the knot, he said "it was customary to give the married couple some advice, but he believed he would omit that. It was customary too, to kiss the bride, but he believed he would omit that also." The ceremony being ended, the bridegroom took the justice by the button-hole, and clapping his finger on his nose, said: "Squire it's customary to give the magistrate five dollars—but I b'lieve I'll omit that!"

The latest advices from Utah state that a movement is on foot among the Mormons to abandon Polygamy. It is becoming exceedingly unpopular. The women find the views of their "States" sisters differing materially upon the respectability and virtue of such alliances; and many who doubtless embraced the system conscientiously, are from the same motives, with experience added, forsaking it, while a greater number who have been "counseled" into this practice, are fast throwing off the shackles of priestcraft, abandoning their liege lords, and boldly returning to their former homes, habits and names.

Some descendant of Solomon has wisely remarked that they who go to law for damages are sure to get them.

JOKES ABOUT JUDGES.—A Judge having fallen asleep, the president of the court, who was taking the opinions of his brethren, asked him for his.—

"Hang him! hang him!" said the roused sleeper.

"But it concerns a meadow!" returned the surprised president. "Mow it! mow it!" cried the other. There is a somewhat similar story extant of a Scottish judge, who, having been asleep, waked up just as the counsel pleading happened to say, "Now my lord, there is a lien on the property,"—"If there is a lion on the property," interrupted the somnolent judge, to show that he was attending to the case, "decidedly it ought to be chained." But here is the last story of the kind we shall offer. A young judge, newly appointed to an inferior court having had a cutpurse before him, was told that the criminal should be condemned to lose an ear.—He accordingly drew up the sentence himself, and next court day, proceeded to read it: We have condemned and hereby do condemn the said criminal to have his ear cut off."—"Which ear?" asked the prisoner sharply. The Judge taken by surprise, replied, touching one of his own ears, "Why, this one."—"Very well, very good," said the criminal; "I shall not appeal; and what is more I will cut it off myself, if you like!"

GEORGE W. HINCKLEY, a lawyer has been serving out a term of imprisonment in the Madison County jail. During the period of his incarceration, he had served upon him a notice to set aside a judgment he had recovered in the Supreme Court.—Mr. Hinkley opposes the motion raising this knotty question, whichb will probaly traverse the Judicial branch of government, before it is settled:

"That an attorney in jail by law is shut up from the business of the world without, and thereby precluded from attending Court, and during his imprisonment was temporarily dead; and serving notices of motion on an attorney thus situated, was equivalent to making use of the dead to judicilly rob the living, which deponent believes is irregular, illegal, unconstitutional and void."

NOT BAD.—The following story, from the New York Evening Post, is one of the best "childish views" we have seen for a long while:

A young woman was examining a class in Sunday school; bowing to a lad of large size, she put the question, "Who made you?" He could not tell. She then asked a little lad, who replied, "God made me." She proceeded to reprove the overgrown boy for his inability to answer a question, which was so readily done by one not half his size; when he braced himself up pompously and said, "I should think he might know. 'Taint but a little while since he was made."

THE WRONG BOY.—A country schoolteacher, preparing for an exhibition of his school selected a class of his pupils, and wrote down the questions, which he would put to them on examination day.

The day came and so did the young hopefuls, all but one. The pupils took their places, as had been arranged, and all went on glibly until the question came for the absentee, when the teacher asked:

"In whom do you believe?"

"Napoleon Bonaparte!"

"You believe in the Holy Catholic Church, do you not?" asked the teacher.

"No!" said pupil, amid roars of laughter, "the boy who believes in the church hasn't come to school to-day; he's home sick a-bed."

Father Finatti, Catholic clergyman of Brooklin, Mass., finding that his entreaties to his parishioners to stop the selling of liquors to be of no avail, has caused three of them to be prosecuted under the law, and on Tuesday they were examined before a Justice of the Peace, who passed the usual sentence of fine with twenty days in the House of Correction, from which they appealed to the Superior Court. Father Finatti was in Court, and stated that for three years he had used every means to induce the Irish to refrain from selling liquor.

The most distinguished man living in Christendom probably in his line of business, is one Johannes Schlottenbeck, aged 68, living at Markheidenfelt, Bavaria, who is the father of 36 children half boys and half girls. It has taken three mothers to raise this abundant family, the last of whom, still living, has given birth to 18 of the children.

In New York, a sign immortalizes a "Fashionable Tailor" by adding, under his name, "Children's made to order;" what they mean is a mystery, unless we think to substitute "clothing" for a patent piece of carelessness perpetrated by the painter.

A WHOLE TRAIN LOADED WITH APPLES.—Fifteen cars arrived at Norfolk on Friday, over the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad, loaded with apples from the adjacent counties. This immense quantity of fruit was shipped on Saturday evening in the various steamers for New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The news of peace is fully confirmed, but no further particulars had transpired beyond the fact that the Princes of Tuscany and Modena are to return to their states.

Napoleon was on his way home and was expected in Paris on the 18th, when further details will be afforded. In his address to his soldiers he says that peace was concluded because the contest was about to assume proportions which were no longer in keeping with the interests France had in the war.

The Emperor of Austria was on his way to Vienna. He says in an order of the day that he yielded to the unfavorable political situation because his natural allies did not as expected come to his assistance.

The result of the treaty is generally distrusted in England.

The Sardinian Minister had resigned, and Count Arese had been charged to form a new Cabinet.

Count Cavour is reported to have resigned, on account of the terms of peace being unsatisfactory.

Mr. Wm. E. Burton, of New York has had three persons arrested, on a charge of libelling him by drawing up a statement accusing him of trying to induce one of them, who was the gas man of his theatre in Broadway, to burn that establishment down, in order that Mr. Burton might get the insurance money, to cover his alleged heavy losses. Strange case this. The parties accused waived examination, and gave bail in $500 to answer at Court.

Gen. Robert B. Campbell, United States Consul in London, who presided at the Fourth of July celebration in that place, is among the oldest living graduates of the South Carolina College, although his name has the obituary mark in the general catalogue of the college. He was formerly a Representative in Congress from the Pee Dee District.

According to the latest London papers there is reason to believe that Mr. Cobden is not unlikely to be appointed to the important office of Governor-General of Canada. Such a proposition has been discussed in high quarters, and it is said that when the opportunity for putting it into motion arrives, Mr. COBDEN will be prepared to accept the honorable responsibility it will impose upon him.

An exchange remarking upon the weather says: "Really, this is hot weather! A lady started for town the other day with a basket of eggs and a pan of butter. When she arrived in town, her basket was full of half-grown chickens, and there was nothing in her pan but a little sour milk, a lock of red hair, and a quantity of rock salt."

A laboring man in the interior of China can live comfortably on food costing one cent per day. A contemporary says:—We should like to live in China. Many of our subscribers think it costs us less than that sum to live in this country.

It is a remarkable incident that the 15th of August, the day on which the Armistice just concluded is to terminate, has always been kept as a holiday in France, it being the day upon which the Great Napoleon was born.

A pretty girl attended a ball on the 4th at Oshkosh Wis., decked off in short dress and pants. The other ladies were shocked! She quietly remarked that if they would pull up their dresses about the neck as they ought to be, their skirts would be as short as hers!

An exchange says:—The report that a charcoal wagon exploded yesterday, killing the driver and one horse, needs confirmation.

"ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859,"—This handsome volume, written by Madam Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed. The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has travelled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official reports of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garibaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogizes its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application.

FIRST SERIES.

With a Biographical Introduction by

DR. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE.

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"We have read Mr. H. S. Brown's 'Lectures' with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown knows how to speak to 'the people.' He has almost every qualification for it, if we may judge from his printed address. There is no maudlin sentimentality about him; but all is healthful as the breeze on the hill. There is no clap-trap; he is both too honest and too earnest for that.—There is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vice, nor any effeminate apologizing for it, but a wise Christian man's righteous hatred of it, who knows how to look on those who are sin degraded as his brethren. He speaks to the people almost as one of themselves, only from a higher level; and, though he uses their daily phrases, yet he does not thereby pander to vulgarity.—He has a happy acquaintance with our homely common-sense proverbs, and employs them tellingly. There is no affection of extraordinary 'concern for the poor' or their 'souls,' but there is that real manly concern which can afford to dispense with profession, and to express itself chiefly in calm but brave and sensibly earnest endeavours. The proverb, 'Much cry and little wool,' you may reverse in his case. His true desire to benefit the people is partly shown by the pains with which he collects and prepares the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, &c., in order that his well-marshalled facts may preach to the understanding. The genuineness of his earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulness with which he toils along the highway of common sense. He has no recourse to reckless, undiscriminating charges, and is too strong for exaggeration. Truth is enough for him; would that this were no distinction! While he faithfully touches the worst vices, yet you never feel that the censor himself must have a coarse taste or prurient imagination. These Sunday afternoon lectures are not 'sermons,' nor intended to be. In them he grapples with acknowledged evils; but still, while opening the eyes of the people to the real nature of much of what their daily life too often is, and showing what it might be, he is never ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, chargeable with even seeming to let them go away with the impression that anything else, and not the kingdom of heaven, is the first thing to be sought. In Mr. Brown we have a man who, we should judge, can afford to go where any classes of God's creatures are domesticated, for he is strong, and his strength is holy."—Monthly Christian Spectator.

Wyoming Co. Agricultural Society.—We have received from E. G. Babbitt, Secretary of the Wyoming Co. Agricultural Society, a neatly printed Pamphlet containing the Constitution, By-laws and list of officers of this Society, together with the premiums for 1859. We judge from this pamphlet that the Society is in a highly prosperous condition; printed at the Warsaw Mirror office.

A Great Improvement.—We see the Central Railroad Co. is filling in the sunken lot east of the Depot, between the Central and Buffalo N. Y. and Erie tracks, which will be not only a great improvement in the appearance of the vacant grounds about that building, but will add much to the convenience of those who drive to and from the cars. To move so much earth from a distance as is required to level up this piece of ground is decidedly a heavy undertaking, but with twelve or fifteen car loads at a time, the chasm is made to grow gradually smaller and beautifully less.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Further News by the Europa.

The papers were mainly engaged in speculation upon the sudden conclusion of peace and its results.

Letters from Paris assert that French discontent prevailed there in regard to the terms of peace and the result of the war, though the peace itself gave general satisfaction.

The Siecle, the organ of the French liberals, is dissatisfied, and says France will have everything begin in a few years if minutest Austrian influence is suffered an abode in Italy. It calls for the expulsion of the petty Italian Princes, the confederates of Austria.

The Emperor Napoleon had quitted the seat of war and was en route for France. He is expected to proceed direct to St. Cloud and defer his entrance into Paris till he make it at the head of the army.

The Emperor and King of Sardinia arrived at Turin on the 15th amid enthusiastic acclamations. They were met by Prince Caridnan and Count Cavour.

The Emperor of Austria left Verona for Vienna on the morning of the 14th. His order of the day published at Vienna 12th says that Austria commenced for the maintenance of her sacred treaties, relying on the devotedness of her people, and bravery of her army and on her natural allies. Not having found allies, Austria yields to an unfavorable political situation.—The Emperor cordially thanks the people as well as the army who have again shown that their sovereign may confidently rely on their devotedness, if any new struggles should arise.

The interview between the Emperors at Villa Franca is said to have lasted nearly the whole day.

The Paris Moniteur publishes a proclamation by the Emperor, announcing to the soldiers the bases of peace. It is to the following effect:

The principle aim of the war is obtained, and Italy will become for the first time a nation.—Venetia, it is true, remains to Austria, but she will, nevertheless, be an Italian province, forming part of an Italian province, forming part of an Italian confederation. The union of Lombardy with Piedmont, creates for us a powerful ally, who will owe to us its independence. The Italian government which have remained inactive or which have been called back into their positions, will comprehend the necessity of salutary reforms. A general amnesty will obliterate the traces of civil discord. Italy henceforth will be mistress of her destiny, will have only herself to accuse, should she not progress regularly in order and freedom. You will soon return to France; a grateful country will there receive with transport those soldiers who have raised so high the glory of our arms, at Montebello, Palestro, Turbigo, Mygent, Malegnano, and Solferino; who in two months have freed Piedmont, and have only stopped because the contest was about to assume proportions no longer in keeping with the interests of France in this formidable war. Be proud, then, of your success—proud of the results obtained—proud, especially, of being the well-beloved children of that France which will always be the great nation so long as she shall have heart to comprehend noble causes, and men like you to defend them.

(Signed.) NAPOLEON.

Vallegio, July 12th.

The preliminary conditions of the treaty of peace are thus announced in the official Austrian correspondence:

Austria and France will support the formation of an Italian confederation to which Austria accedes, Lombardy as far as the line of the Mincio is to be given up. Mantua, Peschiera, Burgoforte, and the whole of Venetia.

The Prince of Tuscany and Modena are to return to their States. A universal amnesty is to be granted.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says these applications were made to the Emperor of Austria before he would consent to the armistice. The overtures were made direct to Napoleon for the purpose of preventing the mediating of neutrals. The same correspondent says the Pope was burned in effigy at Milan, and that a very unfriendly feeling had sprung up between Napoleon and Victor Emanuel. The Moniteur of Friday contains the following:

Brescia, July 11.

The Augsburg Gazette alleges that the cause of the armistice was the existence of a dangerous malady in the French army, but to this we can give a formal denial. The sanitary state of the French army was excellent, and exceeds even the hopes which could be entertained, from the heat and fatigue endured.

The King of Sardinia had issued the following proclamation to the people of Lombardy:

Heaven has blessed our arms, with the powerful aid of our magnanimous and valiant ally, the Emperor Napoleon, and we arrived, in a few days after victory upon upon victory, at the banks of the Mincio, and to-day I come back among you to tell you that Heaven has granted your wishes. An armistice, followed by preliminaries of peace, assure the people of Lombardy of their independence.

According to your desire many times expressed, you will, henceforth form with an ancient state one single and free family. I take your destiny under my directions, and hope to find in you that concurrence which the chief of a state needs in order to create a new administration. I tell you people of Lombardy to trust in your King. Established on a solid and imperishable basis he will procure happiness for a new country which Heaven has entrusted to his government.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and vascular inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of maladies, [illegible] with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new. It is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own homes without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these dread ills, will receive the Dr's system of Health Rules and perfect chart of care, which will be to them a true pilot star through life.

War.

The world has witnessed about enough of the inhumanity of warfare in the sanguinary contest now waging in Europe, and begins to cry out against a further prosecution of the inhuman slaughter.—What a comment it is upon the civilization of the age, that the visible rulers of the world can hold the people under such subjection, that they may be called out,—one portion of the same country against another—to stand and shoot each other down by thousands! Is there not a hope for humanity above the condition of things presented in so dreadful a spectacle? Read the accounts of the slain and wounded upon the battle field of Solferino, and the horrible inhumanities to which the poor dying creatures were subjected in gathering them together for care and treatment—how like beasts the bodies of men were pitched into pits when the life that made soldiers of them was extinct!

What an exhibition of humanity this, for the nineteenth century of christianity? What has the world been doing, that it has reached no higher plane than the battlefield, and seeks yet the justification of murder at wholesale, while the individual act that takes away life is punished with the gallows?

The world has always been educated to regard Rulers as necessary—that mankind must be governed. So deeply is this principle implanted in the constitution of society, that from the smallest official to the King on the throne each assumes power to th extent of his jurisdiction to govern, and the people yielded, and they who yield the most submissively are deemed the nearest right. We find this principle everywhere in religion, in societies and institutions of all kinds. This is so here as well as elsewhere—we, a people boasting of our freedom in all things, are the verriest slaves on earth. Let an opinion go out from any one of the great sources of intelligence that assumes to govern, and the people submit. The right of conscience is denied just so far as the power exists to crush out free thought. We have our governors in church as well as state.

The war in Europe is waking up the world to its condition of subserviency, man is aspiring to something grander, nobler than to be made soldiers of to rush at death at the command of one man.

We do not advocate the overthrow of government as the world is now, but we do contend for a relaxation of rule, that shall let men think and reason for themselves. Every individual man must learn that he is his own governor, and that he must govern himself—that he must reason out the problem as to the best means for the accomplishment of this end, and that he is held only responsible to a government external to himself, when he fails to do this, and conflicts with the rights of his neighbor.

Man never grows intellectually or morally, any more than physically, from external force; therefore government fails to confer on the race of man any actual good, it is only a protector, a palliative not a remedy. When man shall learn to govern himself, and be permitted to do so, then Kingdoms and Empires will crumble down, and the needs of War and Government will cease to exist. Where is the man who thinks and reasons, that would voluntarily place himself upon the battlefield, where is the right to place him there against his will?

They have many good personal qualities even in Austria. Here is one almost good enough to obtain a passing favor from the New York Times. In Austria no one can receive a license to marry unless he is able to subscribe his name with his own hand to the certificate. A very good law.

The Buffalo Commercial suggests for the benefit of citizens of neighboring towns the following as a remedy to keep off mosquitoes:—Olive oil one ounce, Kreosote twenty drops, mix and annoint the parts exposed.

The Rochester Union advises as a substitute Buffalo gin, and guarantees that the mosquitoe that attempts to take blood from the man who has drank the gin, will die instantaneously.

We would advise mosquitoes if they have the least regard for prudence to keep away from both Buffalo and Rochester. The editors of those places are maliciously disposed towards them.

SHOCKING MURDER IN WILLIAMSON—GREAT EXCITEMENT—THE MURDERER FLED.—On Thursday the 14th inst, two men, Jeremiah Demelt and Thomas Dunlap, the latter being intoxicated, got into a dispute and after some altercation Dunlap struck Demelt on the head with a club felling him to the earth and fracturing his skull. Demelt died on Monday last. On Wednesday Coroner Palmer held an inquest, the post-mortem examination being conducted by Dr. S. A. Sabin, of Palmyra assisted by Dr. J. Brant, of Ontario. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by a blow or blows inflicted by Dunlap, on the head with a club. The murderer has fled, but it is thought that the officers in pursuit will soon be able to arrest him. This Dunlap has been known for a long time as a desperate character, it being rumored that he previously caused the death of two men in drunken fights. The deceased lived in the same house with Dunlap, in the town of Williamson. They were about fifty years of age. Great excitement prevails in the community. The murderer is supposed to be in the woods near the scene of his crime.—Pal. Cour.

A Milan correspondent of the Boston Atlas and Bee says: "At the chateau of Cavriana was a lady with two sweet children, who were carressed and received sweet-meats, in the morning of the 25th from the Austrian Kaeser, and in the evening from the Emperor Napoleon! Do not, however, suppose that these brilliant successes blind the eyes of the people to the cost at which they are bought. 'Two more such victories, and the army is horse du combat,' said a French soldier,—and when we consider that out of about 14,000 men, which the official organs acknowledge, Marshal Niel's corps alone lost 6,000 men, Baragua d'Hilliers' 4,850, and others less severely, the remark is not without its point. You will recollect too, what I have written as to the state of feeling here towards the French. 'We shall dance to French music, after all,' said a gentleman in a cafe near the Duomo."

The Italian editors are heard of again. The morning after the French occupation of Milan, several journals that had been suppressed by the Austrian government, reappeared. One had been suppressed five years, and in the last number had promised the "conclusion" of a story in the next. True to promise, the next, at the end of five years, took up the story where it had been left off, and concluded it.

We see by the papers that an exciting race for $25 a side, recently came off at the Poughkeepsie ferry dock, across to the Paltz Landing, in tubs, four feet in diameter, without oars; the vessels were paddled by hand. The river was smooth, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the contestants started. Both men struck out manfully, until two thirds of the distance had been passed, when one had given up from exhaustion; the other, having more bottom, came in an easy winner in two hours and fifty-five minutes. The vanquished man was towed ashore.

THE TIDE OF EMIGRATION.—The Omaha Nebraskian states that up to June 25th, one thousand eight hundred and seven wagons, twenty hand-carts, five thousand four hundred and one men, four hundred and twenty-four women, four hundred and eight children, 1,610 horses, 406 mules, 6,010 oxen, and 6,000 sheep, had crossed that ferry this year exclusive of the Mormon emigration. The Elwood (Kansas) Free Press says that since the decline of the Pike's Peak travel forty teams have crossed the Missouri River at that point per day—the teams carrying an average of five persons each.

THANKING PROVIDENCE BY RESOLUTION.—The farmers of Dauphin County, Penn, recently held a Harvest Home, at the conclusion of which three resolutions were passed; the first, thanking Providence for the good crops; the second, thanking the Committee of Arrangements and the Railroad Company; and the third thanking the host and hostess of the occasion.

The N. Y. Saturday Press says that in this country there is less moral and mental independence and more fear of Mrs. Grundy than in any country in the world.

Funeral of Hon. Rufus Choate.

BOSTON, July 23

The funeral ceremonies over the body of Mr. Choate, which took place at the Essex street Church at 11 o'clock this morning, were attended by a large crowd of sympathizing citizens, Gov. Banks, the Judges of all our Courts, representatives of the entire Massachusetts bar, the Mayor of the city, the members of the various branches of our municipal government, together with the family and immediate friends of the deceased, filed the church in every part, so that thousands of citizens were unable to gain admittance. The funeral sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Adams, pastor of the church. At the close of the service the hearse proceeded towards Cambridge through Boylston and Charles street, a large procession following the remains to the bridge. So impressive a funeral pageant has seldom, if ever, been witnessed in this city. Mr. Choate's remains were interred at Mt. Auburn.

Perugia Massacre----Battle of Solferino.

NEW YORK, July 23.

The Evening Post has seen private letters which state that the massacre of the Papal troops, at Paraguay, had created an intense excitement in Milan, and on the 2d of July, the Pope, Cardinal Antonel and Col. Schmidt were burned in effigy on the Plaza d' Armi. It is said that 3,000 soldiers had repaired to Bologna to protect that city and support the Provincial Government.

The news of the battle of Solferino created as great sensation at Naples as elsewhere, and the young King despatched a messenger at once to congratulate the allies.

It is further rumored that an envoy extraordinary would be sent to him to form an alliance with the Sardinian government.

A PROFITABLE ORATORIO.—The great Handel Festival recently held in the Crystal Palace near London, was something like an entertainment. The receipts fell not far short of $140,000. Deducting expenses there would still be a balance of $90,000. The receipts on the last day, when "Israel in Egypt" was given, amounted to very nearly eighty thousand dollars. This, of course, is entirely without precedent in the history of public performances.

The new fashion of cutting boys' hair close as to make their heads look like a shoebrush, is said to have its origin in the "Hyer law" of the prize ring. Young America bristles about in a comic way—his crown singed within half an inch of his scalp, and his moustache flaring out like that of a sick kitten.

Some learned newspaper editor out West says "that the simplest way of calculating the distances of heavenly bodies, is the rule laid down in John Phœnix's celebrated lecture upon astronomy, viz: guess at one half the distance and multiply by two."

The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, of July 11th, gives in the full returns of the different auctioneers appointed to sell the immense property belonging to the M Donogh estate in that city. For the quarter ending June 28th, 1859, the total amount of sales foot up the handsome figures of $3, 810, 300 14.

An anvil block was cast in England, which, when finished, will weigh 21½ tons. The quantity of metal melted for it was 23 tons, and it was cast in one run. It is to be used in the making of the "—Armstrong" guns.

Mr. T. Vansant, of Kent County, Maryland was last week engaged in thrashing wheat by steam. The Kent News says: A gentleman who has witnessed its operation informs us that it works admirably, and expressed the opinion that in time it will be more generally used. It requires two feeders and about thirty hands, and thrashes and fans from six to eight hundred bushels per day.

The number of emigrants arrived at the port of New York for the week ending July 20, was 1,892, making a total of 44,870 since the commencement of the year, against a total of 42,888 for a corresponding period in 1858.

The Kalida Sentinel, in summing up an article in regard to productiveness, says:—"Taking the prospects altogether, if we starve to death during the present year, it will be because prosperity will have made us too lazy to eat."

Samples of new wheat are coming in from various parts of Canada West, indicating an abundant crop and excellent quality. The weather is very favorable for the growing crops.

An extensive mail robbery was perpetrated at Kalamazoo on Tuesday. The bags were taken to the woods and all the letters opened and money abstracted.—There must have been carelessness on the part of the officials.

Our Natural Boundaries.

We should be surprised to learn that the following story, in the New Hampshire Patriot, is from the pen of ex-President Pierce.

Captain ——, of the United States navy, was equally distinguished for his eccentricity of manner and his proficiency in seamanship. On one occasion, during a cruise in the Mediterranean, he so acquitted himself as to induce some English and French officers, who were engaged upon similar service, (cruising,) to tender him a complimentary dinner, as an evidence of their appreciation of his professional skill. At the time designated, many were present. Customary courtesies were being exchanged, and international toasts and sentiments were being liberally indulged in, accompanied by corresponding potation, when one of the officers in her Majesty's service having become somewhat oblivious, remarked, with characteristic brusqueness:

"Captain, I have but one great objection to your countrymen."

"Ah!" naively said the captain, "what is that?"

"An insatiable desire for the acquisition of territory." Then becoming excited by his subject, he continued—"I am satisfied captain, there will be no end to it."

"Oh. yes," quaintly and coolly replied the captain.

"For goodness' sake when?" emphatically inquired the officer.

"When," responded the captain, preserving his equanimity, "we reach our natural boundaries."

"Will you please inform me where those may be?" interrogated the English officer, sarcastically.

"Where!" said the captain, assuming an inimitable manner, "from h—l to the Aurora Borealis!"

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I KNOW that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

LOCAL MATTERS.

We are requested to call attention to the fact that a party of young men, by their noisy conduct in the Streets last night, reflected seriously upon their parents who allowed them to contract habits of idleness and otherwise failed to bring them up in the way they should go.

LECTURES FOR THE FIRE SIDE, by the late Dr. WM. A. ALCOTT, is a neat volume of 336 pages, written in the true humanitary spirit which characterised all the writings of Dr. Alcott. The scope of the work may be gleaned from the fact that it is the substance of a course of Lectures or conversations with a Bible-class, first delivered in Boston, and subsequently in other places. It is written in a plain familiar style embracing much thought and careful study. Dr Alcott was an eminently useful man, and his works are such as will live after him.

THIS MORNING'S REPORT.

Arrival of the North Briton.

VERY IMPORTANT NEWS.

THE WAR CONCLUDED!!

Lombardy Transferred to the King of Sardinia.

AUSTRIA RETAINS VENICE!!

The Italian Confederation under the Honorary Presidency of the Pope.

FARTHER POINT, July 24

The steamship North Briton from Liverpool 13th inst, arrived off this point at a very early hour this morning.

Her dates are four days later than those already received.

Among the passengers by the North Briton is Cyrus W. Field, who has accomplished the object of his visit to Europe.

The Paris Moniteur gives the following explanation of the circumstances attending the armistice between France and Austria:

The great neutral powers exchanged communications with the object of offering their mediation to the belligerents, whose first act was to be an armistice, but the endeavor to bring about this result was not successful until some days ago, when the French fleet was about to begin hostilities against Venice, and a new conflict before Verona was imminent.

The Emperor of France, faithful to his sentiments of moderation, and anxious to prevent the useless effusion of blood, did not hesitate to assure himself whether the disposition of the Emperor of Austria was conformable to his own. It was a sacred duty for the two Emperors immediately to suspend hostilities, which mediation could render objectless.

The Emperor of Austria having shown similar intentions, the armistice was concluded.

The two Emperors had an interview at Villafranca on the morning of the 11th.

The Emperor of Austria was accompanied by Generals Hess, Gramme, Kelner, Kollonstein, Roweng, Schletter, and others of his staff.

TURIN 11th.

An official bulletin published the text of the armistice. Besides the articles already known, it is stated that the belligerents will keep the positions they now occupy. The railways to Verona, Peschiera and Mantua may, during the armistice, be used to carry provisions to those fortresses.

Peschiera and Mantua are being provisioned, and the provisioning of Verona will be completed in two days. The works, offensive and defensive, of Peschiera are to remain in their present state.

The convention is signed by Marshal Valiant, and General Martinfrey, Delarocca and Mesrloff.

The Emperor Napoleon has issued the following order of the day:

VALLEGGIO, 10.

Soldiers—An armistice was concluded on the inst, between the belligerent parties, to extend to the 15th of August.—This truce will permit you to rest after your glorious labors, and to recover, if necessary, new strength to conclude the work which you have so gloriously inaugurated. I am about to return to Paris, and shall leave the command of the army to Marshal Valiant, but as soon as the hour of combat will have struck you will see me again in your midst, to partake of your dangers.

The Times' Vienna correspondent says that it was believed there that the British Government had brought about the armistice.

Another authority says that the Prince Regent of Prussia took the initiatory in suggesting the armistice.

The Vienna Gazette says of the armistice, that an authograph letter addressed by the Emperor Napoleon to the Emperor of Austria, led to the negotiations, the result of which was a five weeks armistice.

A Verona telegraph despatch says that the armistice was concluded after repeated requests from the French, and after their consent had been obtained to all the conditions asked by Austria.

The gunboats destined for the bombardment of Peschiera have been launched on the Lake de Garda.

The Times' Paris correspondent says that the typhus fever raged in both the camps in Italy, and that 10,000 to 11,000 were attacked within the allied army.

It was said that Napoleon's plan for revolutionizing Hungary and Transylvania was disapproved of by Russia.

It was reported that Kossuth was to propose a monarchial government for Hungary.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH, FROM LONDON TO LIVERPOOL.

The result of the interview between the Emperor of France and the Emperor of Austria was the concluding of a peace.

The following is the telegram from Napoleon to the Empress, announcing the fact:

"VALLEGGIO, July 11.

Peace is signed between the Emperor of Austria and myself. The basis of peace are: The Italian Confederation, under the honorary presidency of the Pope; the Emperor of Austria concedes his rights in Lombardy to the Emperor of the French, who transfers them to the King of Sardinia; the Emperor of Austria preserves Venice, but she will form an integral part of the Italian Confederation."

The Daily News affirms that the first hope and expectations of Italy are deceived.

It adds—History will call the Emperor to a strict account for having made war on false pretences, and signed a mock and selfish peace—a peace that leaves Austria impregnably fortified in Northern Italy—that connects Central Italy to the patronage of the Pope, and to the constant menace of military intervention on the part of the Pope's patrons and protectors—that takes no account of the welfare of the people, and substitutes for national independence, a confederation under the lock and key of Austrian garrisons.

The Emperor of France has sown the seeds of future wars, and the closer we examine the pretended pacification the more futile and iniquitous it appears.

The Morning Post of yesterday contends that the soul of the treaty agreed upon is the nationality guaranteed, under every variety of local government, in a Confederation of the Italian States.

The Emperor of Austria is to be King of Venetia, solely as an internal member of the Confederation. He will rule less than 3,000,000 Italians, and will be controlled by a Confederation ruling not less than 26,000,000.

The Pope is shorn virtually of his temporal supremacy. He is deprived of substance, but keeps the shadow.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory disease, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sure cause of inflammation.

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] the New Medical Salt. [illegible] and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA—now removes all remaining doubt as to the invaluable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no consumptive delay a moment in using it. It is their best hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I KNOW that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Efficient a Preservative, as Vaccination is of Small Pox."

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it."

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful preparation of blood-known, and invariably efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $2,50, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution, sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of letter stamp to prepay on postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

The Armstice.

The intelligence from Europe yesterday by the North Briton presents the peace question in a double-and-twisted aspect.—It would seem that the Armistice is to result in something more than a temporary cessation of hostilities between France and Austria—if indeed the terms of peace between these two powers are not already settled. If it should result that they have concluded a peace the terms of which will be unsatisfactory to England, and that united, they will seek the subjugation of that Government, it will be a dear bought peace to the world.

With reference to the Armistice the Albany Atlas and Argus says:

"One of the apprehensions of England was that Napoleon would make a rapid campaign, a generous peace, a firm alliance with Austria, and would then turn his face towards England, strengthened by the alliance of all Continental Europe. If there is any groundwork for this fear, Prussia may share it.

These apprehensions and pertubations are natural. It is in vain that a voice from the French throne cries out "be not afraid; it is I!" The words are full of assurance; but the nations look up, and behold it issuing from the inscrutable countenance and Mephistophelean lips of him who but a while ago proclaimed his Empire to be that of peace, and who has never spoken except to deceive.

But even as we write, the intelligence comes that this war of false pretences had ended; that the temporary truce is changed into a permanent peace; that Napoleon and Joseph are allies. Europe will look on with fresh wonder for the next step in this drama!"

Old Books.

The Buffalo Express on old coins and old books says, "we were a few days since shown by John Howcutt, Esq., three very old books, in his possession. The first is a large Dictionary of Law Terms, first published in 1684, an edition of Livy of 1684, and the other a copy of the Laws of Edward the Fourth, of England, published in 1556. Another friend of ours has in his library "Boerhave's Treatise on the Powers of Medicine," published in 1740. This has some queer things of interest to the Doctors.

We think it would be interesting to the public to know what treasures of this kind our city holds, and we would suggest to the possessors of very old books the propriety of letting their good fortune be known. Who have the oldest MSS. and printed volumes in the city?"

If the editor of the Express will take a look out here, we will show him a work on Physiology and Pathology, Published in 1593; two hundred and sixty seven years ago. The "Aphorisms of Hippocrates," and also of Celsus, with portraits, published in 1708, a very rare and curious book. "Culpeppers Materia Medica," the first work of the kind ever published.—"Harvey's Lectures," demonstrating the circulation of the Blood, as originally delivered by him in London. The writings of Joannes, Baptista Morgagni, with a portrait, 1761, (folio) Albini's Anatomy with fine steel engravings and title page printed in colors, 1764, (folio). Hippocrates Great work on Medicine, printed by Froben, 804 pages exclusive of voluminous index, published at Basle in 1558, three hundred and one years ago, (folio). A volume of Comedies, with title page printed in colors, 1738. This book was once the property of James Hunter of London, and bears his private stamp (James Hunter, December 2d 1767) on a blank leaf. A "Treatise on the three digestions of the human body," by Edward Barry, in English, 1759. "The Medical works of Richard Mead," English copy, 1767, with engravings, containing a treatise on the "Plague," "influence of the Sun and Moon on Diseases" etc. etc.

Correspondence of the Herald.

A Trip to Michigan.

FRIEND McWAIN—

Dear Sir:—I write you from the southern and western bounds of Michigan; a distance from Batavia of about 350 miles, having been brought here by the iron horse in about 16 hours. Making but short halts at Buffalo and at a few intermediate stations between there and Cleveland, Ohio; where we took the Cleveland and Toledo Railroa; and soon by the stalwart strength of the restless puffing and steaming charger, we were again "running like lightning" over that fair country to Toledo, a distance of 112 miles. With the exception of a few lengthened black ash swamps, as we gazed from the open car windows, our eyes were feasted with the rich and increasing growth of the many products of the Farmer, as they stood growing and waving in their own majesty, upon the well cultivated fields, that dot, for the most part, this fair country. The corn crop, throughout this section is as high as your head; and all tasseled out and silking. The country presents a richness not unlike our own new bottom lands; and is capable of producing everything grown in this climate. The crops for the most part of the way from Cleveland to Toledo, and from Toledo to Hudson, Michigan, are at least a month in advance of our own. The oat crop is very abundant, and every where looks fine, and in many places being harvested. We saw but few fields of wheat on our way from Cleveland to Toledo, but oats and corn, potatoes and barley, and we were told sugar-cane—which, if we were rightly instructed, was of a lighter green than the corn, and in no possible sense had kept pace in its growth with the corn—but we were assured it was doing well, it being slower in its growth.

From Toledo to Hudson, a distance of 50 miles, we saw considerable wheat, as well as corn, oats, barley and other products, which seemed to hold out the promise, that plenty would crown the labors of the Farmer as the reward of his industry. The farms throughout this line of our journey look as if they were well husbanded and tilled to the best advantage by their occupants. The wheat and the oat crop are being harvested; and we are told that new wheat is already in the market from many parts of the State; and that the weevil has done but very little damage this year.

The grass in many parts of Michigan is good, though in this section they tell me they are only getting about half a crop or about one-half as much as they were enabled to cut last year. The frost of June and July also snapped his fingers here, giving his blight to many green leaves, tender plants, and budding fruit, but with less venom, far, than with us. But the Heavens have withheld their genial showers and the hot sun of this clime has parched the earth, and withered the grass, and dried up the streams and the wells; and drouth is fairly on them. The heavy dews alone, that begin to fall as the sun sinks away from the view, moistens the herbage and the grass—but as he peers up again from the east, he soon licks the dewy leaf, and drinks the moisture away from the thirsty land, and the pastures look barren and dry, while the cattle look gaunt, and lean amid the famine that their enclosures every where presents. A good soaking rain would be worth millions of dollars to this portion of Michigan to-day. May the heavens soon bend in mercy over them, and the lapped waters from the great deeps around this State be generously returned by the dripping clouds that have parted and fled, and wasted themselves elsewhere. Yours Truly

Rollin, Mich., July 22d, '59.

BLONDIN.—Had the newspaper press devoted as much space and made as frequent mention of some worthy object as it has of the exploits of this adventurer, a great good might have been developed for somebody, but as it is, the sum total is only—nothing.

PREMIUM.—The Editor of the Rural New Yorker, offers a Premium of $100 for the best ten acres of wheat harvested next summer, in this State.

Before you commit suicide take a bath. What people term despair is often dirt.

Rochester is again afflicted with incendiaries. On Sunday night no less than three fires occurred, two of which were supposed to be the work of the distructionist, doing damages to the amount of about twenty thousand dollars on buildings and merchandise.

The Buffalo Commercial says that about a week ago a German girl, fourteen years old, in that city, named Maurer, swallowed twenty-two needles. Dr. Stock was called and perscribed for her. The whole number passed through the process of digestion in a few days. What a stomach!

Passed through the bowels you mean, your refinement is vulgarity and spoils a fact, and tells a lie. Needles don't digest.

A writer in All the Year Round describes gout thus: Put your toe in the vice; turn the screw till you can bear the pain no longer, that's rheumatism. Give the screw one more turn—that's gout.

The above is the wit of the great London Surgeon, Abernathy who died in the early part of the present century.

The Tribune says that "Wednesday morning the tunnel of the Long Dock (Erie R. R.) Company was opened from end to end, letting daylight in upon the prospects of the Road as well as upon the workmen. The headings being through, the rest of the excavation can soon be made. Four months should see it done, and certainly by January cars should unload upon the margin of the river.

A man in active life requires 36 ounces solid food per day—say 9 ounces of animal and 27 ounces of vegetable—according to established scales of diet in the English and French army and navy regulations. Of food and drink, a man will consume about 1,500 pounds a year. Of course, many persons consume much more food, but this is the average estimate.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., July 25.

Dr. Day, under sentence in St. Joseph jail for an alleged kidnapping was rescued Sunday morning during a violent storm, and is still at large. Great excitement prevailed at St. Joseph on the announcement of his escape, and a pursuit was attempted but without success.

John Cobb, a young man of 18 was hung at Atlanta, Ga., lately, for shooting a wealthy libertine who had seduced his sister. Cobb was convicted and sentenced last year, but the feeling in his behalf was so strong that Gov. Ellis was induced to reprieve him for twelve months.

The Schenectady Star says: "We have heard it rumored that the Hon. Daniel E. Sickles is negotiating for the purchase of the residence of a certain legal gentleman in this city, with the view to take up his residence here."

SWIMMING THE NIAGARA.—A young man named Ford, a printer, swam the Niagara River below the falls on Thursday, and received a prize of $10. Two others went with him just for sport.

In the "theatre of war," says an exchange, it is desirable to take back seats. And yet how many pay dearly for a place in the pit.

HOW ITALY HAS BEEN GOVERNED.—The following item, which we cut from a contemporary, will serve to give an idea of the oppression which the wretched people of Italy have had to endure. Is it any wonder that they are goaded to madness, when, in addition to all their other burthens, every twenty families are compelled to support a Priest? If ever a country suffered from too much government that country is Italy:

The Italian States number about 27,500,000 inhabitants. The entire population, if we except 40,000 other Christians and 50,000 Jews is Roman Catholic There are 110 provinces, 10,102 communes, and nearly as many bishoprics as there are in all the rest of Europe. The clergy regular and secular, of both sexes, amount to 189,000, and as compared with the inhabitants, they are in the ratio of 1 to 142 In the Roman States there is 1 bishop for every 400,000 souls.

THE MICHIGAN WHEAT CROP.—In 1850 Ohio raised, according to the United States Census, 14,487,000 bushels wheat, and Michigan in the same year, 4,926,000. The crop of the present season in Ohio is estimated at 26,000,000 bushels, which would give Michigan about 9,000,000 bushels at the same ratio of increase.—Considering that Ohio suffered much more severely by the late frosts than Michigan did, these figures cannot be an over estimate. The reason of our taking Ohio as the standard of comparison is, that besides joining Michigan and greatly resembling it in many respects, in that State the operations of their statistical bureau furnish better data for estimates than any other. Calling the population of Michigan 800,000, and allowing five bushels to each individual and 500,000 bushels for seed, we shall still have a surplus of 4,500,000 bushels for export.

A Bogus Marriage.

IMPOSITION UPON A RESPECTABLE GIRL.—The Albany Times gives the particulars of an infamous imposition perpetrated upon a young lady in that city.—The dramatic personæ are a young law student from the East, of highly respectable and wealthy connections, a clerk in a hotel a third party whose occupation is unknown, and two young ladies, milliners by trade, of correct life and respectable connections, the young student became acquainted with, and as he pretended, enamored of one of the young ladies.—Some days since it was agreed to consummate the nuptials. All the parties alluded to joined in the occasion. The place selected for the wedding was Troy. To the St. Charles Hotel in that city, all the parties repaired.—The third gentleman spoken of represented the character of a Notary Public or Commissioner of Deeds, and as such claimed to be authorized to perform the ceremony, a belief in the validity of which claim was easily imposed upon a young and artless girl. The wedding being concluded, the parties returned to Albany, and the wedded pair at once entered upon their honeymoon.

A few days since the bridegroom left the city, as he said, to visit his parents and home. The wife remained to await his return, when he was to take her thither.—Since then nothing has been heard of him.—The suspicions of the wife are aroused as well they may be. She already has become conscious of some of the imposition practiced upon her, and fears that in every respect she has been abused and deceived. If, as there is now every reason to believe a base fraud has been practiced upon her, what punishment should be measured out to the villains who have been parties to it?

"Pray, don't attempt to darn your cobwebs," was Swift's advice to a gentleman of strong imagination and weak memory, who was laboriously explaining himself.

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRES

"We have read Mr. H. S. Brown's 'Le with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown kno to speak to 'the people.' He has almost qualification for it, if we may judge fr printed address. There is no [illegible] mentality about him; but all is healthfu [illegible] on the hill. There is no clap-tr is both too honest and too earnest for There is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vi any effeminate spoliation for it, but Christian man's righteous hatred of knows how to look on those who are [illegible] ded as his brethren. He speaks to the almost as one of themselves, only from a level; and, though he uses their daily yet he does not thereby pander to vulga He has a happy acquaintance with our common sense proverbs, and employs th lingly. There is no affection of cultiva 'concern for the poor,' or their 'souls;' b is that real manly concern which can af dispense with profession, and to express chiefly in calm but brave and sensible endeavours. The proverb, 'Much cry an wool,' you may reverse in his case. Hi desire to benefit the people is partly sho the pains with which he collects and p the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, order that his well-marshalled facts may to the understanding. The genuinenes earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulne which he toils along the highway of sense. He has no recourse to reckless criminating charges, and is too strong aggravation. LET US HAVE WATER.—It has been suggested to us that an Artisian well sunk in the hill north of this village would supply water sufficient for the wants of this village. Is the experiment worth trying?

IMPROVEMENTS.—The Western Hotel is having a new story added to give more room for the increasing business which that house is receiving. We are glad to chronicle the prosperity of MR. NORTON the worthy proprietor, which requires him to tear down and build bigger.

ACCIDENT.—A Mr. Hubbard of Albion accompanied by his wife, while coming into this village this morning, his horse took fright in crossing the Railroad track and ran, throwing them both out, injuring Mr. H. somewhat about the head and face, but not dangerously. The Buggy was stove, and the horse escaped.

We are indebted to the publisher, H. W. D. Brewster, of Rochester, for a consolidation time table of the New York Central Railroad. It contains valuable miscellaneous matter, pertaining to the Central Railroad and all its branches, both by rail and steamboat.

LIVERPOOL, July 16.

Richardson, Spence & Co. note favorable weather for the growing crops.

Two hundred soldiers, fifty of whom were Swiss, revolted on the 7th at Naples, and left Port Carmish for the purpose of arousing other troops to revolt, in which they failed.

On arriving at the Chap de Mars, all the Swiss and native troops who remained faithful, met them with a discharge of artillery, and forty insurgents were killed and disabled.

The Turkish steamers Ollistria and Kars are reported lost—the former with 350 passengers for Constantinople, 77 of whom perished.

The Turkish crew assassinated and plundered the christians during the salvage.

The Kars had 300 passengers from Constantinople, and had not been heard of.

The Persians were said to be actively preparing in anticipation of war with Turkey.

INDIA AND CHINA.

The Calcutta mails of June 3d, and Hong Kong of May 21st, had reached England.

The Indian government was said to have decided to permit all European troops who might desire to receive their discharge and a free passage to Great Britain, thus removing all ground for complaint.

It was expected that thousands would avail themselves of the offer. The Rebel force was gradually diminishing.

WASHINGTON, July 25.

From information recently received in this city, it appears that some of the Southern Representatives, while claiming to be opposed to the re-opening of the African slave trade, pledging themselves to introduce in Congress a bill repealing all the statutes upon the subject, leaving it, as they profess to desire, to the regulation of the several States, as the Constitution confers on Congress the power to prohibit the trade, and as death seems to be regarded as too severe a penalty for violating what some consider merely a law regulating commerce, it is thought that others who are opposed to the slave trade will agree upon a measure with a view to make the prohibition and abolition more effective by the certainty of punishment otherwise than capital, and thus they think that good will result from the present agitation of the question.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhœa or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these dread ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a lone polar star through life.

Improvements About Town.

There are few places, this year, that exhibit more enterprise in works of improvement than may be seen going on in our village to-day. It is but four years this summer since the first stone sidewalk, for any considerable extent, was laid. This was along the north side of Main street where most of our wealthy citizens reside. At the time, the project was deemed by many an unnecessary and burthensome expense. One year's experience, however in the comfort of a clean stone walk was sufficient to prove to all its practical advantage over plank or gravel, and determine the Village Trustees to lay a broad handsome walk on the south side of Main street also. Last year Jackson-st. was made to share the work of improvement in the laying-down a stone walk from Main st. to the Depot, on the west side and at the present time workmen are engaged in placing one upon the east side of that street also.

The improvements of private individuals are scarcely less marked. Among the most noticeable works of this kind which attract the eye, no greater change has been wrought out by a liberal expenditure of money than that on the ample grounds surrounding the residence of JOHN FISHER, Esq., near the upper end of Main-st. A large conservatory with walls of heavy masonry is now being completed but of which we cannot speak particularly as we have seen it only at a distance. The gentle sloping grounds are handsomely laid out, and ornamented with works of art open to the view of all, a constant school for the cultivation of refinement in taste for every passer by.

Mr. LECLEAR, recently from Buffalo, is finishing a handsome house, unique in its style of architecture, on the south side of Main-st. Mr. LECLEAR is an Artist and indicates his genius in the style of his house.

E. S. Dodge has the last year put up a very elegant brick dwelling, also on the south side of Main-st., next to the beautiful residence of Mrs. BERGER, which was completed last summer.

GEORGE BRISBANE, has improved his premises this summer in grading the grounds, and laying stone walks, planting trees etc.

ELDER JAYNES is now completing the fifth house, we believe, on Bank-st., which he has put up within three years, all of which are genteel two story dwellings adding greatly to the beauty of the street.

GEORGE KNOWLS is also erecting a house on Bank-st. Several other houses are being built on this street, the owners of which we have not learned.

On Summit-st. M. H. BIERCE is finishing a neat cottage. This street has recently been much improved, principally at the expence of Judge TAGGART and H. I. GLOWACKI, Esq.

ALVA SMITH is putting up a pretty two story cottage on Centre-st near Main.

A number of new houses are this year being built on Mechanic-st. one by TRUMAN HURLBURT and the other by GEORGE KENYON.

RICHARD LAY has recently commenced a house on Jackson-st.

SETH WAKEMAN, Esq., is now completing various improvements on his premises, also on Jackson-st.

MR. PIERSON, down by the Mill, has much improved the appearance of the premises about his handsome house built last year.

We notice a formidable looking staging being put up on the corner of the Presbyterian church on Main-st., from which we conclude that the tower is to be rebuilt. It will be remembered that this Church had been but a short time completed, when on the night of the last Presidential election the tower was blown off. We conclude from the appearance of material that it is the intention this time to carry the stone work up and thus not only complete the architectural design of this handsome edifice, but also provide against the mishaps of election winds.

The Western Hotel, of which we spoke a few days since, is begining to show its proportions in the addition of a third story.

The hand of improvement has been, or is now visible in various other places about town this year, but we believe the above embraces all the works of special importance, and we question whether any of our cotemporaries in surrounding towns can give so respectable a list of improvements as we have here chronicled.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—This Sterling Monthly maintains, or rather grows in interest and popular favor. It is rapidly educating the public mind to a higher taste in periodical literature, creating an interest in that which instructs and forms the mind which is stronger and more abiding than that taste which seeks only amusement. The prominent features this Month are an article on the "Dramatic Elements in the Bible," "Birds of the Night" an article on the "Italian War" and the ever entertaining "Professor at the Breakfast Table." Phillips Sampson & Co. Boston.

A BRAKEMAN KILLED ON THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—George Fowler, brakeman on the Central Railroad was killed last evening about seven o'clock as the train was leaving Rochester. He stood upon the rear car behind which was a locomotive and by a sudden slackup was thrown off, the locomotive passing over his chest arms and head killing him instantly.

At 12 o'clock Tuesday night an attempt to burn a Wagon and Blacksmith shop was frustrated by the vigilance of a watchman in the vicinity, who discovered the flames just after they commenced to rise, So says the Rochester Democrat.

We learn from the Rochester Democrat that the police of that city have in custody William Sullivan, who it appears quite certain was the author of the fire at Hough Corris & Co.'s building Monday night.

THE GRASSHOPPERS.—These pests of the farmer are very abundant in many sections of this State, and are doing much damage. They are ravenou fellows, not only eating up every green thing, but making a dinner of the farmer's jacket, if he happens to leave it in the field, and on a pinch eating up the sunny side of his board fences. We cannot imagine but one thing that they were made for, and that is as food for turkeys. There is a sort of sense of retributive justice, which makes the farmer feel comfortable, as he lets his drove of turkeys into the field swarming with grasshoppers and sees them gobble them down by the thousand. But, then again, turkeys are a nuisance on the farm, for every other purpose but eating grasshoppers.

ALL THE YEAR ROUND.—It is a curious fact that for the past twelve months there has been more or less frost in each month. On the night of the 25th of last August there was quite a heavy white frost, and in the next and the following seven months there were of course, many frosts. In May last we had several frosts, at least two in June, and the frost on the night of the 4th of the present month, makes the year complete. In this region, however, the Summer frosts were not heavy enough to do any serious damage. Probably there has not been another instance of frosts for twelve successive months, since the year of the cold Summer, 1816, in which there was a frost every month of the twelve, and the weather so cold as to destroy the corn crop.

MR. C. M. CLAY AND HIS BIRDS.—Mr. Clay calculates that the birds visiting his 30 acres of fruit and pleasure grounds destroy not less than "22,460,200,000 caterpillars and various insects in one year. Figures, it is true, cannot lie, but those who make them can greatly err: as I think Mr. C. has in this case. These caterpillars, insects, etc.' moderately well packed, would hardly require less than a cubic inch to every hundred; and, at this rate, would cover, to the depth of one foot, something more than three acres of ground. Thirty-six acres they would cover one inch in depth, and make a pretty fair spread over 400 acres. That Kentucky is as fertile as this would seem to indicate, I can hardly believe. Mr. C.'s plea for the birds, however, is good; and it is hoped may contribute to their preservation.

There is a fear of famine in Mormondom.—The wheat crop is said to be a failure. The grasshoppers and crickets are also doing great damage to all vegetation. Fears of a scarcity of provisions next winter are entertained.

Saratoga Springs.—A delightful village, noted for its unrivalled mineral fountains and the great number of its clergymen, so-called doctors, and—women of leisure and pleasure.

Sixteen cases of sun-stroke occurred at Cincinnati on monday, nine of which proved fatal.

The President is expected to return to Washington, from Bedford Springs, in about a week.

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT

TO ALL WANTING FARMS,

A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTHEAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAMDEN & ATLANTIC RAILROAD NEW JERSEY.

An old estate consisting of several thousands of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the Middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of $15 to $20 per acre, the soil is of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vineyards and Peach orchards planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET

as the reader may perceive from its location, is the BEST IN THE COUNTRY.

Produce bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price than the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here the settler has many advantages He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle states, he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand. He can buy every article he wants at the cheapest price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reversed,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown. The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place, good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings & improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown into the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt meet persons, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held on refusal.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, the Railroad Co. gives a Free Ticket for six months, and a half price Ticket for three years.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON.

In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in this place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of Agricultural implements or Founderies for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, as it would effect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthl literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land: leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia, for Hammonton by Railroad, at 7½ A. M., or 4½ P. M. Fare 90 cents. When there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better stop with Mr. Byrnes, a principal, until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landis & Byrnes, Hammonton P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or S. B. Coughlin, 202 South Fifth street, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished. 6m-1

Denslow's New Religion
IN MEDICINE!

The times have chang'd, since Denslow found
The use of Roots and Herbs,
Were hyge'ne on, more truthful ground,
And Ills of Life disturbs:
It was in olden times, 'tis said,
That Poisons held the cure—
And patients then, were surely bled,
To drain off bloo : impure;
'Twas then, when Ills in fury ran,
The Patient was reduc'd—
And on his back depletive flung—
By Alopaths seduc'd!
'Twas then, that Nature had no aid,
And Science was her foe—
While Ills the suff'ring forms pervade,
And Poisons were the go!—
'Twas then, that Scientifics taught,
That Poisons would transform,
Each Patient, who, with Ills were fraught,
And rout disease by storm!—
'Twas then, they taught, if Poisons cure,—
'Twas changing Ills for it—
When Nature was, most always sure,
To make hyge'nic fit!
But now, Botanics ev'ry where,
Teach quite reverse of that,
And use such aids as will compare,
With Nature's sure combat!
Then Nature in her promptest flow,
Demands the Roots and Herbs,
To aid her to a healthful glow,
When fell Disease disturbs.
And People all, should know the where,
To get those kindest aids,
To build up Nature blooming fair,
While health their forms pervade!
And faith—its "Denslow in the rear,"
Who has them all on hand,
As fresh as from the Earth they peer,
Or in the forest stand!
There, all can get the Native Cures,
Which grow on ev'ry Farm,
That depurates, and health secures,
Without the least alarm!
He has these Plants in compound form,
Made up with propper skill—
And Composition, too, that's warm—
In Powder, or in Pill!—
In Syrups, too, for great and small,
That's powerful and right—
And Drops that makes the sweat to fall,
And show disease a fight!
He asks no odds of any man,
In getting up a sweat,
And with his Physopathic plan,
He'll cure a Nervous fret!
Oh, ye that would the Truth receive,
And practice honest right,
And thus to self prove faithful live,
Do not Botanics slight:
For in these Herbs, there's teeming life,
That points to all alike,
With such recuperative strife,
That fell Disease, 'twill strike!
'Tis God who perpetuates them all,
Imparting well its Cures—
And hence, the Devil would forestall,
What He to us secures!
But Denslow waits, a chance to tell,
His Majesty the right,
Which hath to Demons ever fell,
And blaz'd to them its light!
Yet when he sprung from again,
He'll fire a louder gun!—
And scatter Fogie's Logic train,
Beyond the setting Sun!

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"We have read Mr. Hu. S. Brown's 'Lect with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown knows to speak to 'the people.' He has almost e qualification for it, if we may judge from printed address. There is no maudlin s mentality about him; but all is healthful as breeze on the hill. There is no clap-trap is both too honest and too earnest for tha Ther is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vice, any effeminate apologizing for it, but a Christian man's righteous hatred of it, knows how to look on those who are sin de ded as his brethren. He speaks to the pe almost as one of themselves, only from a hi level; and, though he uses their daily phr yet he does not thereby pander to vulgarit He has a happy acquaintance with our ho common sense proverbs, and employs them lingly. There is no affection of extraordi 'concern for the poor' or their 'souls;' but i is that real manly concern which can affor dispense with profession, and to express chiefly in calm but brave and sensibly 'ear endeavours. The proverb, 'Much cry and l wool,' you may reverse in his case. His desire to benefit the people is partly shown the pains with which he collects and prep the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, &c order that his well-marshalled facts may pr to the understanding. The genuineness of earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulness which its toils along the highway of co sense. He has no recourse to reckless, un criminating charges, and is too strong for aggeration. Truth is enough for him; wo that this were no distinction! While he f fully touches the worst vices, yet you never that the censor himself must have a coarse or prurient imagination. These Sunday a noon lectures are not 'sermons,' nor inten to be. In them he grapples with acknowled evils; but still, while opening the eyes of people to the real nature of much of what t daily life too often is, and showing wha might be, he is never ashamed of the Gospe Christ, chargeable with even seeming to them go away with the impression that thing else, and not the kingdom of heaven, the first thing to be sought. In Mr. Brown have a man who, we should judge, can afford go where any classes of God's creatures domesticated, for he is strong, and his stren is holy."—Monthly Christian Spectator.

New York, July 28.

A correspondence has taken place between Mr. Moran, of the Erie Road, and the agents of the Transportation lines, which removes the only obstacle to the rising of the rates on the four great transportation routes.

The match race between the schooner-yatch Restless and sloop Rebecca, from Newport light to Throg's light buoy, resulted in favor of the Restless, which beat the Rebecca 12 minutes. The start was at 9:15 yesterday morning, from off the Newport, with a strong breeze from the southeast. The wind continued dead ahead during the whole race, making it a dead beat to windward during the whole time—28 hours and 35 minutes.

CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND
LIVER PILLS.

We beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of Liver Complaints, all Bilious Derangements, Sick Head-Ache, &c. In cases of

Fever and Ague,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

Fleming Brothers,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill; has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflamation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unballanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurise, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizing the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 25 MAIN STREET,

([illegible] Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least one thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflamation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new. It is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the first instituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO. and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

Let the Sick Read.—The Boston Scalpel, a medical publication says: Dr. Herrick's Sugar Coated Pills, made at Albany, N. Y., appear to be the pill of the world. Dr. H. makes no secret of their compound; he furnishes all physicians in good standing with the receipt of their ingredients, and with the Pills, sugar coated, by the pound. DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of Liver Complaints, all Bilious Derangements, Sick Head-Ache, &c. In cases of

Fever and Ague,

preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

Fleming Brothers,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS, Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros, Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

HAS NOW RE-FITTED IN A VERY splendid manner the SALOON next door east of Mrs Darrow's Millinery Store, where he will prosecute the above business in all its branches.

He will keep a general assortment of Toilet and Fancy work, and execute to order such candies and ornamental designs as is demanded for parties of pleasure and Festivals generally.

He flatters himself that his mechanical ingenuity, and long experience in his business will enable him to give to all general satisfaction.—Having been to much expense in getting his establishment in readiness, and making his place attractive—he earnestly solicits a liberal patronage from the town and country.

He will also keep Ice Cream flavored to the taste of the most devout epicure—and hold himself in readiness to entertain his customers with the luxuries of his Saloon, and to make his place a fashionable resort to all who desire Delectables.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try it; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is. As it is not a Patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one should fear to try the New Medical Salt. For aid testimonial and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgy pains in various parts of the body, pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred, cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade. To protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co. the first constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO. and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

Dr. H. makes no secret of their compound: he furnishes all physicians in good standing with the receipt of their ingredients, and with the Pills, sugar coated, by the pound. CELEBRATED

VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of Liver Complaints, all Bilious Derangements, Sick Head-Ache, &c. In cases of

Fever and Ague,

preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

Fleming Brothers,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is

As this is not a Patent Medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one should fail to try the New Medical Salt.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,
(2d door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption,

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgy pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred, cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflamation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO. and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND
LIVER PILLS.
WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to
DR. CHAS. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.
We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:
THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.
THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of
FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.
As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.
Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,
FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to
FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.
P. S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. Things as They Are.

Every man's view of the world and of human life, depends upon his position and his education. Our conception of men and things is often as limited and circumscribed as is our vision of the outer world upon which we live and move. There is as wide a space between men's thoughts as there is between their places of residence.

It is impossible for an American to think like a Frenchman, or a Russian like an Englishman; even in the same land men think differently; how unlike is the northern and the southern. Each man, as each nation, has his individual characteristics, and it is a mark of infinite wisdom in the Creator that he has made us as we are.

These differences in mankind are a necessity, it could not be otherwise, for every condition of the moral world must be supplied as well as in the physical, or else the universe would not be complete. Manhood can only be attained through infancy, and the tree, through the young shoot and the saplin; so in the moral world—infancy, or imperfect development must be the course through which a life bordering on perfection can be reached.

How unwise it is then for men to quarrel about these differences of condition—to feel and act as though all men should come down to one individual standard—to find fault with them, or charge them with wrong in case they do not think and act as we do.

It is a blessed thing that we don't all think alike, and all men know and feel that it is so, for were it not, we should all gather together in one spot or try to; we should desire the same objects, and all try to do the same thing, the consequences of which would be not only serious but comical.

We must be unlike, and measurably differ in opinion, so as to be repellent to keep us apart that we may scatter over the world and in seeking out our tastes develop its resources and ourselves. There is no other way and we must put up with it. It is hard no doubt for some to think that all the rest of the world is going astray, but such people will have to suffer. God has made us as we are, and it will do no good to complain or find fault with Him or his children—the world is as it is, and the wisest man in it could not make it much better.

SPECIAL PROVIDENCE.—The following bit of theology is attributed to a correspondent of the New York Times:—"That Napoleon I was raised up by God for the accomplishment of some great purpose, which was never fully completed is now allowed by all parties. His endeavors to thwart God in respect to a heir, and to raise up a dynasty to his throne when God had most effectually said that there should be no heir by causing Josephine to remain childless after her marriage with Napoleon, brought upon his head the anger of God, and his fall was sure and certain. Now what is most singular, is the fact that God has raised up a Bonaparte, who is also a direct descendant of Josephine, to finish the work God gave Napoleon to do, and which he might have completed himself but for his iniquitous divorcement of Josephine."

It would seem a pity that after God had created Napoleon I, that he could not control him, to work out the special mission for which he was designed, and therefore the world has been made to suffer these many years. If this doctrine is true we loose our faith in Providence altogether.

Miss Florence Nightingale is so extremely ill that worst results are apprehended. Her strength is diminishing sadly. She has been moved from Highgate to London, but is now confined to her room.

Prospect of the West Paying its Debts.

The pacific character of the news from the seat of war has given entirely different phase to the Western crop question. The following article from the Chicago Democrat of Wednesday—the editor of which is a director of the Galena and Chicago Railroad—written previous to the announcement of the armistice between France and Austria, has additional pertinence now that high prices for grain in Europe appear more remote:

It being almost certain then, that prices are too low, the question occurs, will the producers send their wheat and other grain forward at these low rates? The unwillingness of farmers to sell at low rates is proverbial as it is natural But the present crop of grain and the hogs and cattle to be made from it cannot be held long in the hands of the grower. It is owed to the East and it must go there at some price. The time has come when land bought at $15 per acre on credit, with wheat selling in Chicago at $1 70 per bushel, must be paid for with wheat at 50 or 75 cents per bushel, or the the land go back to the seller. Much land will no doubt thus go back, and many railroads built by land grants will see many millions of debts unpaid. Besides this, all the goods supplied by the East and consumed by the West must be paid for.—Once in New York, the grain must be sold; and the most probable course of trade will be a fall in prices sufficient to enable the United States to compete with cheap grown European grain. In such a trade, the large profits with which farmers hoped to pay their notes and store bills, and from which railroads expect large earnings, disappear. The water routes will take the grain as the cheaper means of transportation; and the agricultural community of debtors must go through the disagreeable process of paying two bushels of wheat for a debt one was to cancel when it was incurred. The railway system of the West, built upon grain at two dollars per pushel, has now reached a point where its most severe trials commence. The business created by building roads has subsided, and affairs along their lines have been restored to their wonted quiet. Most of the roads have suspended dividends, while a large class have repudiated stock and bonds alike. By economy, pushed so far as to suspend necessary repairs, many roads have paid interest upon their mortgage bonds. Whether the majority of them can do this for the next year is still a matter of doubt. The whole country is richer in crops than was ever known, but there underlies the whole a mass of debts, made upon the inflated scale of 1859 and 1857, which requires all the skill of the debtor to manage.

RECAPTURED.—We noticed the other day the escape of a forger named Henry P. Baldwin, by jumping from the cars while they were going at the rate of forty miles per hour. We now learn that he was found in a field near Clyde hoeing corn for a living. What industrious chaps these rascals are when they have a mind to be.

TIMELY CAUTION.—The Utica Telegraph administers many wholesome truths in a funny way. The following good advise with regard to the use of unripe fruit is a fair specimen:—

"Children, have a care, and not overload your stom jacks with unripe fruit, and especially apples. This is the season when more danger is to be apprehended than any other. Old children, too, need to exercise caution. We would suggest that all persons not anxious to start a woodpecker's nest inside their ribs, to take Phleb's advice, and not eat more than a peck of apples at a time. Gentlemen should remember that Mother Eve got them all into a snarl once, with an apple, and they should be very careful how they meddle with such things, the apples we mean, not the Eves."

TO REMOVE A FILM FROM THE EYE.—H. Brown, Suffolk Co., N. Y., writes that a film may be removed from the eye of an ox or other creature, by filling a goose quil with ground ginger and blowing it into the deceased eye, repeating it several times in the course of a day or two. He adds, it should be done as soon as the film is discovered.—Exchange.

Very likely, but will it bring the deceased eye to life.

A letter has been received from Baron Larry, the Emperor Louis Napoleon's surgeon, in which he states that his horse was killed by a bullet, which had it not been intercepted, would probably have struck the Emperor.—Ex.

Baron Larrey was a Surgeon in the Army of Napoleon I and is not supposed to ride a horse, or write letters now.

Bayard Taylor goes out to California in the steamer of the 5th August, under engagement with the San Francisco Mercantile Library Society, to deliver four lectures in the metropolis of the Pacific.

The Late Rufus Choate.

Dr. Adams in the course of his sermon on the death of Mr. Choate gives the following incident, revealing the interior excellence of the man, such as the world is seldom permitted to know until he has passed away:

I have kneeled with him in prayer when a great sorrow was upon his heart.—I have stood with him as he leaned against the door and wept. Yes, I have seen him weep, and when he wept, you will believe that it was to me, and would be to any man, "a great mourning; as the mourning of Hadadrimmon."

His love of nature had a most interesting property, which theoretically, one might be tempted, without knowing the man, to say was not agreeable to the highest reach of sentiment. He loved nature chiefly in her utility. He was, in his own sphere, creator, and beloved things not only for themselves, but as creating. The ocean must have its ships and commerce to please him; it must report to him how it fills harbors, and estuaries, that he may love it supremely. Nothing was more poetical to him than that which he so often speaks of in his addresses—"the hour of labor."

A mechanic has with him Homeric.—The ringing of an anvil, the whirling of a planing machine, the factory bells, and wheels, and looms, were all of them to his mind impersonations of beauty. He would, perhaps, be more imaginative over a great wheat-field than on the solumn woods, so far was his mind from anything dreamy, or from being sentimental for its own sake. Yet when he was a boy, and drove his father's cow, and cut his switch as no boy in that capacity must fail to do, who would drive well, he has said that more than once when he has thrown away his switch, he has returned to find it, and carried it back and thrown it under the tree from which he took it, for he said, "Perhaps there is, after all, some yearning of nature between them still."

He had not walked far one morning, a few years ago, he said, and he gave as a reason, that his attention was taken by a company of those large, creeping things which lie on their backs in the paths as soon as the light strikes them. "But of what use was it for you to help them over with your cane, knowing that they would become supine again?" "I gave them a fair start in life, he said, "and my responsibility was at an end."

A minister, who took a deep interest in political affairs, once said severe and sharp things about him. His friends were moved with resentment, but Mr. Choate said, with evident grief and like a child, "I am disposed to write him a letter, and tell him that he is mistaken" Few things in him have ever touched me more than this incident, in view of all the circumstances of the case.

A CHURCH SEIZED WITH A BILIOUS ATTACK.—Last sabbath was Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church, and, as usual on such occasions, the sacraments was administer d. After the meeting adjourned, the members went their several ways, some to dine with friends in town, some to their homes in the country. In about an hour the doctors were in requisition in every direction; the whole membership was seized with a simultaneous "bilious attack," and the demand for remedial agents was general. The first smell of the sumptuous dinners prepared provoked sudden and involuntary eructation on the parts of all the orthodox members of the respective families. The venerable Peter Cartwright, Presiding Elder, for whom extra preparations had, of course, been made, retired from the prospect as dinner came on, a little bent, with both hands placed below his vest buttons, declaring that "he didn't feel like eating." One brother is said to have made for his house, half bent, and, with a groan, tumble on to the bed, and in reply to his wife's "what's the matter?" exclaimed in a despairing tone, "Oh! I've got the cholera." The epidemic spread all through the country, exciting considerable alarm, and occasioning a general casting up of accounts. But the panic subsided when it was ascertained that antimonial wine had been, by mistake, administered to the whole body of communicants! We understand that "Uncle Peter" said "it was the first time he ever knew an "attempt to vomit the devil out of the church."—Although it was a serious matter, the sinners, owing to the hardness of their hearts, did laugh.—Winchester (Ill) Chronicle, July 16.

AN EGG COOKED IN THE SUN.—The thermometer ranged as high as 90 degrees in the shade during a part of yesterday. How high it was in the sun we cannot say, but we ate an egg which had been cooked "hard" in the sun. Said egg was placed upon the roof of our office, and remained exposed to the direct rays of the sun for about two hours. When we broke it we found it cooked too "hard" for our liking—even the yolk being "hard"—nevertheless we ate it for the novelty of the thing.—Norfolk Day Book.

He that can compose himself is wiser than he that composes books.

BOSTON, July 26

The brig Bloomer at this port for St. Thomas, July 5th reports that the British mail steamer Berlin, of the Southampton line, went ashore on Anzula, July 26th, and bilged.

The U. S. Consul at St. Thomas was sick of yellow fever.

PERSONAL DARING OF THE FRENCH EMPEROR.—It is evident from the accounts we have of the battle of Solferino that the French Emperor did not flinch from the most imminent personal danger. Many of his attendants and Guards were killed and wounded around him, and it was believed by some of the Guards who surrounded him and who were wounded, that he received a slight wound on the shoulder from a rifle ball. Several of the Cent Guards, whose duty it is to take care of the person of the Emperor, and who are with him wherever he goes, were borne from the field wounded, and had their wounds dressed at a house where the editor of the New York Times was stopping.—They circulated the report that the Emperor had received a slight hurt.

VITALITY OF SEEDS.—Nearly two weeks ago the laborers employed under Mr. Quin in excavating for a sewer in South Fitzhugh st., came upon an old asparagus bed at the depth of eight feet from the present surface of the ground. The soil was thrown out of the ditch, and lay baking in the sun until last Friday, when the heavy rain moistened it thoroughly. A day or two afterward it was observed that a thick growth of weeds was springing from the long buried soil, showing that it contained seeds which must have lain dormant ever since the street was filled in. How long ago that was we cannot say, but it can scarcely be less than fifteen or sixteen years.—Rochester Democrat.

THE FORREST CASE.—In the case of Catharine N. Sinclair vs. Edwin Forrest Thursday, it was settled by the respective counsel of the parties that the defendant is to pay to Miss Sinclair $200 per month, and to give $1,500 for fees to her counsel. The defendant having produced the consent of Mr. Bradley, the present referee, to proceed with the case it was further ordered, that the proceedings before him be resumed on Thursday next.

An ingenious rascal posted himself by the railroad track at Moosup station when a Methodist excursion train was returning from Providence to Norwich, Ct., a few days ago, and as the ladies waved their handkerchiefs from the car windows, he reached up and caught a whole armful of them at once. He escaped with his plunder.

A letter writer says—"In Amsterdam I saw a queer looking fellow walking around dressed in black with a cocked hat on his head, from which crape dangled to his heels, with short breeches, knee buckles, and black stockings and a short black cloak, from the collar of which another roll of crape hung down to the ground Upon inquiry, I discovered that he was a death announcer."

OLD HEADS FOR COUNSEL.—The statement giving the ages of the new English Ministry, shows an average age of 55 years—the oldest being 80 and the youngest 36. This cabinet will hardly be charged with being "Young England," unless it is in its second childhood. The Premier is 75, the Chancellor 80, the Foreign Secretary 67. What would that "Red Tape" and "circumlocution" hamper English movements, when such old customers hold the helm?—Albany Statesman.

About the only person we ever heard of, that wasn't spoilt by being lionized, was a Jew named Daniel.

Foote expressed the belief that a certain miser would take the beam out of his own eye, if he knew he could sell the timber.

Sharp, of Sheboygan, challenges the world to beat him on cheap living, having subsisted for three days, last winter on a herring cooked over a lamp, and served up with an icicle.

An Explanation! Napoleon concludes an armistice and hastens back to France, because a rumor reached him in Italy that his Eugenie was surrounded with Parisites.

Lord Lyndhurst, whose recent speech in the House of Lords, showing the danger of England in the present state of European affairs, gave and such cause of uneasiness to the Ministers, is 87 years of age.

During the battle of Solferino Louis Napoleon alighted from his horse and fired several times one of the guns of his own invention which proved of such efficient service during the war.

Meeting of the Democratic Co. Central Committee.

We publish in another column the proceedings of the meeting of the County Central Committee at the Eagle Hotel on Wednesday last, for the purpose of organization and preparation for efficient action in the ensuing campaign. This Committee, composed of gentlemen residing in different sections of the county, was originally appointed at the County Convention of 1857, and collectively re-appointed in 1858. Since their original selection they have never organized nor convened as a body for any purpose, nor has any official action been taken by them, with the exception of the calling of the County Convention of last year. In that instance the call emanated from the Committee in the aggregate, the name of each being appended thereto. It will be observed that one of the members of the Committee, with characteristic modesty, having preliminarily "struck an attitude," assumed several exceedingly grotesque positions with reference to their proposed action.—Their intrinsic modesty of pretension, as well as the logical reasoning and deductions upon which they are founded, will be sufficiently apparent from the most casual examination thereof!

The first of the resolutions unanimously adopted by the Committee, fittingly expresses the nearly unanimous sentiment of the Democracy of the county, with reference to the disreputable character of the Genesee Weekly Democrat, under the management of the disorganizing clique of bankrupt political intriguers, into whose custody that paper has been recently transferred, solely for the purpose of promoting the unity and increasing the efficiency of the Democratic party of the County!

We incline to the belief, however, that the kindred attempt to transfer the Democracy of the county in the same direction, will be found to be an investment of a much inferior pecuniary value, and one much more embarrassing in the management of its various complicated details than trafficking and financiering generally in the "stock" of defunct Mutual Insurance Companies!

The "signs of the times" indicate that we shall doubtless have occasion to refer again to the action of the Central Committee at their recent meeting, and we shall avail ourselves of the opportunity then presented for discussing their proceedings and the circumstances connected therewith with more freedom and detail. We content ourselves, at present, with the expression of our gratification at their prompt organization thus early in the campaign, as furnishing a satisfactory augury of the zeal and energetic action which will characterize the operations of the Democracy of the county, in the support of their principles and candidates in the coming Canvass.

English Opinions of the Peace.

ISAAC BUTTS, Editor of the Rochester Union, now in London, writes of the war feeling in England as follows:—

The consequences of a French invasion constitute the theme of frequent and various speculation. Few, very few indeed, whom I have heard express opinions on the subject, speak of it with genuine English complacency. Almost everybody indulges in forebodings, more or less tinged with gloom, in case the French should earnestly set about invading England.—Indeed, one English gentleman, a large land holder in Lincolnshire, said to me he could not see what could save England from subjugation if Russia and France united against her. At the very best, said he, their combined assault would set England back half a century in her career, besides impairing her prestige for all time. Another gentleman, whose position and associations qualify him to speak intelligently on all subjects of public concern, said to me last evening that if the French ever effect a landing London would be almost certain to fall; and he added his opinion that in that event it would be given up to pillage! It is to be hoped that such opinions spring from an imagination somewhat disordered by apprehensions of the dreaded evil.

* * * * * *

Since my last letter I have traveled England from one end to the other (nearly) several times; taken a peep at some of her old cathedrals about which volumes have been written and to which I would hardly add a postscript; paid a brief visit to the both Houses of Parliament and seen much that it would do to write about. But I must not take up any of those subjects to-day. I have taken a furnished house till the 1st of September, situated in Blackheath, a beautiful rural suburb, five miles from London Bridge by railwaw. And here I shall remain the most of the time till the sailing of the Persia, September 3d. We propose to make a short trip to the Continent; but it will be only a short one. London is the great centre of interest in respect to all matters in which I feel most concern—I mean English or European matters of course. And hence my purpose to remain here—especially since I have established myself in an English "home."

Novel Gold Diggins.

By the late steamer from the Isthmus of Panama, we recieve accounts of the discovery of gold in large quantities in the Indian burying grounds in the Province of Chiriqui on the Isthmus. The Indians of Panama in early times understood the art of working gold to a considerable extent, mostly for ornamental purposes, and at death the trinkets owned by the person were burried with the body. People were flocking to these singular gold diggings at a rapid from Panama and in all probability, every Indian burying ground will be sought out and dug over in [illegible] two dollars per bushel, has now reache point where its most severe trials c mence. The business created by buil roads has subsided, and affairs along t lines have been restored to their wo quiet. Most of the roads have suspen dividends, while a large class have rep ated stock and bonds alike. By econo pushed so far as to suspend necessary pairs, many roads have paid interest u their mortgage bonds. Whether the jority of them can do this for the next y is still a matter of doubt. The wh country is richer in crops than was known, but there underlies the whol mass of debts, made upon the infla scale of 1850 and 1857, which requires the skill of the debtor to manage.

RECAPTURED.—We noticed the ot day the escape of a forger named He P. Baldwin, by jumping from the while they were going at the rate of f miles per hour. We now learn that was found in a field near Clyde hoe corn for a living. What industrious ch [illegible] with the head and ears of a lamb, only with an enormous mouth, and draggon like teeth, and weighs about two ounces. Number four is an idol of hideous and obscene conception, with legs and arms extended, the head flat, having a fan-like crown at the back, a wide open mouth and a hooked nose, under which curls something like the latest form of moustache. This was evidently one of the obscene gods which belonged to the Peruvians. This idol weighs about two ounces and is of fine gold. Besides, these there were a frog, an eagle, very small twin frogs, and an armadillo, and a small bell. The whole weigh over a pound, and were purchased by Dr. Otis from a person on the Isthmus at twenty dollars per ounce. The excitement growing out of these discoveries is represented as being very great throughout the Isthmus, and multitudes were leaving for the Chiriqui, in the district of Boqueron. One thousand persons were reported already at work in that region, digging for the newly discovered treasures. Several vessels were advertised to leave Panama. The place is some one hundred and fifty miles from that point.

Considerable excitement exists at Humbolt Bay, California, concerning the reported discovery of gold diggings by Mr. C. A. Robbinson, who lives at the mouth of Eel river. Mr. Robbinson exhibited a "prospect" (15 cents) which he stated he procured from one pan of dirt. He represents that the diggings are extensive and water convenient. He offered to point out the diggings for $1000—and $500 had been subscribed toward remunerating him.

Democratic County Committee.

The undersigned, members of the Democratic County Committee of Genesee County, hereby designate and appoint as Chairman of said Committee, HENRY I. GLOWACKI, of Batavia, and hereby authorize and request him as such Chairman, to call a meeting of such committee or a County Convention of the Democracy of said County, at such time or times as may be necessary or advisable.

A. T. DRAKE,
E. SCOFIELD,
A. ARNOLD,
CHARLES FULTON,
LEMAN BRADLEY,
JOSEPH DESHON,
S. N. PERVIER.

I respectfully request you to attend a meeting of the Democratic County Committee at the EAGLE HOTEL, in the village of Batavia, at 2 o'clock on Wednesday next, 27th inst., for the purpose of consultation, and organizing for the fall campaign. H. I. GLOWACKI.

Dated Batavia, July 23, 1859.

Pursuant to the above call a meeting of the County Committee was held at the Eagle Hotel, in the village of Batavia on Wednesday, the 27th instant, at 2 o'clock P. M.

The following members were present:—

Alexander—Charles Fulton,
Alabama—S. N. Pervier,
Batavia—H. I. Glowacki, H. Wilber,
Byron—A. Arnold,
Bethany—Joseph Deshon,
Le Roy—A. T. Drake,
Pavilion—Leman Bradley.

Absent Messrs. Scofield of Bergen, and Willis of Elba.

The meeting was called to order by H. I. GLOWACKI, Esq., chairman, who stated the purpose of the meeting to be the permanent organization of the Committee, consultation and preparation for efficient action in the approaching campaign. On motion, A. T. Drake of Le Roy, was chosen Secretary of the meeting. At this stage of the proceedings Mr. H. Wilber interposed a "preliminary objection." He insisted, first, that he was the Chairman of the Committee whether they desired him to be or not! And second, if that "did'nt work," he insisted that the Committee should not appoint a Chairman whether they desired to or not! These several propositions, having been duly discussed and due deliberation, according to their respective merits, had thereon, they were overruled by the Committee. Mr. A. T. Drake, for the purpose of removing any supposed objections to the previous appointment of the present Chairman of the Committee, moved that H. I. GLOWACKI, Esq., of Batavia, be selected as such Chairman, in accordance with such previous written appointment. A majority of the members present having voted in favor of such motion, Mr. GLOWACKI was declared duly elected Chairman of the Committee.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Committee:

Resolved, That the recent course of "The Genesee Weekly Democrat," in prostituting its columns from week to week to the vituperative, discussion and agitation of matters of a purely personal nature, to the substantial exclusion of the more general and appropriate political topics intimately connected with the prosperity and success of the Democratic party of the State and nation—has utterly destroyed our confidence in either its efficiency as a Democratic organ or the political integrity of its management, and should receive the unqualified condemnation of every Democrat of the County who desires and labors for the unity and prosperity of the Democratic party.

Resolved, That we cordially recommend to the countenance and support of the Democracy of the County—"The Genesee County Herald and Spirit of the Times," as an efficient and reliable Democratic Journal, whose columns bear unmistakable evidence, as well of its loyalty to Democratic doctrines and principles, as the zealousness and ability with which they are advocated and sustained.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee be and he is hereby authorized and requested to call a County Convention to meet at such time as [illegible] appropriate in his judgment, for the purp[illegible] transacting such business as shall be specifie[illegible] such call.

On motion of Leman Bradley, Esq., it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in The Genesee County Herald and Spirit of the Times, The Rochester Union & Advertiser, and The Albany Atlas & Argus.

The Committee then adjourned sine die.

H. I. GLOWACKI, Chairman.

A. T. DRAKE, Secretary.

MAN KILLED BY THE CARS.—As the Emigrant Train on the Corning Road was coming into Avon, soon after nine o'clock last evening, a man was run over at a crossing on the road to the Springs and instantly killed. His name was a singular one, and is reported as "Houghanier Gordinier," which is probably something near the true one. He lived near the Springs, and was known as a man of intemperate habits.—It is thought that he was intoxicated, and laid down to sleep upon the track a short time before the train came down, or he may have thought best to shorten his unprofitable existence, and took the cheapest method for so doing.—Rochester Union.

The ladies—May we kiss all the girls we please, and please all the girls we kiss.

A SINGULAR CASE.—Miss Esther L. Bosworth, of Chemung, (Chemung Co.) is under arrest on a charge of attempting to poison a colored girl named Sarah Ann Story, a servant in the family of Mrs. Martha C. Wells. Miss B. is a young woman less than eighteen years old, and of a bright, interesting appearance. She denies the charge. On two occasions, within the month, Miss B. called at the house of Mrs. Wells, and gave to the colored girl each time some candy. On the first occasion the candy that was given her was thrown away, after she had simply tasted it and found it had a disagreeable flavor. On the other occasion the candy was given by Sarah to Mrs. Wells, who brought it to Elmira and left it with Dr. Gregg for examination, who found it to contain three grains of Strychnine. The motive for poisoning the colored girl exists in the fact, according to the theory of the prosecution, that Miss Bosworth has a lover named Lyman Burt, who has his home in the Bosworth family. This Burt was not long since arrested for stealing money from Mrs. Wells. The only witness against him is the colored girl. During the month of January last the dwelling of Mrs Wells at Chemung, a valuable one, was consumed by fire, together with most of her furniture, and in March her carriage house was destroyed.

RELIGION IN AMUSEMENTS.—A celebrated divine says, "People may ask 'What have you to do with amusements?' I have not to do with them; but God made man to do with them. That is human nature; and that man takes a wrong course who tries to dam up human nature. I want to try to turn human nature in a right direction and to let men have good amusements, for they like them. Where is the man that does not like to have amusement? Why, I like to see a kitten chase its own tail. If the ministers of religion had done their duty in trying to guide and direct the amusements of the people, there would not be so many bad amusements as there are at this day. Instead of the clergy standing askance from amusements, I would like to see them taking more interest—taking part—in them. I agree with John Wesley, who, when some people found fault with him for taking tunes which had been associated with foolish songs, and applying them to sacred hymns, replied, 'I see no reason why the devil should have all the good things in the world.' No more do I.—There are music, painting, chess, quoits, and cricket. I would yoke them all in the service of religion and virtue."

THE CHILD-ANGEL.—Death has forever closed those little eyes, and forever shrouded their bright glances. How sweetly she sleeps, that little coveted angel! How lightly curl the glossy ringlets on her forehead! You could weep your very soul away to think those cherub lips will never, never unclose. Vainly you clasp and unclasp that passive darling head that wandered so often over your cheeks. Vainly your anguished glances strive to read the dim story of love in those faded orbs. That voice, sweet as winds blowing thro' wreaths and garlands, slumbers forever.—And still the busy world knocks at your door and will let you have no peace. It shouts in your ear, it smiles in your face, it meets you at the coffin, at the grave, and its heavy foot-steps tramp up and down in the empty room from whence you have borne your dead. But it comes never in the hush of night to wipe away your tears! In the solemn silence of the grave we feel the force of the sickening sorrow which hangs heavily upon the heart, as though it would press it down into the narrow space in which the spirit dwells in mournful suspense. But a bright vision meets the eye. Can you look up? can you bear the splendor of the sight? ten thousand celestial beings, and your radiant child angel in the midst of them—

In her eyes a glory bright,
On her brow a glory crown.

Mrs. H. O. C. Hewitt, a Southern lady, formerly of Mississippi, is out with an elaborate defence of the reconciliation of Mr. and Mrs. Sickles. We give a specimen, as we find it in the Merchant's Record;

"And Mrs. Sickles, she may be a blessing to many! Rahab, the worst of women mentioned in sacred history, was saved, with all her family, when the city of Jericho was taken, and no other souls were saved—her faith and good deeds justified her. There is more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner that repenteth than in the ninety and nine that went not astray.—Mrs. Sickles, though sold like poor little Joseph, has it in her power to be a deliverer from evil, through grace; and a minister of good to aching hearts and erring sisters.

We should rejoice that one man at least has dared to do right—to return to his wife; and an erring wife has preferred to those who would gladly have had her separated from him, in order that they may try to get her! The vomiting up of their chagrin at the just disappointment would be amusing if it was not in such a serious cause. Cannot some one recommend a panacea for their distress?"

KILLED BY A BULL.—As Mr. Jos Luff a respected farmer, living near Sa ets Harbor, went out to salt his cattle, Sunday last, he was set upon by a wil three-year-old bull. The animal f struck him with both horns in the lo and gave him a toss in the air; as the fortunate man came down he was str again in the forehead and shoulder, course, the result was inevitably death A neighbor saw the transaction, and w he went to the rescue of Mr. Luff the furiated animal came rushing upon h when he was shot with a gun that the had with him.

An Important Suit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grant, widow of Lathrop A. G. B. Grant, has recently obtained a judgment of $10,966,63, against Trumbull Cary, both residents of Batavia. The suit after being in the hands of three referees for about a year was finally referred to L. W. Thayer Esq., of our village and the above is the verdict. Mr Grant was from 1824 to 1837 a partner of Mr. Cary. They had a long line of accounts and deal, and this, we believe, is the first time the books have been balanced. The Attornies employed were John Ganson and Geo Benedict Esqs., for plaintiff, and Taggart & Henshaw for defendant.—Warsaw New Yorker.

The Treaty of Peace.

The Norde says the treaty of peace, although arranged in principle at Villa Franca, will be definitely drawn up at Zurich, and will then be officially communicated to the Courts of Europe—the adhesion of these Courts being indispesible to the organic and internal stipulations which form part of the public law of Europe.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says that the representatives of Austria, France and Sardinia will soon meet at Zurich, to conclude the treaty of peace.

There will be no Congress, as the two Emperors have agreed to settle their difficulties without the intervention of the neutral powers.

GREAT BRITAIN

In the House of Lords on the 18th, the debate was confined to the merits of the despatches which passed between England and Prussia in regard to the war.

FRANCE

The Emperor arrived at St. Clud on Sunday morning,the 17th inst. The Empress, with the ladies and officers of the household, were in waiting to to receive him, for more than an hour, at the railway station. The litte Prince wore his corporal's uniform, and had a laurel crown in his hand ready to give his father on his arrival. As soon as the Emperor arrived he kissed the Empress, then took the Imperial Prince in his arms and held him for some minutes. He afterwards gave his arm to the Empress and proceeded to the Chatteau.

ITALY

Strong indications of discontent at the terms of the Peace were visible in some parts of Italy.

According to the Norde a French corps de armie of 40,000 men will remain in Italy until the reorganization of the country according to the tenor of the peace of Villa Franca.

SARDINIA

The Times correspondent at Turin says that peace has produced the greatest exasperation and jection in that Capitol.

The Emperor Napoleon is accused of being a traitor to Italy, and his portraits have been withdrawn from the shop windows to prevent their being broken.

Meeting of the Democratic Co. Central Committee.

We publish in another column the proceedings of the meeting of the County Central Committee at the Eagle Hotel on Wednesday last, for the purpose of organization and preparation for efficient action in the ensuing campaign. This Committee, composed of gentlemen residing in different sections of the county, was originally appointed at the County Convention of 1857, and collectively re-appointed in 1858. Since their original selection they have never organized nor convened as a body for any purpose, nor has any official action been taken by them, with the exception of the calling of the County Convention of last year. In that instance the call emanated from the Committee in the aggregate, the name of each being appended thereto. It will be observed that one of the members of the Committee, with characteristic modesty, having preliminarily "struck an attitude," assumed several exceedingly grotesque positions with reference to their proposed action.—Their intrinsic modesty of pretension, as well as the logical reasoning and deductions upon which they are founded, will be sufficiently apparent from the most casual examination thereof!

The first of the resolutions unanimously adopted by the Committee, fittingly expresses the nearly unanimous sentiment of the Democracy of the county, with reference to the disreputable character of the Genesee Weekly Democrat, under the management of the disorganizing clique of bankrupt political intriguers, into whose custody that paper has been recently transferred, solely for the purpose of promoting the unity and increasing the efficiency of the Democratic party of the County!

We incline to the belief, however, that the kindred attempt to transfer the Democracy of the county in the same direction, will be found to be an investment of a much inferior pecuniary value, and one much more embarrassing in the management of its various complicated details than trafficking and financiering generally in the "stock" of defunct Mutual Insurance Companies!

The "signs of the times" indicate that we shall doubtless have occasion to refer again to the action of the Central Committee at their recent meeting, and we shall avail ourselves of the opportunity then presented for discussing their proceedings and the circumstances connected therewith with more freedom and detail. We content ourselves, at present, with the expression of our gratification at their prompt organization thus early in the campaign, as furnishing a satisfactory augury of the zeal and energetic action which will characterize the operations of the Democracy of the county, in the support of their principles and candidates in the coming Canvass.

English Opinions of the Peace.

Isaac Butts, Editor of the Rochester Union, now in London, writes of the war feeling in England as follows:—

The consequences of a French invasion constitute the theme of frequent and various speculation. Few, very few indeed, whom I have heard express opinions on the subject, speak of it with genuine English complacency. Almost everybody indulges in forebodings, more or less tinged with gloom, in case the French should earnestly set about invading England.—Indeed, one English gentleman, a large land holder in Lincolnshire, said to me he could not see what could save England from subjugation if Russia and France united against her. At the very best, said he, their combined assault would set England back half a century in her career, besides impairing her prestige for all time. Another gentleman, whose position and associations qualify him to speak intelligently on all subjects of public concern, said to me last evening that if the French ever effect a landing London would be almost certain to fall; and he added his opinion that in that event it would be given up to pillage! It is to be hoped that such opinions spring from an imagination somewhat disordered by apprehensions of the dreaded evil.

* * * * * * *

Since my last letter I have traveled England from one end to the other (nearly) several times; taken a peep at some of her old cathedrals about which volumes have been written and to which I would hardly add a postscript; paid a brief visit to the both Houses of Parliament and seen much that it would do to write about. But I must not take up any of those subjects to-day. I have taken a furnished house till the 1st of September, situated in Blackheath, a beautiful rural suburb, five miles from London Bridge by railway. And here I shall remain the most of the time till the sailing of the Persia, September 3d. We propose to make a short trip to the Continent; but it will be only a short one. London is the great centre of interest in respect to all matters in which I feel most concern—I mean English or European matters of course. And hence my purpose to remain here—especially since I have established myself in an English "home."

Novel Gold Diggins.

By the late steamer from the Isthmus of Panama, we recieve accounts of the discovery of gold in large quantities in the Indian burying grounds in the Province of Chiriqui on the Isthmus. The Indians of Panama in early times understood the art of working gold to a considerable extent, mostly for ornamental purposes, and at death the trinkets owned by the person were burried with the body. People were flocking to these singular gold diggings at a rapid from Panama and in all probability, every Indian burying ground will be sought out and dug over to [illegible] two dollars per pushel, has now reache point where its most severe trials c mence. The business created by build roads has subsided, and affairs along t lines have been restored to their wo quiet. Most of the roads have suspen dividends, while a large class have rep ated stock and bonds alike. By econo pushed so far as to suspend necessary pairs, many roads have paid interest u their mortgage bonds. Whether the jority of them can do this for the next y is still a matter of doubt. The wh country is richer in crops than was known, but there underlies the whol mass of debts, made upon the infla scale of 1859 and 1857, which requires the skill of the debtor to manage.

Recaptured.—We noticed the ot day the escape of a forger named He P. Baldwin, by jumping from the while they were going at the rate of f miles per hour. We now learn that was found in a field near Clyde hoe corn for a living. What industrious ch [illegible] with the head and ears of a lamb, only with an enormous mouth, and draggon like teeth, and weighs about two ounces. Number four is an idol of hideous and obscene conception, with legs and arms extended, the head flat, having a fan-like crown at the back, a wide open mouth and a hooked nose, under which curls something like the latest form of moustache. This was evidently one of the obscene gods which belonged to the Peruvians. This idol weighs about two ounces and is of fine gold. Besides, these there were a frog, an eagle, very small twin frogs, and an armadillo, and a small bell. The whole weigh over a pound, and were purchased by Dr. Otis from a person on the Isthmus at twenty dollars per ounce. The excitement growing out of these discoveries is represented as being very great throughout the Isthmus, and multitudes were leaving for the Chiriqui, in the district of Boqueron. One thousand persons were reported already at work in that region, digging for the newly discovered treasures. Several vessels were advertised to leave Panama. The place is some one hundred and fifty miles from that point.

Considerable excitement exists at Humbolt Bay, California, concerning the reported discovery of gold diggings by Mr. C. A. Robbinson, who lives at the mouth of Eel river. Mr. Robbinson exhibited a "prospect" (15 cents) which he stated he procured from one pan of dirt. He represents that the diggings are extensive and water convenient. He offered to point out the diggings for $1000—and $500 had been subscribed toward remunerating him.

Democratic County Committee.

The undersigned, members of the Democratic County Committee of Genesee County, hereby designate and appoint as Chairman of said Committee, Henry I. Glowacki, of Batavia, and hereby authorise and request him as such Chairman, to call a meeting of such committee or a County Convention of the Democracy of said County, at such time or times as may be necessary or advisable.

A. T. DRAKE,
E. SCOFIELD,
A. ARNOLD,
CHARLES FULTON,
LEMAN BRADLEY,
JOSEPH DESHON,
S. N. PERVIER.

I respectfully request you to attend a meeting of the Democratic County Committee at the EAGLE HOTEL, in the village of Batavia, at 2 o'clock on Wednesday next, 27th inst., for the purpose of consultation, and organizing for the fall campaign. H. I. GLOWACKI.

Dated Batavia, July 23, 1859.

Pursuant to the above call a meeting of the County Committee was held at the Eagle Hotel, in the village of Batavia on Wednesday, the 27th instant, at 2 o'clock P. M.

The following members were present:—

Alexander—Charles Fulton,
Alabama—S. N. Pervier,
Batavia—H. I. Glowacki, H. Wilber,
Byron—A. Arnold,
Bethany—Joseph Deshon,
Le Roy—A. T. Drake,
Pavilion—Leman Bradley.

Absent Messrs. Scofield of Bergen, and Willis of Elba.

The meeting was called to order by H. I. Glowacki, Esq., chairman, who stated the purpose of the meeting to be the permanent organization of the Committee, consultation and preparation for efficient action in the approaching campaign. On motion, A. T. Drake of Le Roy, was chosen Secretary of the meeting. At this stage of the proceedings Mr. H. Wilber interposed a "preliminary objection." He insisted, first, that he was the Chairman of the Committee whether they desired him to be or not! And second, if that "did'nt work," he insisted that the Committee should not appoint a Chairman whether they desired to or not! These several propositions, having been duly discussed and due deliberation, according to their respective merits, had thereon, they were overruled by the Committee. Mr. A. T. Drake, for the purpose of removing any supposed objections to the previous appointment of the present Chairman of the Committee, moved that H. I. Glowacki, Esq., of Batavia, be selected as such Chairman, in accordance with such previous written appointment. A majority of the members present having voted in favor of such motion, Mr. Glowacki was declared duly elected Chairman of the Committee.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Committee:

Resolved, That the recent course of "The Genesee Weekly Democrat," in prostituting its columns from week to week to the vituperative, discussion and agitation of matters of a purely personal nature, to the substantial exclusion of the more general and appropriate political topics intimately connected with the prosperity and success of the Democratic party of the State and nation—has utterly destroyed our confidence in either its efficiency as a Democratic organ or the political integrity of its management, and should receive the unqualified condemnation of every Democrat of the County who desires and labors for the unity and prosperity of the Democratic party.

Resolved, That we cordially recommend to the countenance and support of the Democracy of the County—"The Genesee County Herald and Spirit of the Times," as an efficient and reliable Democratic Journal, whose columns bear unmistakable evidence, as well of its loyalty to Democratic doctrines and principles, as the zealousness and ability with which they are advocated and sustained.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee be and he is hereby authorized and requested to call a County Convention to meet at such time as may be appropriate in his judgment, for the purpose of transacting such business as shall be specified in such call.

On motion of Leman Bradley, Esq., it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in The Genesee County Herald and Spirit of the Times, The Rochester Union & Advertiser, and The Albany Atlas & Argus.

The Committee then adjourned sine die.

H. I. GLOWACKI, Chairman.
A. T. Drake, Secretary.

Man Killed by the Cars.—As the Emigrant Train on the Corning Road was coming into Avon, soon after nine o'clock last evening, a man was run over at a crossing on the road to the Springs and instantly killed. His name was a singular one, and is reported as "Houghanier Gordinier," which is probably something near the true one. He lived near the Springs, and was known as a man of intemperate habits.—It is thought that he was intoxicated, and laid down to sleep upon the track a short time before the train came down, or he may have thought best to shorten his unprofitable existence, and took the cheapest method for so doing.—Rochester Union.

The ladies—May we kiss all the girls we please, and please all the girls we kiss.

A Singular Case.—Miss Esther L. Bosworth, of Chemung, (Chemung Co.) is under arrest on a charge of attempting to poison a colored girl named Sarah Ann Story, a servant in the family of Mrs. Martha C. Wells. Miss B. is a young woman less than eighteen years old, and of a bright, interesting appearance. She denies the charge. On two occasions, within the month, Miss B. called at the house of Mrs. Wells, and gave to the colored girl each time some candy. On the first occasion the candy that was given her was thrown away, after she had simply tasted it and found it had a disagreeable flavor. On the other occasion the candy was given by Sarah to Mrs. Wells, who brought it to Elmira and left it with Dr. Gregg for examination, who found it to contain three grains of Strychnine. The motive for poisoning the colored girl exists in the fact, according to the theory of the prosecution, that Miss Bosworth has a lover named Lyman Burt, who has his home in the Bosworth family. This Burt was not long since arrested for stealing money from Mrs. Wells. The only witness against him is the colored girl. During the month of January last the dwelling of Mrs Wells at Chemung, a valuable one, was consumed by fire, together with most of her furniture, and in March her carriage house was destroyed.

Religion in Amusements.—A celebrated divine says, "People may ask 'What have you to do with amusements?' I have not to do with them; but God made man to do with them. That is human nature; and that man takes a wrong course who tries to dam up human nature. I want to try to turn human nature in a right direction and to let men have good amusements, for they like them. Where is the man that does not like to have amusement? Why, I like to see a kitten chase its own tail. If the ministers of religion had done their duty in trying to guide and direct the amusements of the people, there would not be so many bad amusements as there are at this day. Instead of the clergy standing askance from amusements, I would like to see them taking more interest—taking part—in them. I agree with John Wesley, who, when some people found fault with him for taking tunes which had been associated with foolish songs, and applying them to sacred hymns, replied, 'I see no reason why the devil should have all the good things in the world.' No more do I.—There are music, painting, chess, quoits, and cricket. I would yoke them all in the service of religion and virtue."

The Child-Angel.—Death has forever closed those little eyes, and forever shrouded their bright glances. How sweetly she sleeps, that little coveted angel! How lightly curl the glossy ringlets on her forehead! You could weep your very soul away to think those cherub lips will never, never unclose. Vainly you clasp and unclasp that passive darling head that wandered so often over your cheeks. Vainly your anguished glances strive to read the dim story of love in those faded orbs. That voice, sweet as winds blowing thro' wreaths and garlands, slumbers forever.—And still the busy world knocks at your door and will let you have no peace. It shouts in your ear, it smiles in your face, it meets you at the coffin, at the grave, and its heavy footsteps tramp up and down in the empty room from whence you have borne your dead. But it comes never in the hush of night to wipe away your tears! In the solemn silence of the grave we feel the force of the sickening sorrow which hangs heavily upon the heart, as though it would press it down into the narrow space in which the spirit dwells in mournful suspense. But a bright vision meets the eye. Can you look up? can you bear the splendor of the sight? ten thousand celestial beings, and your radiant child angel in the midst of them—

In her eyes a glory bright,
On her brow a glory crown.

Mrs. H. O. C. Hewitt, a Southern lady, formerly of Mississippi, is out with an elaborate defence of the reconciliation of Mr. and Mrs. Sickles. We give a specimen, as we find it in the Merchant's Record:

"And Mrs. Sickles, she may be a blessing to many! Rahab, the worst of women mentioned in sacred history, was saved, with all her family, when the city of Jericho was taken, and no other souls were saved—her faith and good deeds justified her. There is more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner that repenteth than in the ninety and nine that went not astray.—Mrs. Sickles, though sold like poor little Joseph, has it in her power to be a deliverer from evil, through grace; and a minister of good to aching hearts and erring sisters.

We should rejoice that one man at least has dared to do right—to return to his wife; and an erring wife has preferred to those who would gladly have had her separated from him, in order that they may try to get her! The vomiting up of their chagrin at the just disappointment would be amusing, if it was not in such a serious cause. Cannot some one recommend a panacea for their distress?"

Arrival of the Ocean Queen and Anglo Saxon.

The Treaty of Peace.

The Norde says the treaty of peace, although arranged in principle at Villa Franca, will be definitely drawn up at Zurich, and will then be officially communicated to the Courts of Europe—the adhesion of these Courts being indispesible to the organic and internal stipulations which form part of the public law of Europe.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says that the representatives of Austria, France and Sardinia will soon meet at Zurich, to conclude the treaty of peace.

There will be no Congress, as the two Emperors have agreed to settle their difficulties without the intervention of the neutral powers.

GREAT BRITAIN

In the House of Lords on the 18th, the debate was confined to the merits of the despatches which passed between England and Prussia in regard to the war.

FRANCE

The Emperor arrived at St. Clud on Sunday morning,the 17th inst. The Empress, with the ladies and officers of the household, were in waiting to to receive him, for more than an hour, at the railway station. The litte Prince wore his corporal's uniform, and had a laurel crown in his hand ready to give his father on his arrival. As soon as the Emperor arrived he kissed the Empress, then took the Imperial Prince in his arms and held him for some minutes. He afterwards gave his arm to the Empress and proceeded to the Chatteau.

ITALY

Strong indications of discontent at the terms of the Peace were visible in some parts of Italy.

According to the Norde a French corps de armie of 40,000 men will remain in Italy until the reorganization of the country according to the tenor of the peace of Villa Franca.

SARDINIA

The Times correspondent at Turin says that peace has produced the greatest exasperation and jection in that Capitol.

The Emperor Napoleon is accused of being a traitor to Italy, and his portraits have been withdrawn from the shop windows to prevent their being broken.

The government of Lombardy has cautioned editors against using invectives in regard to recent events, and recommends them to assume sentiments of moderation under the pain of suppression or suspension.

Let the Sick Read.—The Boston Scalpel, a medical publication says: Dr. Herrick's Sugar Coated Pills, made at Albany, N. Y., appear to be the pill of the world. Dr. H. makes no secret of their compound; he furnishes all physicians in good standing with the receipt of their ingredients, and with the Pills, sugar coated, by the pound. My customers, particularly the female portion, have fallen in love with them, and frequently ask me to give them the Sugar Coated Pill. DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one. It has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Piles, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one should fail to try the New Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

MEDICINES.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(2d floor, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the Kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new. It is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is the first hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am certain that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and are in still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of Nervous Force, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles, with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $2,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or afflicted sufferer in the U. S. on receipt of order, paying the stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all required information without charge, of whomever delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address, Horace Greeley to be at Warsaw.

Mr. Greeley will return from his trip to Utah, California, and other western localities that he may visit, just in time to address the people of this County at the coming Fair. The officers of the Agricultural Society will do all in their power to make the Fair what it should be, and with the co-operation of the farmers and mechanics we can have the most perfect exhibition ever held in the country. The address of Mr. Greeley will draw thousands of people together, but the exhibition must be made by the farmers and mechanics of the county. So says the Wyoming Co. Mirror.

HARVEST.—The winter grains in this region, says the Wyoming Co. Mirror, are harvested, add a yield far above the average per acre of wheat has been gathered. Not near the usual quantity was sown. If there had been, the reputation of "Genesee Wheat" would have been re-established in the market. The Spring Grains are excellent—never better. Hay is as late as it well could be and be gathered, and of Corn we shall be able to speak more positively after the next frost.

The Utica Herald announces the invention of a new Telegraph Cable by a resident of Oneida county. It is claimed that it can be worked without an electric battery, the Cable itself being the battery, and consequently the longer it is the better it will work; which, if true, makes one man's fortune and secures 10 per cent. dividend to the stockholders of the Atlantic Cable, who will of course have to adopt it.

We learn from the Clyde Times that a man named Reynolds, in the employ of Mr. A. Hopkins, of Galen, Wayne Co., was killed, a few days ago, in a sudden and terrible manner. He had gone into the field to catch a horse, and instead of putting the halter on, he tied the end of the rope around the horse's neck. In some way the end of the halter got fast on his arm, and the horse becoming unmanageable, ran away, dragging him about a hundred rods, when the rope broke. He was bruised in a most shocking manner, and died in a half an hour.—He was twenty-five years old, and leaves a wife and one child.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—On Thursday last, says the Syracuse Journal, Deputy United States Marshal SHATTUCK, and Deputy Sheriff SPAFFORD, of Canajoharie, arrested, in Geneva, the Captain of the scow boat "Logan," of Elmira, by the name of John Tift, on whose person was found a quantity of bogus half dollars and several counterfeit bills. Tift was taken to Syracuse and lodged in the Penitentiary to await an examination.—The evidence against him is strong and conclusive.

SARSAPARILLA.—This tropical root has a reputation wide as the world, for curing one class of the disorders that afflict mankind—a reputation too which it deserves as the best antidote we possess for scrofulous complaints. But to be brought into use, its virtues must be concentrated and combined with other medicines that increase its power. Some reliable compound of this character is much needed in the community. Read the advertisement of DR. AYER'S Sarsaparilla in our columns, and we know it needs no encomium from us to give our citizens confidence in what offers. —Organ, Syracuse N. Y.

CHILD KILLED BY ITS FATHER.—A drunken man in Corning, named Patrick Flynn, seized a teakettle and aimed a blow at his wife, but it fell upon a little child a year old, which died in consequence. He has been arrested and is now in jail.

BELLS IN OUR VILLAGE.—When the new bell for the Presbyterian Church is in its place, we will have five good sized and respectable toned bells, not counting the one on the Court House. Few towns of the size of ours have as many, as good Church Bells.—Wyoming Mirror.

We don't know about the "Church bells," but we'll bet that we have more Belle's and handsomer in Batavia than can be picked up in any other town of its size in the State!

A man, Perez Hitchcock, a resident of the town of Ashland, in Greene county, was some thirteen years ago convicted and sentenced to the State Prison at Sing Sing for the term of his natural life, for the murder of his father. Through the influence of parties unknown to that community, however, he has recently been pardoned by Gov. Morgan and is once more at large. He is now in Massachusetts, and has, since his liberation, written to parties in that neighborhood to the effect that he should soon visit that section to claim property willed by him to his wife at the time of his incarceration. The Journal says that this state of things is an unpleasant one for all concerned.

The curious effects of a sprain are related by the Springfield Republican, which says, "a young domestic in a family in this city complained a few nights since of having sprained her ankle, and said the injury had struck to her stomach. An external application to the limb so far relieved her that she went to bed; in the course of the night, however, she was so sick that a physician was called, but he could only give relief then, after a pair of little ankles had appeared to the astonished gaze of the family with whom the girl lived."

The aggregate value of this year's wheat crop is estimated at one thousand millions of dollars! So abundant has been the wheat crop this season that a greater bredth than ever will be sown this fall.—The disappearance of the weevil, we are inclined to think, is the result of the frost in June; so what was lost by the frost has been more than made up by the destruction of the weevil and midge.

A lady and gentleman in the vicinity of New Haven, chancing to be bathing au natural, but unseen by each other, being separated by a ledge of rocks, a mischievous boy exchanged one pile of clothing for the other. Their perplexity and embarrassment on emerging from the water may be better imagined than described.—But, seeing no other alternative, the lady donned the male and the gentleman the female apparel, hoops and "everything." and made their way to their homes in that guise.

RECEIPT FOR MAKING BLACKBERRY WINE.—To every quart of berries pour one quart of boiling water; let it stand twenty-four hours; then bruise the berries and strain them. To every gallon of liquid add three pounds of loaf or crushed sugar. Cork it up and let it stand three months in a cool place. Draw it off, and with a small quantity of loaf sugar added, it will be fit for use.

BLACKBERRY JAM.—Gather the fruit in dry weather; allow half a pound of good brown sugar to every pound of fruit, boil the whole together gently for an hour, or till the berries are soft, stirring and mashing them well. Preserve it like any other jam, and it will be found very useful in families, particularly for children, regulating their bowels, and enabling you to dispense with cathartics. It may be spread on bread, or on puddings, instead of butter; and even when the berries are bought, it is cheaper than butter.

The latest New Orleans papers are congratulating the city upon the fact that not a single case of yellow fever has appeared this season in that place. It would appear from this that the relations between high water and Yellow Jack are not intimate. It was feared, a few days ago, that a man had died of the black vomit at the Charity Hospital, but upon investigation being made, it appeared that "it was an old chronic case of abscess of the liver."

A notorious ruffian, known in south western Arkansas as Jack Cade, was recently killed by a woman whose husband he had shot. The widow challenged him to fight a duel, and as the ruffian declined, she attacked him with a revolver and lodged three balls in his body, one of which passed through his heart.

An exchange says there is no cure for the bite of a rattlesnake except whisky. It adds; "We do not approve of drunkenness under other circumstances, but should you ever be so unfortunate as to be bitten by a snake, by all means get 'gloriously drunk,' and the sooner you do so, the sooner you will be 'all right.'"

A dancing master was taken up in Natchez recently for robbing a fellow boarder. He says he commenced by cheating a printer, and then after that everything rascally seemed to come easy to him.

A loose lion in a menagerie! The Cleveland Plaindealer tells of a fearful affair that recently occurred in Van Amburgh's menagerie. Some of the new keepers commenced to torment the lion. Wishing to hear him roar, the brutes spit tobacco juice in his eyes. This thoroughly maddened him and his frenzy was terrific. The lion made a tremendous dash against the cage bars—they gave way—he cleared the cage with a bound—and sprang for the affrighted wretch on the pole. In the blindness of his rage, the lion missed the man, striking his own head against the pole and splitting himself from head to tail! It was done as evenly as though he had been sawed by an experienced mechanic. The uproar brought Mr. Van Amburgh to the spot. The emergency required promptness. Seizing the cleaved parts of the lion the great "tamer" clapped them instantly together. They stuck, and the lion was soon restored to consciousness. But imagine Van's agony when he saw that he had put the lion together t'other end to!—that two of the animal's legs were up and the other two down!

BOOTMAKERS BEWARE.—A new "dodge" of which the bootmaking profession are the victims, has lately been originated by the gentlemen sharpers of New York, and will very likely be operated in the provincial cities before long. The scheme is described as follows. The "gentleman thief calls on two boot makers the same day, makes an appointment fifteen minutes difference with the two, tries the right boot on of the first and sends him back to stretch the left; in the meantime the other appears, when he tries his left boot and sends him back to stretch the right; when they return they are surprised to learn that the gentleman has settled his bill and left.

Public meetings have recently been held in Missouri for the purpose of adopting measures to prevent the driving of Texas cattle through that State to the North.—It is alleged that these droves leave malignant diseases along the route, of which many Missouri cattle have died.

A teacher wishing to explain to a little girl the manner in which a lobster casts its shell when it has outgrown it, said, "what do you do when you have outgrown your clothes. You throw them aside, don't you?" "Oh no!" replied the little one, "we let out the tucks!"

"I say, Bill, then you are getting two dollars a week now?" "Well you might a knew that by seeing all the fellers come soapin' around me that would not notice me when I was poor."

The Hamilton (C. W.) Times says McHenry, alias Townsend, visited Vienna on Wednesday, for the purpose of delivering a lecture, but he could obtain no place in which to hold forth. The feeling against the man, in that section of the country, is so strong that he barely escaped mobbing.

The hotel keeper's advice to his son may be considered sound. Said he: "If there's been a grand dinner, always get the party to settle before leaving. The dinner bill, my son, is never so severely scrutinized over night, as when a gentleman looks over it the next morning!" That man could keep a hotel.

A minister who lived on a small salary, told his non-paying trustees that he must have his money. "Money!" replied the stewart, "you preach for money! I thought you preached for the good of souls!" "ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859,"—This handsome volume, written by Madam Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed. The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has travelled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official report of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garibaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogizes its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

FIRST SERIES.

DR. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE.

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"We have read Mr. H. S. Brown's 'Lectures' with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown knows how to speak to 'the people.' He has almost every qualification for it, if we may judge from his printed address. There is no maudlin sentimentality about him; but all is healthful as the breeze on the hill. There is no clap trap; he is both too honest and too earnest for that.—There is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vice, nor any effeminate apologizing for it, but a wise Christian man's righteous hatred of it, who knows how to look on those who are sin degraded as his brethren. He speaks to the people almost as one of themselves, only from a higher level; and, though he uses their daily phrases, yet he does not thereby pander to vulgarity.—He has a happy acquaintance with our homely common sense proverbs, and employs them tellingly. There is no affection of extraordinary 'concern for the poor' or their 'souls;' but there is that real manly concern which can afford to dispense with profession, and to express itself chiefly in calm but brave and sensibly earnest endeavours. The proverb, 'Much cry and little wool,' you may reverse in his case. His true desire to benefit the people is partly shown by the pains with which he collects and prepares the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, &c., in order that his well-marshalled facts may preach to the understanding. The genuineness of his earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulness with which he toils along the highway of common sense. He has no recourse to reckless, undiscriminating charges, and is too strong for exaggeration. Truth is enough for him; would that this were no distinction! While he faithfully touches the worst vices, yet you never feel that the censor himself must have a coarse taste or prurient imagination. These Sunday afternoon lectures are not 'sermons,' nor intended to be. In them he grapples with acknowledged evils; but still, while opening the eyes of the people to the real nature of much of what their daily life too often is, and showing what it might be, he is never ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, chargeable with even seeming to let them go away with the impression that anything else, and not the kingdom of heaven, is the first thing to be sought. In Mr. Brown we have a man who, we should judge, can afford to go where any classes of God's creatures are domesticated, for he is strong, and his strength is holy."—Monthly Christian Spectator.

An Express train from New Bedford and Fall River came in collision with a carriage at the crossing at New Bridgewater, in which were a man and two ladies. The whistle was blown and the brakes applied to the train as soon as the carriage was seen, but the man persisted in whipping his horse forward, which was the cause of the disaster. Numerous witnesses state that the officers of the train are free from all blame in the matter.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures Inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflamation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is.... As it is not a Patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one should fail to try the New Medical Salt.

For old testimonial and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,
(Corner, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)
A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs; great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body, pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $1 a series of Health Rules and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

The only real Hair Restorative

HAIR RESTORATIVE AND INVIGORATOR.

IS WARRANTED to grow hair on bald heads stop its falling out, increase the growth of moustaches and whiskers to any desired extent, to cure dandruff and all diseases of the Scalp, even "scalded heads." It has a reputation of merit unknown to any other article, and those who buy a bottle are sure to purchase the second and third, as it ever fails to give satisfaction, and to do all that it is claimed it will do. For TOILET USE it is also unsurpassed.

When the evidence of this kind is within the reach of every one why will any one doubt? Get a circular and read the certificates of well known citizens, then buy a bottle for 50 cents, or a dollar bottle. It never has failed.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also
as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination is in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment." Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $2,00, or three bottles for $5,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 40 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS! ! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more—no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(Third door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own homes without exposure, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for 25 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME and of SODA.

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL of Paris as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the invaluable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. "While there is life there is hope!"

Dr. Churchill says:—

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, and I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox.

In all my cases I have found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage" treated in my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have entirely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Phthisis."

[illegible] This Remedy is the most powerful generator of Nerve Force, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility: Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large Bottles with the following name: "Winchester's Genuine Preparation of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1 per bottle, or three bottles for $2,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles of concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S. on receipt of two—one cent stamps to cover expense of postage. Also circulars and all information furnished without charge. Let no one delay, for the value of time is of fatal a malady as consumption. [illegible]

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We also beg to inform our readers that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

JOB PRINTING, OF ALL KINDS, EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE WITH TASTE AND DESPATCH.

"Old Dr. James," the retired physician is letting the balance of his sands run out in England, and advertises regularly in the Times and other papers, as willing to communicate for stamps.—Exchange.

The true name of the genuine "Dr. James" of "sands of life" notoriety is Talbot Watts, who formerly kept a second hand book stall in Nassau-st. N. Y. He became suddenly famous from vending a quack nostrum, known by the name of "Nervous Antidote," for which he obtained a long list of clergyman's names, vouching for its wonderful efficacy, and finally applied to the Mayor of New York to have the sick city placed in his hands. One day a person taking the "Antidote" died suddenly from the effects of strychnine, upon which Dr. Watts vamosed. His next appearance was with the sonbriquet of a "Retired Physician", with the "sands of life 'running out.'" He is now supposed to be in reality located somewhere on the sea shore where sand is very plenty—in fact that his capital is invested in a Bank that will never "run out."

The Buffalo Express on Crops.

"We scarcely open a newspapers, no matter from what section of our overshadowing country, that does not swell the universal anthem of rejoicing in bountiful crops."

We admire the flight of genius which ascends in the above, but we don't exactly understand about our "overshadowing country." That our country—our dear beloved country, as the Express would say—is "overshadowed" there seems to be little chance for doubt, but that it "overshadows" any thing is not so clear, if it is so however, let us know what!

The Express proceeds:—"The Earth gives forth, in perfection and profusion, its thirty, forty, fifty and even its hundred fold return of whatever is sown. Everywhere, upon Mountains and in Valleys, South, West, North and East, in all latitudes and upon every variety of soil, the People are blessed with rich Harvest. We content ourselves, just now, with giving an account of the Crop in Allegany county."

Here the Express makes one grand descent into the Genesee Valley and becomes prosy on an extract from the Free Press.

CORRECTION.—The Niagara Falls Gazette states we committed an error in crediting to it the other morning, an item stating that Mr. LeClear is finishing a handsome house on the south side of Main-st., in that village. We are informed that it is at Batavia that Mr. LeClear is building a residence, and we presume that it was from one of the little dailies of that place that we clipped the paragraph and inadvertantly credited it to the Gazette.—Buf. Express.

It is a very small matter Mr. Express, on our part, as we don't care much about who steals news items from the Daily HERALD, but it is a much smaller affair for you to take so much pains to give credit for our paragraphs to some one else. We informed you which of the Batavia Dailies you were indebted to. We don't write paragraphs for our cotemporary, and therefore it don't answer our purpose to have you copy our language and give credit elsewhere, as you have done on occasions heretofore.

A SMASH AT DUNKIRK.—Two freight cars of the New York and Erie Railroad, were smashed to pieces on Friday afternoon last, owing to some carelessness in switching off the State Line train of cars of the Lake Shore Railroad. Several men who were on the freight cars as the collision was about taking place, saved themselves by leaping off.

The Catholic Bishop of Montreal has addressed a circular to his clergy, calling upon them, as soon as possible, to pronounce from their pulpits, "a strong warning against the opera, the theater, the circus, and other amusements of a similar nature, which at the present moment are a real scandal to our city and country districts."

Cheap Living in New York.

A correspondent of the Buffalo Republic gives the following information of interest to economists who visit the Metropolis:

When a young man comes to New York, if his means are moderate, his first business is to rent cheap furnished rooms. Then get his meals at a restaurant. On the corner of Broadway and Howard, at Moschutt's he gets three hot biscuits and a cup of coffee for six cents, and for dinner roast beef and potatoes, three biscuit, a cup of coffee and pie for a shilling; or at Howe's Bakery, on the other corner, a cup of coffee, a large piece of pie and three hot bunns for ten cents. There is also a bakery on the corner of Cedar street and the first narrow street running parallel with Broadway, where can be had for 13 cents, a bowl of bread and milk—plenty of it—and blackberries or other fruit. The proprietor, I understand, buys three hundred quarts per day of milk from two farmers in the neighborhood of the city. No fault can be found, then, with the cheapness of living. Clothing can be bought at your own price.

LOOK UP!—Griffin recommends the habit of looking aloft in all cases. He says: If you are low spirited "look up" and you will discover that Heaven is still "just over head." If you meet with hard luck, don't use strychnine and die with cramps, but "look up," face the music and resolve to see the thing out. Do this and you will soon find that hard luck is as easily put down as a Roman punch or a onehorse riot. Do your friends forsake you because you could not "lift that note" last week, do not be disheartened, but "look up" and redouble your energies.—In a short while you will get ahead of fate, and once more bask in the regions of prosperity and double chins. If sickness overtakes you and stretches you out on a mattrass with a fever that keeps you surrounded with "yaller snakes" and sore headed bears, don't be disheartened and think of pulling off your head with a boot-jack, but "look up" and believe that "it will be all right in the spring." If you wish for success "look up." If you wish to reach the Presidency don't look down at the board of Aldermen, but upward at the United States Senate. The higher you aim, the higher you,ll strike. The only man who should look down is the man who does wrong—the man of crime, and usuers who eat out the substance of their neighbors. "Look up!"

CENTRAL RAILROAD TAXES.—The general city taxes of the N. Y. Central Railroad Company were paid to the Treasurer yesterday, and amounted to between six and seven thousand dollars; other taxes for local improvements, amounting to nearly two thousand dollars, have just been paid by the Company. We are told that the Central Railroad Company pay out at their office in this city about fifty thousand dollars per month, a good part of which goes into immediate circulation.—This is a fact which should be taken into account by those who feel hostile to the road. If there are disadvantages arising from the fact that the iron rails halve and quarter the city of Rochester, there is a little something to compensate in a pecuniary way.—Rochester Union.

A NEW "LOVE OF A BONNET."—The newest thing in Paris, just now, is said to be a bonnet made of fine black hair, embroidered with butter-cups in silken straw. The ribbon used for the trimming has a black ground and the flowers at the side are entirely black with jet centres. The effect of this combination is considered as very original, and has the advantage of defying dust.

YOUNG AMERICA IN EUROPE—A YOUNG TOURIST.—James E. Thompson, of New Haven, a lad thirteen years of age, has recently returned from an European tour, including a visit to Paris, where he went alone and unprotected and remained about a week. His schoolmates in the Lovell School of New Haven have honored the young traveler with a public reception, at which addresses of congratulation were made and responded to.

One firm in New Orleans, in the drug business, expends $20,000 a year in job printing, and $30,000 in advertising. A clothing firm has expended $50,000 in advertising within six months. Both establishments are now enjoying the lion's share of patronage. Old fogies, please notice.

One of our citizens of "credit and renown" says the Belfast Journal, while ruralizing, a few days since, unconsciously sat down on a bumblebee's nest. He had, for a moment, a realizing sense of what "the seat of war" means, about which so much talk is made.

Bobby, why don't you go home and have your mother sew up that hole in your trowsers? "Oh, go 'long; our folks are economizing, and a hole will last longer than a patch."

The number of visitors in Saratoga was never greater than now. The hotels are full to repletion, and many have to sleep standing—at the bars.

The Secret Motive of Peace.

M. Gaillardet, the able correspondent of the N. Y. Courrier des Etats Unis, and the best informed of the writers for the American press, ascribes the peace among other things, to a serious misunderstanding between Napoleon and Victor Emanuel. The latter felt offended because his personal gallantry and that of his army at the battle of Palestro were not noticed in Napoleon's Order of the day. His anger was so great, that at the battle of Magenta, he delayed to occupy the position assigned him, and left the Imperial Guard to sustain for two hours, unsupported, the shock of the Austrian army. He nearly lost the battle by his delay, and the Emperor did not hesitate to charge him with it, as he believed it was done on purpose.

The King of Piedmont became so distrustful, that, when Napoleon announced the hour for entering in triumph into Milan, he was at the place two hours ahead of time, fearing that the French Emperor would make the entry alone. These details came from Victor Emanuel himself, who told them in conversation with one of the Directors of the Lombard Railroad.

M. Gaillardet writes also that though the Milanese hailed the advent of the French with enthusiasm, the reception became colder as they penetrated Lombardy. When the Austrians approached Brescia after the battle of Solferino, the inhabitants replaced the Italian tricolors with the Austrian flags, which they had kept in reserve. In the country the peasantry showed no good will to the French soldiers.

In spite of the talk about the enthusiasm of the Italian patriots, there were very few enlistments—except the five or six thousand patriots, mostly exiles, under Garibaldi. The population did not rise and take arms as the proclamation of Napoleon invited them to do. On the other hand the Lombard troops in the Austrian army were faithful to their soldiers; and it was the regiments almost exclusively Italian that fought most desperately against the French at Marignan. It was only when vanquished and about to be crushed that they cried Evviva L'Italia, in order to get quarter.

While the peasantry cursed the liberating army, the shopkeepers and traders of Piedmont made spoil of its necessities, charging shameless prices for everything.

Count Cavour was counteracting the policy of Napoleon, inviting insurrection everywhere, while the French Emperor was avowedly repressing it.

Peace was made from a sentiment of distrust towards the King and Ministry of Piedmont, and of disgust at the conduct of the people, who so little appreciated the sacrifices and devotion of the allies.—Atlas and Argus.

The Rockford Register says that John P. Manny has a new machine for mowing, reaping, heading, raking and binding, all combined. It says, the binders, which are made of hemp cord, will only cost about 80 cents per acre of ground, and will last many years, as they can be removed without injury from the bundle quicker than one can be cut with a knife.

LECTURES

FOR THE PEOPLE.

BY THE

REV. HUGH STOWELL BROWN,

Of the Myrtle Street Chapel, Liverpool.

FIRST SERIES.

DR. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE.

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"We have read Mr. H. S. Brown's 'Lectures' with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown knows how to speak to 'the people.' He has almost every qualification for it, if we may judge from his printed address. There is no maudlin sentimentality about him; but all is healthful as the breeze on the hill. There is no clap trap; he is both too honest and too earnest for that—There is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vice, nor any effeminate apoligizing for it, but a wise Christian man's righteous hatred of it, who knows how to look on those who are sin degraded as his brithren. He speaks to the people almost as one of themselves, only from a higher level; and, though he uses their daily phrases, yet he does not thereby pander to vulgariety.—He has a happy acquaintance with our homely common sense proverbs and employs them tellingly. There is no affection of extraordinary 'concern for the poor' or their 'souls;' but there is that real manly concern which can afford to dispense with profession, and to express itself chiefly in calm but brave and sensibly earnest endeavours. The proverb, 'Much cry and little wool,' you may reverse in his case. His true desire to benefit the people is partly shown by the pains with which he collects and prepares the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, &c., in order that his well-marshalled facts may preach to the understanding. The genuineness of his earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulness with which its toils along the highway of comon sense. He has no recourse to reckless, undiscriminating charges, and is too strong for exaggeration. Truth is enough for him; would that this were no distinction! While he faithfully touches the worst vices, yet you never feel that the censor himself must have a coarse taste or prurient imagination. These Sunday afternoon lectures are not 'sermons,' nor intended to be. In them he grapples with acknowledged evils; but still, while opening the eyes of the people to the real nature of much of what their daily life too often is, and showing what it might be, he is never ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, chargeable with even seeming to let them go away with the impression that anything else, and not the kingdom of heaven, is the first thing to be sought. In Mr. Brown we have a man who, we should judge, can afford to go where any classes of God's creatures are domesticated, for he is strong, and his strength is holy."—Monthly Christian Spectator.

DR. M'LANE'S

CELEBRATED

VERMIFUGE

AND

LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of

FEVER AND AGUE,

preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

JUST PUBLISHED,

ITALY,

AND THE WAR OF 1859:

Giving a history of the causes of the War, with Biographical sketches and finely engraved portraits of its Heroes, together with the official accounts of the Battles of Montebello, Palestro, Magenta; etc. etc. and Maps of Italy, Austria, and all the adjacent countries by

MADAM JULIE DE MARGUERITTES,

With an introduction by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE, handsomely bound in one volume, 12mo. cloth.

PRICE $1.25.

And published by G. G. EVANS, 439 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

"ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859,"—This handsome volume, written by Madam Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed. The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has travelled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official reports of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garibaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogizes its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one. It has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Coughs, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try: if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all respectable druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. It is not a Patent medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician. No one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

MEDICINES.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 96 MAIN STREET,

(Corner of Seneca Street, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eyesight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named, have their seat primarily in the sexual Organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of [illegible] irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of [illegible] maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without [illegible] or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their own homes without exposure, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter; and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young men suffering from these dreadful ills, will receive the [illegible] of Health, Bodies and [illegible] of cure, which will be to them a true guide through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also
as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $2,00, or three bottles for $5,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 42 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S. on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postages. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

JOB PRINTING, OF ALL KINDS, EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE WITH TASTE AND DESPATCH.

Affairs in Europe.

The intelligence by the Persia concerning the peace question, is by no means very gratifying to those who are desirous to see an end of the war panic. The terms of the treaty of peace agreed upon at Villafranca are daily becoming more and more unpopular with all classes of the Italians. It is confidently stated that neither England or any one of the neutral powers of Europe will send representatives to a Congress bound by the terms of the treaty of Villafranca. It is also stated that Sardinia even will decline to be represented at Zurich, where the Congress is to meet.

It is most certainly a perplexing position that Louis Napoleon finds himself placed in, after fighting so many battles at so great a loss of men and money to gain the freedom of Italy, that his course in the adoption of measures to suspend hostilities should be utterly repudiated by even the weak power he was defending, and to which he has certainly added or reclaimed territory and comparative freedom, at least from Austrian dictation.—Napoleon III may yet find to his sorrow that fighting other peoples battles is not only expensive, but a work that gives poor returns even in thanks. Thus far he seems to have gained neither laurels or allies.

MONSIEUR BLONDIN COME AGAIN.—This daring performer whose head and heels are on an exact equipois went over the rope suspended across the Niagara river for the fourth time yesterday. In addition to the feat of walking the rope, he yesterday changed ends, resting his head upon the rope with his heels in the air, or in other words stood on his head upon the rope over the centre of the stream. He also hung with one hand beneath the rope and then with one leg, and performed divers other antics that it would be impossible for any one to do whose head and heels are not composed of about the same materials.

One of the policemen deputised to keep the peace, fulfilled his mission by knocking down an Irishman with a club and nearly killed him. It was with difficulty that the policeman was rescued from a worse fate.

HORSES AND EQUIPAGES AT SARATOGA.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Herald does justice, in the following, to the fashionable quadrupeds of Saratoga, some of whom are of better pedegree than their owners:

I think the most attractive feature of the live collection at Saratoga this season is the horses. There never were so many private establishments here before in one season. Some of the horses are really worth coming hundreds of miles to see.—The best method of viewing them is to go to Saratoga lake—the principal point of attraction every afternoon—a drive of only five miles. From about four o'clock, through the mellow twilight and into the dusky eve, there arrive and depart a pageant of elegant teams with their gilded trappings and liveried outriders.—Nothing can surpass the gay scene. I have witnessed a single line of barouches, reaching nearly a mile in length, filled with the fashion of the principal cities in the Union, averaging about three ladies to one gentleman. The varigated colors of their rich dresses, blending the charms of the rainbow, the silver mountings of the harnesses and carriages flashing in the sunlight, the proud action of the splendid steeds, the bright eyes, happy faces, the merry laugh and shout, and absence of all rowdyism and indecorum, contributed to make it as exciting and very beautiful scene.

Digby says, "if that gold woman recently exhumed from an Indian grave on the Isthmus is of good size and will come on here he will marry her. He thinks that she would make a jewel of a wife.

Deaths of Distinguished Men.

We have to record the deaths of two of the most distinguished citizens of the country as occurring Monday last—that of Hon. Richard Rush, at Philadelphia, and Col. Herman Thorne, at New York.

Mr. Rush, at the early age of 37, was appointed by President Monroe Envoy to England. He was recalled by President Adams to fill the position of Secretary of the Treasury. Toward the close of Gen. Jackson's second term, he was chosen special agent to England to take charge of the Smithson's bequest. In 1847 he was appointed by President Polk Minister to France. After having filled important positions by the favor of four administrations, he finally retired to private life on the accession of Gen. Taylor to the Presidency. He was nearly 79 years of age when he died.

Col Thorne, by an early marriage, became the possessor of great wealth. He resided in Paris during the prime of his life, only occasionally visiting his native country. In his day, there were but comparatively few Americans abroad, and his house became widely celebrated as the American establishment. Some few years since he returned home and resumed his residence in New York, building for himself a magnificent mansion in 16th street. He was in the 78th year of his age at the time of his decease.

Col. Thorne leaves a son who has a wide notoriety as one of the most successful stock breeders of the Union—his domain at Thorndale, Dutchess Co., being stocked with more choice and really valuable animals than can be found in one herd in Europe.—Albany Statesman.

Crops in Iowa.

The Rochester Union says a chat with an intelligent gentleman of this city who has just returned from Iowa, has convinced us that the reports of large crops in that State are not exaggerated. Our informant has been in Iowa for the last two years engaged in business which gave him abundant opportunity to inform himself, both by conversation and personal observation as to the agricultural interests of the State. He affirms that the crop of wheat just harvested is the largest and best the State ever produced, and adds that if the farmers can receive only four shillings per bushel for the grain they will be satisfied, pay their debts, live well and go on with their labors rejoicing.—The corn looks well and promises as fairly as the wheat has performed. The frost did no harm except to a patch here and there along the Mississippi. Wild grass is largely depended upon by the farmers of Iowa, but the "tame grass," so far as the breadth of ground goes, yields handsomely. The cattle of Iowa are sure to be well cared for this winter.

WASHINGTON IRVING.—A correspondent of the Peekskill Democrat refers to some of the domestic incidents of Irving as follows:

Our readers are, of course, aware that he is unmarried, though they may not know the cause of his celibacy. When he was young he fell in with a beautiful girl whose name was Julia; his love was reciprocated, and they were engaged. This was before his literary talent showed itself, and the young lady's father hearing of his daughter's engagement broke it off, aware that Mr. Irving had but a small fortune.—The young lover returned to his own home dejected and without hope, and poor Julia died soon after of a broken heart! and her betrother continued true to her by always remaining unmarried. If our readers have read the Sketch Book and Bracebridge Hall they will probably remember in those little romantic tales, that the names of the heroine are Julia—probably his favorite name.

A PULPIT JOKE FOR RAILROAD AND CANAL MEN.—A few days ago, says the Buffalo Commercial, one of our eloquent city divines perpetrated a bon mot in his sermon which not a few took, and among others a prominent railroad man seemed to appreciate it. He was preaching upon repentance, "and," said he, "when the tears of repentance are flowing, substantial proofs of a regenerated life are expected.—Only the tears of deep penitence can wash away the sins of life; for I tell you the heavy freight must go by water"

MYSTERIOUS.—Several days previous to the death of a child, in Richmond, Va., recently one of the limbs of an aspen tree in the front yard of its parents, snapped asunder and withered. The same circumstance, upon the identical tree, has occurred upon the approach of the death of four other members of the same family, previously, since the tree was first planted—a period of 13 years. Though perhaps the result of mere accident, the coincidence furnishes ample matter for the thoughts of the superstitious,

A New York correspondent says that ten millions of hooped skirts are manufactured in that city per year. Houses there make more than three thousand per day, and still cannot fill their orders. In the name of lost pins, where can such a world of emptiness go!

Terrible Accident on the Northern Railroad.

Twenty Lives Lost!!

From the Albany Knickerbocker of Yesterday Morning

Last night our city was startled from its usual quiet by the announcement that a terrible accident had occurred on the Northern Railroad, and that some 20 lives had been sacrificed.

The scene of this terrible disaster was at Schaghticoke, about 20 miles north of this city. It appears that as the train on the above road due here 7:25, was passing over the tressel work bridge at Schaghticoke, which is some 300 feet long, the same gave away with a crash, precipitating the train into the creek below. By this some 20 lives are reported lost, and a large number wounded. As soon as possible every available effort was made to rescue those who were alive from their perilous position. A large number were taken out, several of them badly maimed. As soon as this had been gone through with, a search for the dead was commenced. Some ten bodies were recovered and laid out. Among those were the wife of John Cuyler, Esq., Cashier of the Central Railroad. Also, the wife of Conductor Cooley, of the Northern Railroad, who is a daughter of Mr. Cuyler.

Mr. Cooley himself was on the train, as Conductor, having taken the place of Conductor Gardner, who was taken ill yesterday. Mr. Cooley is severely, if not fatally, injured. It was reported that a babe belonging to Mr. Cooley was also dead.—All these parties are residents of this city.

As soon as possible a hand car, was despatched for this city, which arrived here about 10 o'clock, bringing with it the above sad particulars. Mr. Cuyler, the members of his family, and a large number of others, took passage for the scene of the disaster.

The accident took place about one mile this side of Schaghticoke. The moment the train struck the bridge, which was running very rapid, the structure gave way. The locomotive, however, got across, and became uncoupled from the tender. The latter went down, and the baggage car and two passenger cars went down endwise on the top of the tender, while the second passenger car ran into it and keeled over.—The passengers in the first passenger car amounted to some 45 or 50. Many of those were killed, others were seriously wounded. Just before reaching the bridge, the engineer sounded the whistle to put down the brakes, but Mr. Lerthelen was not soon enough at his post, and the next instant all was a total wreck.

The baggage car was a complete wreck, scarcely three feet of it being together.—It was here that the express messanger got killed, and young McCarrick his leg broken. The latter was the only one who was not killed of all who were in the car.

When the cars went off the bridge they fell 38 feet, and sank into 8 feet of water.

TROY, Aug. 3.

Nine dead bodies had been taken out of the creek up to eleven o'clock last evening, and 20 persons were wounded, while it was thought that more dead bodies were under the wreck.

The Treaty of Vilafranca, according to the editor of the Courrier des Etats Unis, is not to be considered as a sort of accident; on the contrary, "we must expect to see it assume the proportions of the greatest event of the century, from the point of view of the new French policy." The same intelligent writer also tells us that we may be sure that "behind the Italian question, now apparently settled, will arise in a manner more or less vehement, an English German question."

In other words, Waterloo has yet to be avenged.

She "Fla the track!"—A Mississippi County Court Clerk having issued a marriage license for a young man, shortly after received the following note from him:

Steate of Miss July the 5 1859

Mr Moody ples let this matter stand over until further orders the girl has Fla the track By her own Request and Relase my name off of this Bond if you ples."

A CHANCE FOR SOMEBODY.—$100 Reward—Wanted, a young man who is willing to obtain a livelihood in the manner his father did, who isn't ashamed of the "old man's" early employment. Also, one young lady, aged from 14 to 18, who does not think "mother" too slow for the times, her father a simple old fool, and a black and tan colored moustache Paradise.

A horse got frightened in Adrian, Michigan on the 20th and ran away. Blinded by fright it ran plump into a front door which led directly into the parlor of a house where a lady was sitting watching her baby. Maternal affection conquered her fears and bound her to the spot.—The horse apparently reassured by the quiet aspect of things, perceived his mistake and retraced his steps without injury.

A farmer in Yates county has just finished harvesting somewhat less than 8 acres of winter barley, yielding 378 bushels.

PHUNNYGRAPHS.

A bachelor says he dislikes young married people, "because they are so apt to give themselves heirs!"

How is it that the trees can put on a new dress without opening their "trunks?" Because they "leave" out their Summer clothing.

A gentleman who had a scolding wife, in answer to an inquiry after her health, said she was pretty well, only subject at times to a "breaking out in the mouth."

Now do take this medicine, wife, and I'll be hanged if it doesn't cure you." Oh! I will take it then, by all means, for it is sure to do good one way or the other."

"Don't be afraid of the bacon, Mr. Jenkins," said a boarding-house mistress to a boarder. "Not at all, madam. I've seen a piece twice as large, and it did not scare me a bit."

A penny-a liner says that the conversion of the South Sea Island is an easy matter compared to the redemption of a Fifth Avenue heathen,

A modest young lady, who is about to be married vows she'll take chloroform when the time comes.

A pedant said to an old farmer, he could not bear a fool. "Your mother could," replied the farmer.

Aunt Betsey has said many good things, and among the rest, that "a newspaper is like a wife, because every man should have one of his own."

A sentimental young chap designs petitioning Congress for an act to improve the channel of affection,' so that henceforth the 'course of true love may run smooth."

Truth is always consistent with itself, and needs nothing to help it out; it is always near at hand, and sits upon your lips, and is ready to drop out before you are aware; whereas a lie is troublesome, and sets a man's invention on the rack, and one trick needs a great many more to make it good. Truth can live in all regions, flourish in all soils, and become naturalized in all climes.

"Honesty is the best policy, but it keeps a man shocking poor," said Griggs, as he wet the sugar without mixing it with sand.

CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND
LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of

FEVER AND AGUE,

preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

JUST PUBLISHED,

ITALY,
AND THE WAR OF 1859.

Giving a history of the causes of the War, with Biographical sketches and finely engraved portraits of its Heroes, together with the official accounts of the Battles of Montebello, Palestro, Magenta; etc. etc. and Maps of Italy, Austria, and all the adjacent countries by

MADAM JULIE DE MARGUERITTES,

With an introduction by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE, handsomely bound in one volume, 12mo. cloth.

PRICE $1.25.

And published by G. G. EVANS, 439 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

"ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859."—This handsome volume, written by Madam Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed. The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has travelled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official report of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garibaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogizes its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with Inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Arrival of the Steamship Persia.

NEW YORK, Aug 3.

The Emperor Napoleon is reported to be desirous of a Congress on Italian affairs, as giving greater eclat to the cancelling of the treaties of 1915.

VIENNA, Friday Evening—In course of the next week, the representatives of Austria and France will meet at Zurich.

Austria and France will then conclude a treaty of peace, and Sardinia, if she pleases, may accede to it by an additional article.

The Paris correspondent of the London Globe says it is now formally announced that neither Victor Emanuel nor any responsible minister of Sardinia, has signed any paper at Villa Franca, save and except the armistice, which continues till the 15th of August.

Austria and Sardinia are still in a constructive state of open war, no peace terms having been accepted between these two belligerents.

The Lombards were apprehensive of being saddled with some proposition of the liabilities of Piedmont.

A Paris letter says that news had reached there that eighty-five municipalities in Tuscany had already proclaimed their design to offer armed resiscance to the reintrusion of the late dynasty.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says that in reply to the Provisional Government of Tuscany, the Emperor Napoleon stated that he did not desire to force the Grand Duke upon them.

The absence of all tidings of Garabaldi's forces causes some surprise.

The French Government had presented to the King of Sardinia the greater portion of their floating batteries which are intended to be used on the siege of the Austrian fortresses.

A letter from Rome says that French troops were to be sent to Rimini with an order to prevent a revolutionary movement.

FRANCE

On the 21st the Emperor received the diplomatic corps.

The Papal Nuncio, speaking in the name of the cords, offered the Emperor his earnest congratulations on his happy return, and on his resolution to conclude peace.

The Emperor in reply says:—

Europe was in general so unjust to me at the beginning of the war, that I was happy at being enabled to conclude peace as soon as the honor and interests of France were satisfied, and to prove that it had never been my intention to overturn Europe and provoke a general war. I hope this day that all reasons for disunion will disappear, and that the peace will be of long duration. I thank the diplomatic corps for their congratulations.

Further by the Persia.

A report was current that the English Minister had inquired how long the French troops were to remain in Italy.

It is stated that the number of spies employed in Paris has been doubled since the peace, and that there has not been such wholesale seizures of English journals in Paris since the coup d'etat.

An article in the Journal Gen Debats, directed against England, attracted attention. It refers in a disquieting manner to the additions which England is making to her navy.

The Paris Bourse was dull.

A conspiracy against Prince Milosch and his son Lyodael, had been discovered at Belgrade. They were to have been assassinated on the 12th of July.

The conspirators are 4 Ministers and Senators, and the Prince had declared his intention of putting them to death, notwithstanding a formal protest from the Porte against his doing so.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues Inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflamation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia Spinal affections Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try: if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the prescription of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

MEDICINES.

DR. JOHNSON'S

HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(1st door, Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community; dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgy pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflamation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift—Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I KNOW that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also
as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda, J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $2,50, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for almost all persons need this fatal malady as consumption. Address,

JOB PRINTING, OF ALL KINDS, EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE WITH TASTE AND DESPATCH.

Gross Misrepresentation.

The Batavia Democrat publishes a list of Newspapers said to be in favor of the District plan of choosing Delegates to Charleston, and adds, "The papers which oppose the people on this question are the Atlas & Argus, Rome Sentinel, New York Journal of Commerce, and seven family papers in all ten."

We cut the following list from the Rochester Union, and believe it to be a correct list of those papers which advocate the appointment of the Delegates by the State Convention. It will be seen that the list embraces the leading Democratic papers of the State, whose circulation is, we venture to say, ten times as many as are issued by the papers named in the list of the Democrat.

Instead of ten, it will be seen there are forty opposed to prostrating the power of the State, and are in favor of appointing Delegates in the way they are appointed in other States. But our object is to give a specimen of the deception of the print in question, and to show what little reliance is to be placed upon it.

NOT WORTH THE MONEY.—The physicians of Louisville have struck for higher wages. Under the present arrangement no person can be born or die in Louisville at a cost of less than fifty dollars. We think this is very dear, indeed, for not half the persons who are born here or elsewhere, are ever worth fifty dollars to the community, and three-forths of those who die had better never been born. Such births are profitable only to census takers, and State Prisons, So says an Exchange.

TO REMOVE FRECKLES.—The best preparation to remove freckles, which are so common at this season, is a teacupful of cold, soured milk, and a small quantity of scraped horse-radish. Let it stand from 6 to 12 hours, then use it to wash the parts affected 2 or 3 times a day. Another mixture of half a drachm of ammonia, two drachms of lavender water. Use it with a sponge two or three times a day. A still simpler composition is a quarter of a drachm of borax, half a drachm of sugar, and one ounce of lemon juice. Mix and let it stand for a few days, then rub it on occasionally.

CLEVELAND AND BUFFALO STEAMBOAT LINES.—It is reported that Captain E. B. Ward has at last put a stop to the competition on this route, by buying the charter of the Lake Erie Steamboat, company, and thus getting both lines into his own hands. He will run the city of Buffalo and Western Metropolis between Cleveland and Buffalo, and the Arctic and Forester between Cleveland and Toledo hereafter, so says the Buffalo Republic.

WILD-CAT BANKING IN ILLINOIS.—Illinois is wonderfully prolific of wild-cat banks. Nearly every day ushers one of them into existance, located, generally in some remote quarter of Egypt. The Chicagoans are becoming alarmed under this state of things for the credit of their State, and the Press&Tribune loses no opportunity to warn the people against giving currency to these irredeemable "promises to pay." In a recent issue it says:

We are well aware that all we can say upon the subject will have very little effect till the evil become so enormous as to cure itself. So far from withdrawing currency and making exchange with the bonds, the currency makers are issuing it almost without limit. Scarcely a day passes that some 'wild cat' does not pounce upon us from some obscure corner of Egypt, and the circulation of the old banks is being increased enormously. Signing bills, as president or cashier, has become a regular business, both in this city and Springfield. Even boys have power of attorney to sign bills for the president or cashier, at twenty-five cents per hundred sheets.

Though well convinced that our warnings for the present cannot stop the remorseless wheels of these "rag mills," the meanest tyro in finance can predict the inevitable result. Ere many months another crash must come, and if the people get ninety cents for their promises to pay instead of ninety-eight, they may consider themselves fortunate. The soulless sharpers who are preparing this piece of genteel swindling, laugh at our anxiety; but though we have not power to prevent it we shall not cease to warn our readers of the new disgrace that is preparing for our noble State.

GOOD IF NOT BETTER.—The Tribune correspondent at Springfield (Mass.) writing to that paper says:

"Some of the members are anxious to write initials after their names, indicating that they belong to the American Association for the Advancement of Science. The letters A. A. A. S. are so many that it is proposed to abbreviate the name of the Association, and a Committee was appointed last year to curtail it. The most popular name appears to be American Scientific Society."

The names of the members would then be adorned thus—Prof. C. C. Felton, A. S. S.

BLONDIN'S GREAT FEAT.—It is rumored that Blondin intends walking the Atlantic Cable to search for that "kink" which has so far "broken the continuity." De Santy will be firmly lashed to his back, and, as soon as the kink is found, will communicate the intelligence to Queenstown and Valentia. Some people may be inclined to treat this rumor as a hoax, but did not these same unbelievers regard the first statement of Blondin's intention to walk the Cable at Niagara in the same light? Clearly, there is too much skepticism in this "age of enlightenment."

Digby says that the Utica Telegraph, from which we clip the above paragraph, must be "under conviction," it exhibits such a "serious turn" of late. Digby dont doubt but that Blondin will do what he says he will, by no means—why should he?

The Boston Courier resuscitates the following anecdote:

Two or three years ago, during a season of illness, Mr. Choate was visited by one of his friends, who urged upon him the importance of paying more attention to his health. "Sir," said the visitor, "you must go away; if you continue your professional labors thus, you will certainly undermine your constitution." Mr. Choate looked up, and with that grave irony and indescribable expression when he jested, said: "Sir, the constitution was destroyed long ago; I am now living under the by laws."

A Gold Hunter Returned.

On last Wednesday evening we were suprised to receive a visit from our old friend John Blouse, of York township, who was on his way home from Pike's Peak.—He gives a discouraging account of the gold mines—says that thousands of men are wandering over the mountains searching in vain for gold—that Gregory's are the only diggings that have been found that will pay, and only about one hundred men are there employed who make good wages. Mr. Blouse also corroborates the statements of numerous other persons, that Greeley was fooled by the miners. As an instance how Gregory hoaxed him, he told Greeley to dig up a shovel full of dirt and he would wash it out, and show him that his diggings were no humbug.—Greeley did as directed. Gregory washed it out, having in the meantime gold dust deposited in his sleeve, which he let drop into the pan. Greeley of course was astonished at the richness of the diggings—published a statement—the people having confidence in him, flocked to Gregory's and Gregory sold his claims at a big figure.—Tuscarora Advocate.

Miscellany

Those who labor under the impression that God made a mistake when he created birds, are altogether wrong."

Duties fulfilled are always pleasures to the memory.

Of all earthly music, that which reaches the farthorest into heaven is the beating of a loving heart.

A writer on swearing says: "An oath from a woman's lips is unnatural and incredible. I would as soon expect a bullet from a rosebud."

Madame Jenny Lind Goldsmidt is to visit Ireland in the autumn, for the purpose of singing in oratorios. She intends giving the "Messiah," for the benefit of the Mercer's Hospital in Dublin.

A farmer in Oakland county, while in Detroit one evening, drove into an open sewer, and injured himself and wife. He brought a suit against the city for $90,000 damages.

The Niagara Falls Gazette says there was an attempt to fire the M. E. Church, at Cayuga Creek, on Saturday night—the result, it says, of a society quarrel. We believe the place named is on the Canada side.

An attempt was made by about 100 prisoners at Sing Sing to overpower their keepers and escape, on monday night.

Whereever the Sons of Temperance have enlisted the ladies in their cause, and permitted them to attend their meetings, the Order has been regenerated and received new life.

It is a beautiful custom in some Oriental lands to leave untouched the fruits that are shaken from the trees by the wind; these being regarded as sacred to the poor and the stranger.

Laborers have been striking in St. Louis, and the sun has been striking in Cincinnati. The number of sun-strokes in the latter city is very great, and deaths therefrom are quite numerous.

HELP!—The Palladium says that farmers in the vicinity of Oswego are very much in need of help to carry them through the harvest. They offer from one dollar to twelve shillings a day for first class hands, such as superior cradlers &c.

An ingenious dodge of the counterfeiter was detected in New York, Friday.—good one dollar bills of various Banks are Mutilated by taking out the name of the Bank, which is afterwards pasted on tens and twenties of broken Banks. The bill thus manufactured is dangerous.

He who never relaxes into sportiveness is a wearisome companion; but beware of him who jests at everything! such men disparage by some ludicrous association, all objects which are presented to their thoughts, and thus render themselves incapable of any emotion, which can either elevate or soften.

The Mt. Morris Union says: "On Monday last Constable Denison arrested a young man in this village by the name of Charles Wilson, on a charge of stealing cattle some time since, near Dansville.—As we learn the cattle were driven to this place and slaughtered and sold to our citizens. It is said the evidence is conclusive against Wilson—if so, he will no doubt find a home in Auburn. He was taken to Dansville for examination."

Mr. W. T. Aymar, a circus actor, is about making arrangements to do some somersaults at Niagara wich will entirely eclipse M. Blondin's feat of tight rope walking. He proposes to turn a somersault down into the water at the foot of Goat Island, a depth of 170 feet from the point where he springs! He chooses this place because it is the only one with sufficient depth of water, and clear of rocks, for him to alight in.

THE RAREY "SECRET."—In the "Gentleman's Farriery," by Bartlett (sixth edition), published in 1762, page 393, is the following: "The method proposed by Dr. Bracken is to tie up one of his fore feet close, and to fasten a cord or small rope about the other fetlock, bringing the end of it over horse's shoulders; then let him be hit or kicked with your foot behind that knee, at the same time pulling his nose down strongly to the manger, you will bring him upon his knees, where he should be held until he is tired, which cannot be long; but if he does not lie down soon, let him be thrust sideways against his quarters, to throw him over. By forcing him down several times in this way, you may teach him to lie down at the same words you used for that purpose." Rarey's system is exactly the same.

A Question.

Unsandal here her way-worn feet,
Then fold them in the winding-sheet,
And let the poor girl sleep the sleep
That wakes, we trust, in Heaven.

For did not our Good Father give,
Unto this one, a life to live?
Was not her last breath loaded with
A prayer to be forgiven?

OLD MAIDS.—Many of the satirical aspersions cast upon old maids tell more to their credit than is generally imagined.—Is a woman remarkably neat in her person, "she will certainly die an old maid." Is she frugal in her expenses, and exact in her domestic concerns, "she is cut out for an old maid." And if she is kind and humane to the animals about her, nothing can save her from the appellation of "an old maid." In short, we have always found that neatness, modesty, economy and humanity are the never failing characteds of an old maid.

DR. M'LANE'S
CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND
LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of

FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

JUST PUBLISHED,

ITALY,
AND THE WAR OF 1859.

Giving a history of the causes of the War, with Biographical sketches and finely-engraved portraits of its Heroes, together with the official accounts of the Battles of Montebello, Palestro, Magenta; etc. etc. and Maps of Italy, Austria, and all the adjacent countries by

MADAM JULIE DE MARGUERITTES,
With an Introduction by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE, handsomely bound in one volume, 12mo. cloth,

PRICE $1.25.

And published by G. G. EVANS, 439 CHESTNUT St., PHILADELPHIA.

"ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859,"—This handsome volume, written by Madam Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed. The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has travelled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official report of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garibaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogises its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The Metropolitan Rail Road Circus.

From an advertisement in another colum our readers will see that we are to have another Circus show here on Saturday next. The company with the trained horses and ponies of H. Whitby & Co, have recently performed in New York at Niblos Garden and drew large and fashionable audiances. We are glad to notice a great improvement in the character of these exhibitions within a few years, in the avoidance of vulgarism and double. entendres. Many useful lesson may be inculcated in the athletic exercises of a circus, teaching us to what extent man may be educated to perform acts of dareing with safety, and how to grow physically strong. The extent to which the horse may be trained also, is by no means a useless lesson. We are not altogether mindful of the fact that a Circus is in its character just what popular taste demands and therefore if we would improve this class of shows, we should exhibit our preferences for the good, and our disapprobation of the bad, whenever we find that element engrafted upon it. Those who give these exhibitions seek out the public taste and adapt their performances to it, so therefore it is popular taste, not the Circus that is to be blamed if it is not always as refined as some fastid ous people would have it.

We have reason to think that the performances on Saturday next by the Metropolitan Rail Road Company of H. Whitby & Co, will be among the best of the season.

Summer Sickness.

Dysentery prevails to a considerable extent in and about Batavia. The extreme dry weather has promoted the development of malaria, which is regarded by many systematic writers as the predisposing cause of the disease, and is excited by sudden changes of weather, and especially by exposure to wet and cold.—Imprudence in eating indigestible articles of food such as unripe fruit, imperfectly cooked vegetables &c, often excite and aggrevate the disease. Persons attacked with dysentery should at once take to the bed and remain quiet as possible, moving about always aggravates the difficulty.

THE CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.—We would call attention to the advertisement in another colum of the "Clinton Liberal Institute" of Clinton Oneida Co, this State, The terms are very liberal, and we should judge its management to be such as to warrant the confidence of those who desire to place their children in a first-class school.

ICE CREAM served in very large dishes at the Park Place Saloon to-night.

Regulator.

We notice to-day that BIERCE is paying 16 cts per pound for good butter and has reduced still lower the price of all his Summer Goods. Lawns worth 12½c to 8c; Silks worth 75c to 50c. Embroidery setts worth $4.00 to $2.00; Challies worth 25c to 12½; Kid Gloves worth 87½c to 50; Linen worth 50 to 25c. MILES always undersells the other Merchants. tf

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium, of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are essentially subdued by the New Medical Salt, or are extinguished by nature, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible] As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt. Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. JOHNSON'S
HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(Up Stairs, Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption,

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent, in consequence of which at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually go to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion, Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body, shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat, shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body, pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhea or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named, have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the institution is new. It is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

N. B. A word of explanation to those who have known us under the style of Evans and Co. The Business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York city, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "Evans & Co.'s Gift Bookstore." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity to advertise under the same name to increase their trade, to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the name so as to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

CONSUMPTION CURED!
DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.
Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the
HYPOPHOSPHITES
of LIME, and of SODA,
Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for
CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is the last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also
as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda, J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $5,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as Consumption. Address,

Grain Growing in England.

The Rochester Union of Wednesday contains another interesting letter from the Editor from England. We clip the following observations on grain growing and reclaiming waste lands:—"It has often been matter of wonder to me that England should be able to produce the vast amount of grain which statistics prove she does produce. If I do not forget—for I have no statistics at hand and am obliged to speak from memory—England during the later years of the corn law produced more wheat than the whole United States. Her product of oats, barley, &c., was in something like the same proportion. In those days Western New York was a great wheat-growing country; and the same remark was true of large portions of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and some of the Western States. The aggregate area of our wheat-growing districts was of course vastly greater than the whole of Britain. And we of Western New York especially, were loth to believe that any other country of equal extent could produce better or a larger quantity of wheat and other grains. Yet there were the statistics, which sadly militated with our notions, and which, to me at least, seemed inexplicable. But now that I have traversed England in almost all directions, and observed her agriculture as closely as my opportunities would permit, I can comprehend how it is that this country produces so much more grain in proportion to its area than our own grain-growing districts. In the first place, with the exception of a few mountainous districts, which cover but a small portion of her territory, there is but little land in England which is not under cultivation.—In former ages, as we know from Macaulay and other writers, there were large swamps which produced nothing for the sustenance of man; and that there were immense barrens which were substantially unproductive. But now all these things are changed. The marshes of those days have all been drained, and are now among the most fertile portions of the country. In passing through England in almost any direction you will often enter upon an extensive plain, which you would expect to see covered with the vegetation peculiar to marshy districts. But as you get fairly into it, you will observe that it is laden with heavy crops of wheat, oats, barley, &c., &c., the result of a more thorough system of drainage, perhaps, than any other country can boast.

A DIFFICULTY NOT EASILY REMEDIED.—The numerous sewers that open into the Thames from the city of London, render the water so offensive that it is exhaling effluvia more terrible if possible than that which created a panic last year; the committees of the House of Commons are obliged to sit with their windows shut, in order to escape the stench which rises from the river and penetrates every corner of the edifice which is not closed against it.

The Worcester (Mass.) Transcript says "a club of young ladies, two of them daughters of our leading physicians, have for some time been practicing on Curtis's Pond, and are now ready to enter the race whenever a new boat shall give them a fair chance in the struggle. They have so far condescended to the weakness of humanity as to have a gentleman for coxswain—but then the Rev. T. W. Higginson is a more firm believer in womans' mission than the majority of ladies themselves; and they only admit him into the stern of the boat!"

A perfect mummy was found floating in the river at St. Louis on the 27th inst.—It is supposed that the body had been buried in the bank of the river where the soil had some peculiar antiseptic preservative quality, and that it had been washed out by the high tide. The remnant of a shroud hung about the shoulders.

SHARP PRACTICE.—A San Francisco shopkeeper was cunningly outwitted a few weeks since by an unprincipled female in this wise: A lady, attracted by the "loveliness" of a cloak gracefully hung over a mock woman's figure, purchased it. In the act of paying however, it became apparent that her finances lacked just one dollar of the required amount. After a little reflection, she told the shopkeeper that she would leave with him all the money she had then, and send her husband during the day with the balance. To this, of course, the shopkeeper consented.—Among other customers of the same day, a "lady," No. 2, was also fascinated by the charms of this cloak, for which the greater portion of the price had been paid, and, on inquiry, was informed by the dealer that it was already disposed of, at the same time unheedingly mentioning the particulars relative to the purchase. She sought an accomplice who soon reached the shopkeeper's emporium. The unwary dealer promptly wrapped up the cloak in a neat parcel and politely handed it over to the pretended husband who quickly departed. But what was the shopkeeper's astonishment, when after the lapse of a few hours, the veritable husband of the lady No. 1 made his appearance. There was no alternative; the cloak was non est, and the money had to be refunded. And what was his still greater astonishment when in a few moments a third husband came in anxious for a cloak! He sunk in despair, leaving his clerk to settle the matter, thinking he had been swindled enough. The last comer proved to be a genuine husband and of course had to be satisfied.

CHARLES C. PLYMPTON, the Route Agent between Albany and Rutland, who lost his life by this catastrophe, was a young man greatly esteemed by all his acquaintances. His character was irreproachable. The inmates of the Albany Postoffice will long remember his gentlemanly and modest bearing, as he quietly came among them almost daily, and the faithful manner in which he discharged his duties. He had been in this service some six or seven years. His father is a prominent citizen and business man in Vermont. Only the day before his death Col. North, the Special Mail Agent, in conversation with young Plympton asked him why he did not leave the road and engage in other business, urging some reasons why it would be for his interest to do so. He acknowledged their force and said his father was anxious to have him return and engage in business at home, but that he had become attached to the service he was in and thought he would continue for a while. The next day he was dead. How uncertain is the future of every one of us!

"WORMS" ON THE FACE.—An editor informs a correspondent as follows:—Little black specs, are occasionally observed upon the nose and forehead of some individuals. These specks, when they exist in any number, are a cause of much unsightliness. They are minute corks, if we may use the term of coagulated lymph, which close the orifices of some of the pores or exhalent vessels of the skin. On the skin, immediately adjacent to them, being pressed with the finger nails, these bits of coagulated lymph will come from it in a vermicular form. They are vulgarly called "flesh worms," many persons fancying them to be living creatures. These may be got rid of, and prevented from returning by washing with tepid water, by proper friction with a towel, and by the application of a little cold cream. The longer these little piles are permitted to remain in the skin, the more firmly they become fixed: and after a time, when they lose their moisture, they are converted into little bony spines, as dense as bristles, and having much of that character.

A short time since a young man with his wife arrived in Chicago from Poughkeepsie, where by years of steady industry he had accumulated some $10,000. This money, all he was worth in the world, he put into wheat at one dollar per bushel, supposing that the war would create a foreign demand and that the price must go up. He bought some 30,000 bushels at this rate, and made the usual advances, hoping to sell enough to meet his obligations as they matured. But the crash came and every dollar invested has dwindled down to fifty cents, leaving the unfortunate speculator worth some thousands of dollars less than nothing.

IDOLATRY.—An exchange says that the Chinese have a temple in San Francisco which cost $20'000, and have imported an idol from China at a cost of $30,000. It is the image of a man who figured in China three hundred years ago and was a great statesman and warrior, as one said, "like your Washington." The only efforts in California to Christianize the Chinese are by the Methodists at Sacramento. The law prohibiting Chinamen from coming to the State is pronounced unconstitutional, and their number, now sixty thousand, is rapidly increasing.

Eighteen thousand sheep and lambs have been received at New York this week. The extreme drouth has parched the grass and induced their owners to send them forward.

Since the union of the two Canadas the debt has increased from six to sixty millions, and the annual expenses of the government from a million and a quarter to eleven millions and a half. The great expenditures have been made to conciliate various localities, and to fatten speculators.

At a recent meeting of peach-growers in the vicinity of Woodville, Mercer county, N. J., it was ascertained that in a space of country about three miles square there would be at least 20,000 baskets of peaches for shipment. In this space there are over 92,000 trees planted, 32,000 of which are in bearing.

The corner stone of the national monument to the forefathers, was laid with appropriate ceremonies on Monument Hill at Plymouth, Mass., on Monday. The address of the occasion was delivered by Richard Warren, of New York. Dinner for 2,500 persons was served in a mammoth tent. A ball in Davis' Hall, and illuminations and fireworks on the green closed the festivities of the day.

Over 600 persons sat down at one table, in a hotel, at Saratoga, Saturday.—Saratoga is now full and over full,—but the capacity of the place to hold everything and everybody is as great as ever, and how great that is, no one can tell, as no one there ever was turned off for want of a bed or half of a bed, or some sort of a bed.

A prodigious calf, weighing five hundred pounds, fourteen weeks old, native of New York, was sold at Washington drove yards for $37,50. A boy named Hoffman, aged fourteen years, had taken it from the dam when five days old, and fed it on meal and milk till the day of sale. The average gain in weight per day was five pounds.

It has been irreverently suggested that the new church about to be established by the Rev. Dr. Bellows, under the name of the "Broad Church," should be called the Broad Gauge Church. Either way, we do not see how it could be made to harmonise with the scripture, which declares that "staight is the gate, and narrow is the way that leads to life, and few there be that find it."

CELEBRATED

VERMIFUGE

AND

LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of

FEVER AND AGUE,

preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

All the provisions of law in relation to loans made by commissioners of the canal fund, and the issue and transfer of certificates of stock, shall apply to loans authorized by this act, so far as the same are applicable.

§ 2. The moneys realized by such loan shall be applied exclusively to the payment of claims against the state not otherwise provided for, for work done on the canals of the state, and for private property appropriated by the state for the use of such canals, and for injury to private property growing out of the construction of the canals, or to the payment of the principal and interest of such loan, and for no other purpose whatever.

§ 3. Two million five hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the treasury, on the warrant of the auditor of the canal department, from the said moneys, within two years from the time when this act shall take effect, for the payment of claims against the state specified in the last preceding section, and for the payment of the interest on the loan authorized by this act, which shall become payable prior to the receipt into the treasury of the first annual tax, hereinafter directed to be levied and collected, for the payment of the interest and principal of the loans authorized by this act; but any sum applied to pay interest as aforesaid, may be refunded out of the proceeds of the said taxes when received into the treasury.

§ 4. An annual tax is hereby imposed, and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other state taxes are levied and collected sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of the loan hereby authorized, within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. The comptroller shall ascertain and determine what sum, being applied in payment of principal and interest, in the first year after the tax can be collected as aforesaid, and in each succeeding year thereafter, within a period of eighteen years from the time of contracting said loan, will be sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of said loan within said period of eighteen years; and shall in each year apportion the sum so required among the several counties of this state, according to the then last corrected assessment rolls returned to his office, and shall give notice of such apportionment to the boards of supervisors of the respective counties. It shall be the duty of the boards of supervisors of the respective counties to cause the amount so apportioned in each year to be levied, collected and paid to the treasurer of this state in the same manner as other state taxes. The money collected and paid into the treasury under this section shall constitute a sinking fund to pay the interest and redeem the principle of the loan contracted pursuant to this act, and shall be sacredly applied to that purpose; and if at any time, the sinking fund shall be insufficient to comply with the requirements of this section, the comptroller shall increase the sum thereafter to be levied and collected by tax in each year, so as to make the fund adequate for the purpose aforesaid.

§ 5. The fourth section of this act, imposing a tax may be repealed whenever the revenues of the canals, after meeting all present constitutional charges upon them, shall amount to enough to form a sinking fund sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of all loans without the eighteen years mentioned in the first section of this act.

§ 6. This act shall be submitted to the people of this state, at the next election, and the votes given for its adoption, shall be endorsed "Constitutional loan," and shall be in the following form: "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars, to pay the floating debt of the state," and "Against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the State." The inspectors of the several election districts in this state, shall provide a separate box, in which the ballots given in pursuance of this act shall be deposited. The ballots shall be canvassed and returned, and the result shall be votes given for the office of Governor of this determined and certified in the same manner as state. If a majority of the votes cast, pursuant to this act, shall be "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the preceding sections of this act shall take effect; but if a majority of the votes so cast, shall be "against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the said sections shall not take effect, but shall be inoperative.

You are without delay to deliver a copy of the above notice to the Supervisor or one of the Assessors of each town or ward in your county; and also to cause a copy of said notice to be published in all the public newspapers printed in your county, once in each week until the election.

Yours respectfully,
GIDEON J. TUCKER, Sec'y of State.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation.

NOTICE TO INVALIDS! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as easily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more: he [illegible] equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try: if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Fellows and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least sixty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion of Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart; asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own homes without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these difficulties, will receive for 50 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a [illegible] through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new Treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the unestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost invariable success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption
as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also
as Effectual a Preservative
as Vaccination in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

☞ This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Diseases, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

☞ No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

☞ Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $5,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 43 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover expense of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

The Northern Railroad Murder.

Verdict of the Coroners Jury.—We should think the following verdict of the Coroners Jury in the case of the Northern Railroad disaster would serve in some degree to put Railroad companies upon their guard. A Wooden bridge should never be allowed for a Railroad crossing, but while money is regarded as an equivolent to human life, we must expect these bridges and their disasters to follow.

Upon the oaths and affirmations of seven good and lawful men of the State of New York, duly chosen and sworn or affirmed, and charged to inquire, on behalf of said People, how and in what manner the said persons came to their deaths, do, upon their oaths and affirmations, say: That the said persons came to their death by the falling of the bridge, over the Tomhannock creek, on the Albany, Vermont and Canada Railroad, at Schagticoke; and said bridge being rotten and in an unsafe condition, the Jury believe that the Superintendent, Trustees and owners of said road should be held responsible.

SUICIDES.—The New York Times recently recorded twenty-six suicides all of recent date. They embraced persons in every condition of worldly prosperity, from actual poverty up to wealth, one being worth $300,000, another $100,000 &c. The most wealthy, and according to the worlds estimate, the smartest, most successful and happiest one of the whole twenty-six, was led to commit the fatal act from the perplexity of his business cares, and meditating upon the suicide of another.—It every day being practically demonstrated that wealth is a misfortune rather than a blessing, and that it is productiin of more misery, than comes from poverty.

A GREAT WEDDING.—A Spanish grandee is to be married in New York sometime this month to a Miss Bartlett, on whom he has bestowed over $600,000 worth of jewels and gewgaws. The wedding veil is said to have cost a thousand dollars. A sister of the Bridegroom now in Cuba, has sent on a little bridal present worth only a hundred thousand dollars.

Papers of no Use.

The following letter is said to have been written to the Rural New Yorker:—

"Mr. Editor, i hav somethin to say about yure paper. No dont but it is A good won but papers aint no use, and if enybody spens much time in reeden them tha cant urn thare livin and so i dont reed em, and so save time and expens. you see it wood cum to too dollars A year, an that wood by enuf tobacker to las me 6 munts at leest. i think fokes doant ort to spend thare munne on papers, my farther never did an evry boddy sed he was the smartest man in the countre, and had got the intelligentest family of buoys that ever dug taturs. i think fokes ort to kno enuf too ho corn and pik stun without reeding the Rural and other farmin papers, and if everybody was ov mi mind, thare wood be no such A thing as a paper in our united states."

The above piece of composition is "proof positive" that newspapers are of no use, and that they should at once be suppressed.

The lady editor of the Rockford (Ill.) Standard says: "The 'Daughters of Malta' are becoming as distinguished, and seem to be quite as benevolent in their designs, as the 'Sons of Malta.' Their object is said to be to relieve widowers, destitute bachelors, dandies, Hottentots, and orphan male children. By the time the Sons obtain the control of the Island of Cuba the Daughters confidently expect to subjugate the Isle of Man."

Steps are in progress for the organization of a land company in London, with a capital of five hundred thousand pounds sterling, to be devoted to the purchase and settlement of lands in Illinois. The Prairie Land and Emigration Company state that a conditional purchase has been made of two hundred and fifty thousand acres of prairie land from the Illinois Central Railroad Co.

THE INVASION OF ENGLAND.—All classes in England have been so long contemplating the possibility of an invasion from France, that the idea takes proportions suddenly formidable now that Napoleon has formed the League of Absolutism with Austria and Russia.

The Prince de Joinville was the first to broach the idea of a landing, with steam vessels; and since then Wellington and Napier, and all classes, soldiers and citizens, have acknowledged its practicability.—The invasion once made, London would be the point aimed at. That once in possession of an enemy, Lieut. General Shaw Kennedy, an English officer of repute, in "Notes on the Defence of Great Britain and Ireland," indicates the consequences:

"An enemy possessing himself of London with a powerful army would make that his base of operation, operate from it, upon one or more of the arsenals on the coast, and, should he possess himself of one of them, would have a bridge-head of communication with France; from that he would attack the other arsenals, and, should he succeed in either taking or destroying them, the naval resources of England would be paralyzed, her naval stores would be destroyed, she could neither build nor repair vessels, and during this suspension of her naval power her naval superiority might be for ever lost; and, should ever that event happen, Great Britain will rank from that moment among the second-rate powers."

THE DES JARDINS BRIDGE ON THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.—"Sentinel" of the New York Courier & Enquirer, in a description of a journey to Toronto, remarks that of all the incidents that attend the passage by rail to that city, that in which the thought is with deepest movement, is in the crossing of the memorable bridge over the Des Jardins. It was of the first and saddest catastrophies that have written such sad words in the chronicle of the great measure of progress. Here that man of intense activity, of bold plan, of complex business, died in the zenith of his days, with his roll of human affairs yet spread out in the noon of high activity. Mr. Zimmerman was a moving and a courageous man. He dared to seek gain over the pathway of loss, and had he lived, would doubtless have made complete success of many of those schemes of enterprise which so soon as he was torn away from them, shrivelled into loss, as the webb flutters into filaments when the life that sustains it is rudely withdrawn.

And such memories as travelers have! So soon as we enter on the bridge, though the chasm is so narrow that a few rods of the driver take us over, the incidents of that terrible night are discussed. It is the peculiar passion of some minds to see a shadow where happiness would be found in realizing the present light.

A BIG DINNER.—It seems that eighty odd thousand people who attended the Handle Festival at the Crystal Palace, London, did not take music on empty stomachs. The statistics of the refreshment department shows us what sturdy Britons can achieve with a well managed commissariat. A newspaper enquirer thus sums them up:

We find that during the festival the consumption of creature comforts was something as follows: 1,600 dozen sandwiches, 1,200 dozen pork pies, 400 dozen Sydenham pastries, 800 veal and ham pies, 650 pigeon pies, 480 hams, 3,500 chickens, 120 galantines of lamb, 240 fore quarters of lamb, 150 galantines of chicken, 60 raised game pies, 3,022 lobster salads, 3,825 dishes of salmon mayonnaise, 300 score of lettuce, 40,000 buns at a penny each, 52,000 ditto at two pence, 32,249 ices, 2,414 dozen "beverages," 1,150 puddings, 400 jellies, nine tons of roast and boiled beef, 400 creams, 350 fruit tarts, 3,506 quarts tea, coffee and chocolate, and 485 tongues. The consumption of wines, which was enormous, had not been ascertained when our account was made up.

ERIE RAILROAD.—The affairs of this road excite much interest and receive considerable attention in the New York stock reports. The shares yesterday closed with 5 bid, and the Evening Post says that no decisive action has as yet been taken by the directors, though it is understood that a temporary receivership is contemplated to provide against the action of certain holders of the Sinking Fund Bonds of 1857, who have obtained a judgment in the sum of $55,000.—Matters thus held in abeyance, the directors confine their deliberations to affairs immediately connected with the executive administration. On Thursday the President's salary was materially reduced, and at another meeting yesterday afternoon the propriety of a new President was discussed. A portion of the Board are in favor of Mr. Ramsdell, who was previously President, as the successor of Mr. Moran.

At the recent commencement of Franklin Marshall College, at Lancaster, Pa., the honorary title of the LL. D. was conferred on the Hon. Gideon J. Tucker, Secretary of State for the State of New York.

At Sing Sing, during the severe thunder storm on Wednesday afternoon, the electric fluid entered the telegraph office, burst the gas pipe and ignited the gas, which set the building on fire. The flames, however, were soon extinguished, causing but slight damage. It is supposed that there was a leak of gas, and the electric spark conducted the flame to the pipe.

A can of vitriol which was in the car on the train going West Monday noon on the New York Central Railroad, tipped over, and its contents spilled on two or three of the mail bags; the vitriol was eating so rapidly into the bags that they had to be taken to the Post Office at Rome, and their contents for Palmyra and other places West, distributed at the Rome Post Office.

A correspondent writing from Niagara Falls to the N. Y. Herald, says that he has been informed, by a gentleman whose statement is reliable, that where the suspension Bridge originally sagged only two or three inches under the weight of a train, it now sags nearly twenty inches. The general impression in the neighborhood is that this great work of art will one of these days give way and fall into the river.—Visitors now walk over the bridge instead of crossing in the trains as formerly.

The Urbana (O.) Citizens, speaking of Robt. McFarland, Esq., of that city, now in his 75th year, says he has lived there 54 years. He saw Washington in 1793.—Was in Urbana before any house was built. Made the first bridle that ever was made in Springfield (for Griffith Foos.)—Never gave a note or went security.—Never paid interest. Never sued any person, or was sued. He never chewed tobacco or smoked a cigar. He never drank a dram of whisky in his life; and he was a first class leader in Urbana.

SENT TO WARSAW.—John Hughes and Peter Vincent were last night fitted with the bracelets and taken by Constable Cooley to Rice's public boarding house.—Their offence, we understand, was passing partially cancelled laborer's tickets against the Railroad Co. at a clothing store for the full face, and an attempt to clench the bargain by assault and battery in open court.—Attica Atlas

A parallel to this philanthropic sentiment may be found in a letter from a private soldier in one of the French regiments, which has just been published in a Paris paper. After describing the battle of Solferino notre brave thus expresses himself: "Never since I entered the army, have I, in a single day, done so much killing as I did on the 24th inst."

Some of these unofficial reports on the war are well calculated to give us a new idea of the capacities of our common nature.

THE BEAUTIES OF WAR.—During the campaign of the British army in India against the Sikhs, a few years ago, a despatch to the home government described the slaughter of the natives, who were in retreat crossing a river, in the most glowing terms, and concluded with these words: "Too much praise cannot be awarded to Lieut. Col.———, every gun from whose batteries told with the most beautiful effect on the dense masses of the enemy."

An old fashioned button, such as was worn on Soldiers' Overcoats in the Revolution, was cut out of an apple tree in the orchard of Edwin Fuller at Onondaga Valley. The tree had become somewhat decayed and in cutting it up for firewood, the button rolled out of a small cavity in the tree.

The Binghamton Republic is constructing a new dictionary. It defines "MAN—a generic term, embracing WOMAN." If this is a sample, the new dictionary will be comprehensive enough, at least.

There is an old bachelor in New York so confirmed that he won't read the war news because so much is said about infantry. Pity his father had not been like him.

Says the Louisville Journal:—It is claimed for Mr. Buchanan that he works 18 hours a day. The devil works 24.

Yes! and the latter has a Prentice to help him, which gives the long odds to the Journal's side.

I. A. Mathews, of buffalo, has invented an apparatus by which common gas is subjected to a chemical process that more than doubles its illuminating power.

DR. M'LANE'S
CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND
LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to
Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.
We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:
THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.
THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of
FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.
As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.
Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,
FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to
FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.
P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. CHAP. 271.

AN ACT to submit to the people a law authorizing a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars, to provide for the payment of the floating debt of the State.

Passed April 13th, 1859—three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. The commissioners of the canal fund are hereby authorized to borrow on the credit of the state two million five hundred thousand dollars, at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, and reimbursable at such periods as shall be determined by the said commissioners, not exceeding eighteen years from the time of making such loan. All the provisions of law in relation to loans made by commissioners of the canal fund, and the issue and transfer of certificates of stock, shall apply to loans authorized by this act, so far as the same are applicable.

§ 2. The moneys realized by such loan shall be applied exclusively to the payment of claims against the state not otherwise provided for, for work done on the canals of the state, and for private property appropriated by the state for the use of such canals, and for injury to private property growing out of the construction of the canals or to the payment of the principal and interest of such loan, and for no other purpose whatever.

§ 3. Two million five hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the treasury, on the warrant of the auditor of the canal department, from the said moneys, within two years from the time when this act shall take effect, for the payment of claims against the state specified in the last preceding section, and for the payment of the interest on the loan authorized by this act, which shall become payable prior to the receipt into the treasury of the first annual tax, hereinafter directed to be levied and collected, for the payment of the interest and principal of the loans authorized by this act; but any sums applied to pay interest as aforesaid, may be refunded out of the proceeds of the said taxes when received into the treasury.

§ 4. An annual tax is hereby imposed, and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other State taxes are levied and collected sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of the loan hereby authorized, within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. The comptroller shall ascertain and determine what sum, being applied in payment of principal and interest, in the first year after the tax can be collected as aforesaid, and in each succeeding year thereafter, within a period of eighteen years from the time of contracting said loan, will be sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of said loan within said period of eighteen years; and shall in each year apportion the sum so required among the several counties of this state, according to the then last corrected assessment rolls returned to his office, and shall give notice of such apportionment to the boards of supervisors of the respective counties. It shall be the duty of the boards of supervisors of the respective counties to cause the amount so apportioned in each year to be levied, collected and paid to the treasurer of this state, in the same manner as other state taxes. The money collected and paid into the treasury under this section shall constitute a sinking fund to pay the interest and redeem the principle of the loan contracted pursuant to this act, and shall be sacredly applied to that purpose; and if at any time, the sinking fund shall be insufficient to comply with the requirements of this section, the comptroller shall increase the sum thereafter to be levied and collected by tax in each year, so as to make the fund adequate for the purpose aforesaid.

§ 5. The fourth section of this act, imposing a tax may be repealed whenever the revenues of the canals, after meeting all present constitutional charges upon them, shall amount to enough to form a sinking fund sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of all loans without the eighteen years mentioned in the first section of this act.

§ 6. This act shall be submitted to the people of this state, at the next election, and the votes given for its adoption, shall be endorsed "Constitutional loan," and shall be in the following form: "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars, to pay the floating debt of the state," and "Against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the State." The inspectors of the several election districts in this state, shall provide a separate box, in which the ballots given in pursuance of this act shall be deposited. The ballots shall be canvassed and returned, and the result shall in votes given for the office of Governor of the [illegible] and certified in the same manner as [illegible]. If a majority of the votes cast, pursuant to this act, shall be "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the preceding sections of this act shall take effect; but if a majority of the votes so cast, shall be "Against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the said sections shall not take effect, but shall be inoperative.

You are without delay to deliver a copy of the above notice to the supervisors or one of the assessors of each town in your county, and also to cause a copy of said notice to be published in all the public newspapers printed in your county, once in each week until the election.

Yours respectfully,
GIDEON J. TUCKER, Sec'y of State.

MYSTERIOUS.—We understand that the ghost of the Genesee Mutual Insurance Co., has appeared in several of the surrounding towns and counties, and succeeds in abstracting money very freely from the affrighted inhabitants. Where is Prof. Felton the ghost extinguisher!

NECROMANCY.—This evening, Prof. Love the celebrated magician, will give his first performance in Batavia, at Concert Hall. From the reputation which he has acquired in the course of a long career before the public, we anticipate something more than an ordinary exhibition of sleight-of-hand from the Professor. His entertainments in Buffalo were attended by large numbers of the most fashionable people in the city, and St. James Hall was crowded every night. The Commercial Advertiser remarked that he surpassed any wizard ever seen in Buffalo.

Since the visit to Rochester of McAllister some years since, no performer of distinguished merit in this line has appeared here, and we presume the wonderful illusions announced by Prof. Love will attract considerable attention. Madame Love appears with her husband each evening. *

THIS MORNING'S REPORT.

Arrival of the Nova Scotia.

FARTHER POINT, C. E. Aug. 7.

The steamer Nova Scotia, from Liverpool, at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 27th, has passed this point on her way to Quebec.

Nothing of moment had transpired in regard to the conference at Zurich, nor is it known whether Sardinia would take part.

A despatch of the 25th, from Berne, however, says that the Representatives of the three Powers were expected to meet at the end of July.

It was vaguely rumored in Paris on the 25th that Napoleon would visit London.

The Daily News believes that although the scheme of an Italian confederation may not have been formally struck off the programme, it is not now insisted on by the author, and that little more will be heard of it.

The French fleet had sailed from Lizzeria, and it was reported that a portion of the French army had begun to leave Italy.

The Independence Belge give a report that the proposition for a disarmament proceeded in the first instance from Napoleon.

It is asserted that a military convention between France and Austria, relative to Italy has been concluded, and that Lombardy is to take a fair share of the national debt.

Exaggeration of our armaments is to justify a considerable increase of the budget for the army and navy.

A comparison of the budgets of England and France will show these considerations to have been enormous. Since 1815 the army expenses of England have increased by 200,000,000 francs, making for 1860 a total of more than 650,000,000 francs; while the French army budgets for 1860 does not exceed 463,000,000 francs.

The Paris correspondent of the Herald says that there is something like 200,000,000 francs unexpended out of the late loan, and it is understood that the surplus is to be applied to the navy.

ST. LOUIS, Aug 7.

The overland mail of the 15th ult. reached this city last night.

New gold and silver mines have been discovered in the Washo Valley, which promised to pay well.

There had been three arrivals from Victoria within a week, bringing upwards of $730,000 and 300 passengers.

Frazer River had fallen sufficiently to admit the resumption of mining on the bars.

The Victoria Gazette says the yield of the mines within a year have been $3,000,000.

Horace Greeley had arrived at Salt Lake City.

The Indians were committing depredations in Humboldt county and the Mormons were implicated.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflamatory Diseases Only.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT instead of its being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: subdues Inflammatory diseases, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

NEW MEDICAL SALT. Its peculiar excellence is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases, (no other,) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation!

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are speedily subdued by the New Medical Salt, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, rush of blood to Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed eyes, ears, nose, lungs and liver, Neuralgia, Spinal affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Cough, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, and all itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more—no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. Get a Circular. Ask any Druggist about the New Medical Salt.

Ask your neighbors about the New Medical Salt. If sick, try; if not sick, remember the New Medical Salt.

DR. COGSWELL'S New Medical Salt is for sale in Batavia by H. W. Pellian's and by all enterprising druggists wherever the Herald is [illegible]. As it is not a Patent Medicine, but the [illegible] of an eminent Physician, no one [illegible] to try the New Medical Salt. [illegible] for testimonial and directions see circular.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

MEDICINES.

DR. JOHNSON'S HERB DISPENSARY!

OFFICE 95 MAIN STREET,

(Up Stairs) Buffalo, N. Y.)

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorrhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fluor Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflammation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

Dr. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense, in any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $2 a series of Health Rules and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation of the chemically Pure Compound of the

HYPOPHOSPHITES

of LIME, and of SODA,

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for

CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all stages of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new treatment—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubt as to the inestimable value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost imparalleled success. Let no Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am anxious that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sure a Remedy in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as effectual a Preservative as Vaccination is in Small Pox.

"In no instance have I found the remedy fail to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it.

"Out of [illegible] cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Disorders, Chlorosis, Dyspepsia,—or whatever depends on deficient vitality of the system.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a facsimile signature.

No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time.

Price, $1,00, or three bottles for $3,00, with full directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. [illegible] Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when specially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the sole general Depot in the U. S., 49 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only "Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover prepaid postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

The Crops in Genesee County.

We took a ride out through Pine Hill and Idleport yesterday, going out on one road, and returning on another, which gave us a fair opportunity to judge of the growing crops in this direction.

We here so much of late about the scarcity of hay, that we were somewhat surprised to see at frequent intervals on the road stacks of last years hay, as well as some of this years growth. If the barns are moderately well filled, with the hay stacked out, there will be no scarcity of fodder the coming winter in this direction.

The orchards are literally borne down with fruit. We saw a great many trees that will require propping to sustain them under their heavy load of apples, and a tree without fruit we found to be an exception from the general fact. A tone farm house we saw a large quantity of cut apples drying in the sun, these undoubtedly will be the first dried-apples of the season.

We saw but few pear trees, but these were generally bearing. Peaches, there are none in this direction, at least we saw none, although we looked out sharp for them.

Indian corn covers a large area and we should think that it promises an average yield, although we fancied perhaps that in many instances we could discern evidences of injury by the frost.

Potatoes look well every where, and are generally in blow. We were told that they blow more fully this year than they have for years before, and that this is an indication of a good yield. The surface covered by this crop we should judge to be smaller than usual.

Buckwheat covers a large surface and looks well. It is generally in bloom, and gives a pleasing aspect to the landscape.—Pancakes will be cheap and plenty next winter.

Winter wheat is all in, and we should think nearly if not all thrashed, from the stacks of straw. Spring wheat and Barley are still on the ground to some extent, but being harvested rapidly. We have no data from which to offer an opinion of the yield further than what has been already stated in this paper. We believe however, that spring wheat has never yielded much if any better than it has this year, but there was not a large surface sown.

Oats generally look pretty well, some fields are uneven, and seem to ripen unevenly probably in consequence of the late dry weather, which has had the effect to bring forward the crop more rapidly in some spots than others.

Passing through the village of Pine Hill, we observed quite a number of recent improvements in dwellings and business places. The exceeding neatness of the streets give it the air of a Quaker settlement which is the highest complement that can be paid any place.

Idleport is a small place, and we could not help thinking from the contrast in appearance with Pine Hill, that it was rightly named. The street seems to be the back yard of every house for the depository of old rubbish. The friend beside us remarked that the inhabitants must be people of steady habits or else they would break their neck on venturing out on a dark night. If the neighbors would only make a bee and clean out the street and repair the sidewalks it would be a sort of little Paradise, for really, with its rivulet, its abundance of shade and fruit trees, it might be a delightful place to live in.

The Utica Observer says James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, who is traveling with two ladies in his own carriage from New York city to Niagara Falls, passed through the towns of Trenton and Floyd, Wednesday last.

New Books.

The seventh number of Cooper's Novels "the Pilot" published by W. A. Townsend & Co. and illustrated by Darley is before us.

It is a sea tale and is one of the authors most happy efforts, and we have read it with great pleasure.

The perils of the sea, the reverses and successes of the mariner in war are here elegantly delineated, and he who enters upon the reading of it, finds himself impelled onward to its completion.

The author introduces his story in the description of a storm upon the Eastern coast of Great Britain and introduces his hero by a manifestation of unprecedented skill in seamanship in weathering it and conducting the ship through the reefs and rocks of that perilous coast. He gives us a description of the capture of a whale by long "Tom Coffeu" an original character, the loss of the ship, capture of an English cutter, marriage and death of some of the actors, and winds up with a return to America and the disappearance of the Pilot. The time of the events referred to seems to have been during the American war with Great Britan for her Independance, and is therefore more interesting to the American reader. We commend the book to all lovers of novel reading.

The President of the Erie Railroad, Mr. Moran, has heretofore been allowed a salary of $25,000 per year. It has just been cut down.

A Railroad Co., that will pay its own President such a salary, and neglect to reward the poor man for services rendered ought to break. The management of the Erie Road has been penny wise and found foolish.

TERRIBLE NORWEGIAN MUSKETOES.—I believe there is no preventive against their bite, which is instantaneous; they dash through the smoke of strong tobacco like a fox hound through a bulfinch; they creep under vail or gloves like a ferret into a rabbit hole; where they can neither dash nor creep, they "bide their own time" with the pertinacious cunning of a red Indian. Wherever the clothes touched the body closely, at the knees and elbows, they swarm in thousands, and bite through and through; they creep in single file up the seams of the gloves, and tried each stitch in succession. I have seen J's coat and hat so covered as he walked in front, that I could at any time kill the share of my hand in musketoes at a blow; and I have seen the unhappy horses so overlaid from ears to tail with a clustering mass of wings, that, with the point of my finger, I could not but immolate two or three of the blood-thirsty little demons. There is one puzzling question I cannot solve with satisfaction. What do they live on when they don't meet travelers?—Letter from Norway.

VALUATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.—The increase in value of property, real and personal, in the city of New York, during the past year, according to the assessors' has been more than twenty millions of dollars.

In 1858, the real estate was valued at about three hundred and sixty-eight millions (in round numbers), and the personal estate at about a hundred and sixty-three millions, making a total of five hundred and thirty-one millions of dollars.—In 1859, the returns give—real estate about three hundred and seventy-nine millions, and personal estate nearly one hundred and seventy-three millions, making a total of nearly five hundred and fifty-two millions, or an increase over the last year of nearly twenty-one millions of dollars.

MURDER AT NIAGARA FALLS.—The Lockport Journal says, that a German named Henry Hammer, shot a man named Bartlett Byron, at Niagara Falls on Friday night, killing him instantly. It appears that Byron went home intoxicated, and commenced whipping his wife, when Hammer interfered and endeavored to separate them. Byron immediately knocked him down, and commenced beating him severely, saying he would kill him. Hammer, seeing that he could not relieve himself, drew a pistol and shot Byron dead.

The Indianapolis Journal says: The poor-house of Monroe county, in this State, had for one of its inmates a number of years, a sister of Robert Fulton, the originator of the steamboat. She was living a year ago, but we cannot say whether or not she is alive at present. It thus frequently happens that the greatest benefactors of the human race, with their immediate friends, have suffered for the want of pecuniary means. Fulton himself, we believe, died a poor man. His sister in Monroe county was some years his senior.

From the Tahama Gazette.

"Inclined to be Quarrelsome"

There was once a little, slim-built fellow, rich as a jew, and independent as the devil, riding along a highway in the State of Georgia, when he overtook a man driving a drove of hogs by the help of a big, rawboned, six-feet-two specimen of humanity. Stopping the last named individual, he accosted him—

"I say, are these your hogs?"

"No, sir; I'm to work by the month."

"What pay might you be getting, friend?"

"Ten dollars a month and whisky thrown in, was the reply.

"Well, look here, I'm a weak, little, inoffensive man, and people are apt to impose upon me, d'ye see. Now I'll give you twenty-five dollars a month to ride along with me and protect me," said Mr. Gardner. "But," he added, as a thought struck him, "how are you on a fight?"

"Never been licked in my life," rejoined the six-footer.

"Just the man I want. I'ts a bargain?" queried Gardner.

Six-footer ruminated. Twenty-five dollars—double wages—nothing to do but to ride around and smash a fellow's mug occasionally when he's sassy.

Six-footer accepted.

They rode along till, just at night, they reached a village inn. Dismounting at the door, they went in. Gardner immediately singled out the biggest man in the room and picked a fuss with him. After considerable promiscuous jawing, Gardner turned to his fighting friend, and intimated that the licking of that man had become a sad necessity. Six-footer peeled, went in, and came out first best.

The next night, at another hotel, the same scene was reenacted—Gardner getting into a row with the biggest man in the place, and six-footer doing the fighting.

At last, on the third day, they came to a ferry kept by a huge, double fisted man, who had never been licked in his life.—Whilst crossing the river, Gardner, as usual, began to find fault and "blow." The ferryman got mad, threw things around, and told him his opinion of their kind—Gardner turned to his friend and gently broke the intelligence to him, "that he was sorry, but that it was absolutely necessary to thrash that ferry-man."

Six-footer nodded his head, but said nothing. It was plain to be seen that he did not relish the job, by the way he shrugged his shoulders, but there was no help for it. So when they reached the shore, both stripped and at it they went Up and down the bank, over the sand, into the water they fought, scratched, gouged bit and rolled till, at the end of an hour, the ferryman gave in. Six-footer was triumphant, but it had been tough work.—Going up to his employer, he scratched his head for a moment, and then broke forth:

"Look here, Mr. Gardner, your salary suits mighty well, but—I'm—of—the—opinion—that you are inclined to be quarrelsome. Here I've only been with you three days, and have licked the three biggest men in the country! I think the firm had better dissolve, for you see, Mr. Gardner, I'm afraid you'er inclined to be quarrelsome, and I reckon I'll draw!"

AN APPEAL FOR THE DOGS.—The Reporter of the New Orleans Crescent has evidently got a black and tan or a big Newfoundland that he prizes. Here how he talks against the practice of strychnine offerings that the good people of that city tender the canine race:

It is hard to treat dogs so. They are naturally friendly and confident; they never steal, only for something to eat; they never get drunk and make beasts of themselves; never pick pockets or break into houses; never commit perjury or willful murder; and never interfere with the human race, only upon a bad education of human inculcation, or under the influence of a malady for which they are not individually or doggishly responsible. Doesn't it smack of treachery to come the Lucretia Borgia over such a race of animals?

ECONOMICAL AND WEALTH PRODUCING.—Every child that is born does not add an expense to the community by no manner of means. Besides an addition to the numerical strength of the county, every grocer, merchant, shoemaker, and in fact every mechanic, has his prospects advanced for an increase of business. Humans must eat, drink, wear, walk, ride and suffer.—The child commences with the physician and ends with the undertaker—begins on milk and ends on beer. We would like to know one individual in the community that is not benefitted, directly or indirectly by the birth of every child—whether it be a boy or the other sex. We pause for a reply.—Buffalo Republic.

Altered $1 bills on the bank of Cohoes raised to $10 are already in circulation.—As the bank have not issued bills of the latter denomination, it will be easy to guard against imposition.

At Fredonia, N. Y., it is stated by the Gas light Journal, that the village is supplied by natural gas which issues from a rock.

THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of CHAP. 271.

AN ACT to submit to the people a law authorizing a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars, to provide for the payment of the floating debt of the State.

Passed April 13th, 1859—three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. The commissioners of the canal fund are hereby authorized to borrow on the credit of the state two million five hundred thousand dollars, at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, and reimbursable at such periods as shall be determined by the said commissioners, not exceeding eighteen years from the time of making such loan. All the provisions of law in relation to loans made by commissioners of the canal fund, and the issue and transfer of certificates of stock, shall apply to loans authorized by this act, so far as the same are applicable.

§ 2. The moneys realized by such loan shall be applied exclusively to the payment of claims against the state not otherwise provided for, for work done on the canals of the state, and for private property appropriated by the state for the use of such canals, and for injury to private property growing out of the construction of the canals or to the payment of the principal and interest of such loan, and for no other purpose whatever.

§ 3. Two million five hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the treasury, on the warrant of the auditor of the canal department, from the said moneys, within two years from the time when this act shall take effect, for the payment of claims against the state, specified in the last preceding section, and for the payment of the interest on the loan authorized by this act, which shall become payable prior to the receipt into the treasury of the first annual tax, hereinafter directed to be levied and collected, for the payment of the interest and principal of the loans authorized by this act; but any sum applied to pay interest as aforesaid, may be refunded out of the proceeds of the said taxes when received into the treasury.

§ 4. An annual tax is hereby imposed, and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other state taxes are levied and collected sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of the loan hereby authorized, within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. The comptroller shall ascertain and determine what sum, being applied in payment of principal and interest, in the first year after the tax can be collected as aforesaid, and in each succeeding year thereafter, within a period of eighteen years from the time of contracting said loan, will be sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of said loan within said period of eighteen years; and shall in each year apportion the sum so required among the several counties of this state, according to the then last corrected assessment rolls returned to his office, and shall give notice of such apportionment to the boards of supervisors of the respective counties. It shall be the duty of the boards of supervisors of the respective counties to cause the amount so apportioned in each year to be levied, collected and paid to the treasurer of this state in the same manner as other state taxes. The money collected and paid into the treasury under this section shall constitute a sinking fund to pay the interest and redeem the principal of the loan contracted pursuant to this act, and shall be sacredly applied to that purpose; and if at any time, the sinking fund shall be insufficient to comply with the requirements of this section, the comptroller shall increase the sum thereafter to be levied and collected by tax in each year, so as to make the fund adequate for the purpose aforesaid.

§ 5. The fourth section of this act, imposing a tax may be repealed whenever the revenues of the canals, after meeting all present constitutional charges upon them, shall amount to enough to form a sinking fund sufficient to pay the interest and redeem the principal of all loans within the eighteen years mentioned in the first section of this act.

§ 6. This act shall be submitted to the people of this state, at the next election, and the votes given for its adoption, shall be endorsed "Constitutional loan," and shall be in the following form: "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," and "Against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the State." The inspectors of the several election districts in this state, shall provide a separate box, in which the ballots given in pursuance of this act shall be deposited. The ballots shall be canvassed and returned, and the result shall be [illegible] votes given for the office of Governor of this [illegible] and certified in the same manner as [illegible]. If a majority of the votes cast, pursuant to this act, shall be "For a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the preceding sections of this act shall take effect; but if a majority of the votes so cast, shall be "against a loan of two million five hundred thousand dollars to pay the floating debt of the state," then the said sections shall not take effect, but shall be inoperative.

You are without delay to deliver a copy of the above notice to the inspectors or one of the inspectors of each town or ward in your county, and also to cause a copy of said notice to be published in all the public newspapers printed in your county, once in each week until the election.

Yours respectfully,
GIDEON J. TUCKER, Sec'y of State.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.

A special despatch to the Bulletin says that the Overland Express arrived last night at Leavenworth with Denver city dates of the 29th ult.

Great excitement prevailed at the mines in consequence of the discovery of rich diggings at the head-waters of the Colorado.

Hundreds were leaving daily for the diggings.

Another Express due to-day, will probably bring the details of the new discoveries.

The Leavenworth Times of to-day, says that a secret Vigilance Committe was organized during the past week, for the purpose of breaking up the extensive bands of horse thieves and robbers, which infest the territory. One or two victims had suffered a death penalty, and others were punished till they confessed their crime and exposed their associates.

The committee disbanded after gaining sufficient knowledge to effect the destruction of the different ganges.

New Medical Salt! New Medical Salt!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases only

NOTICE TO INVALIDS!! DR. COGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT [illegible] what it claims to do [illegible] equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Descriptive circulars may be obtained free at any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

MEDICINES.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every-where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood," is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures, and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from a Disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its cure, that almost every section of country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

A NEW, SPEEDY, AND MOST SUCCESSFUL

MODE OF TREATING

Spermatorhoea, Nervous Debility, Marasmus or Wasting Consumption.

AND ALL

Diseases of the Urino-Genital Organs.

A CLASS of Maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community, dooming at least fifty thousand youth of both sexes, annually to an early grave. These diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, relaxation and exhaustion; Marasmus, or muscular wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing, or hurried breathing on ascending a hill, or a flight of stairs—great palpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs, aversion to society, and to business or study, dimness of eye-sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgic pains in various parts of the body; pains in the back and limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhoea, or Fleur Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases, all the above named disorders and a host of others not named have their seat primarily in the sexual organs, and arise from morbid excitement and chronic inflamation—a state of morbid irritability, hence the want of success on the part of Old School Doctors.

DR. JOHNSON is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new, it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such, that patients can be cured at their own houses without expense. In any part of the country, from an accurate description of their case by letter, and have the medicine sent them by mail or express.

Young Men suffering from these direful ills, will receive for $5 a series of Health Rules, and perfect chart of cure, which will be to them a true polar star through life.
